NIKE

The University of North Carolina and Nike have an agreement to provide each varsity team with shoes, apparel, equipment bags and other products. The contract also provides annual funds to the academic and athletic excellence fund.

ACC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The Atlantic Coast Conference championship game, featuring the winner of the Coastal Division vs. the winner of the Atlantic Division, will be held Saturday, Dec. 5, 2009, in Tampa, Fla., at Raymond James Stadium. The game will be televised by ESPN at 8 p.m.

Quarterback T.J. Yates is back as his third year as a starter.

Preview

A year after emerging as one of the most improved teams in the country, North Carolina heads into 2009 with renewed optimism about the future of its football program. The Tar Heels won eight games in 2008 and earned the program's first bowl berth since 2004. Carolina carried that positive momentum into the offseason by signing a top 10 recruiting class in early February.

"Last year we flipped the win total from four victories to eight and advanced to a bowl game," said head coach Butch Davis. "We're heading in the right direction and we'll look to carry that momentum into the fall. It's an exciting time to be a part of Carolina football."

Davis and his staff, which includes three new assistant coaches, have some key holes to fill as they look toward the season opener on Sept. 5. For starters, the Tar Heels must plug two holes on the offensive line at right tackle and left guard and must build depth across the line. Carolina must replace three-year starters Garrett Reynolds, who was drafted by the Atlanta Falcons, and offensive guard Calvin Darity. Davis would like to play as many as 9-10 offensive linemen in a game and may be forced to play a few incoming freshmen. Three-year starting left tackle Kyle Jolly is a potential all-conference selection, and Lowell Dyer returns at center, but the other three positions are unsettled.

Another position of great need is wide receiver where Carolina lost six players from a year ago, including NFL draft picks Hakeem Nicks, Brandon Tate and Brooks Foster. Nicks declared early for the NFL Draft after setting 14 Carolina receiving records in just three seasons. Carolina lost players that accounted for 17 of its 21 receiving touchdowns in 2008. The Tar Heels recruited well at wide receiver, and several true freshmen will get an opportunity to play. Joshua Adams enrolled in January, participated in spring ball and has done a good job learning the offense.

Carolina's needs are not as great on defense where the Tar Heels return a league-high nine starters, including second-team All-ACC cornerback Kendric Burney and standout linebackers Quan Sturdivant and Bruce Carter. Gone are middle linebacker Mark Paschal (103 tackles in 11 games) and All-America safety Trimane Goddard who led the nation with seven interceptions. Sturdivant will slide to middle linebacker this fall, opening up competition at outside linebacker. Da'Norris Searcy had 10 of his 25 tackles last year in the bowl game vs. West Virginia and he begins the fall competing with Jonathan Smith and Matt Merletti for the vacant safety spot.

2009 Schedule

Seven home games, including the first Thursday night home game in UNC history, highlight the 2009 North Carolina football schedule.

Eight of the Tar Heels' 12 opponents played in a bowl game last season, including Florida State, which returns to Kenan Stadium for the first time since 2003. The Tar Heels and Seminoles will meet over Carolina's Fall Break on Thursday, Oct. 22 in an ESPN nationally televised game. The following week, Carolina goes on the road to Virginia Tech for another ESPN Thursday night game in Blacksburg, Va.

Carolina's home slate features games against The Citadel (Sept. 5), East Carolina (Sept. 19), Virginia (Oct. 3), Georgia Southern (Oct. 10), Florida State (Oct. 22), Duke (Nov. 7) and Miami (Nov. 14). The 2009 home schedule marks the first time Carolina and Duke have not ended the year since 2005.

The Tar Heels' road schedule features contests at Connecticut (Sept. 12), Georgia Tech (Sept. 26), Virginia Tech (Oct. 29), Boston College (Nov. 21) and NC State (Nov. 28).

January Enrollees

Wide receiver Joshua Adams and linebacker Kevin Reddick enrolled at North Carolina in January. Both are expected to compete for playing time as true freshmen.

Adams is a highly-recruited player who originally committed to the Tar Heels as a junior. He was ranked by nearly every recruiting analyst as one of the top receivers in the country. He will have plenty of opportunities this spring as the Tar Heels look to replace nearly the entire receiving corps from a year ago.

Reddick spent one summer session in Chapel Hill last year and then attended Hargrave Military Academy for one semester. Reddick missed Carolina's 2009 spring workouts due to mononucleosis. A native of New Bern, N.C., Reddick was one of the top players in the state as a high school senior in 2008.

Letterwinners

North Carolina returns 37 letterwinners from last season's 8-5 squad, including a league-best nine defensive starters. The Tar Heels welcome back 21 letterwinners on defense and 15 on offense. The returning starters on defense include DE E.J. Wilson, DT Cam Thomas, DT Marvin Austin, DE Robert Quinn, LB Bruce Carter, LB Quan Sturdivant, CB Kendric Burney, CB Jordan Hemby and S Deunta Williams. The six offense starters returning are QB T.J. Yates, TB Shaun Draughn, FB Bobby Rome, OT Kyle Jolly, C Lowell Dyer and OG Alan Pelc.

Staff Additions

North Carolina hired assistant coaches Troy Douglas, Art Kaufman and Allen Mogridge in February. Douglas will coach the defensive backs, Kaufman will be responsible for the linebackers and Mogridge will tutor the tight ends.

Douglas comes to Carolina after a successful three-year stint at South Florida. Kaufman is a 25-year coaching veteran who has served as a defensive coordinator in the Southeastern Conference. Mogridge is a former Tar Heel letterwinner who was on Buffalo's staff for seven years. Mogridge played four different positions at Carolina from 1996-99 and played in two Gator Bowls and the 1998 Las Vegas Bowl.

Signing Day Success

Most analysts agree that North Carolina inked one of the top 10 recruiting classes in the country on Feb. 4, 2009. The Tar Heels signed eight of the state's top 10 players according to SuperPrep Magazine. Carolina's signing day class was ranked No. 5 by Scout.com, No. 6 by The Sporting News, No. 6 by CBS College Sports and No. 8 by Rivals.com.

Cornerback Kendric Burney is an All-ACC candidate after earning second-team honors a year ago.

Kenon Stodium Renovotions

Renovation of the Kenan Football Center began after the 2008 season. An additional floor (level five) was added to the existing structure and renovations were made throughout the building. The fifth floor contains office and recruiting space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four premium gameday suites, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The recruiting area and suites also will be used as academic study areas during the week. The second floor was completely renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. The fourth floor renovations included additional office space for football support staff.

New lockers were installed on the first floor and the restrooms were renovated throughout the facility.

Carolina officials have adopted a master plan for Kenan Stadium and additional renovations are scheduled to begin after 2009.

UNC Tied For Sixth-Most Improved Record in 2008

North Carolina had a four-win improvement in 2008 from the 2007 season. UNC finished with an 8-5 mark last year, compared with a 4-8 record two seasons ago. The four-win turnaround tied for the sixth-best turnaround in the nation. The Tar Heels topped three ranked teams – No. 24 Connecticut, No. 23 Boston College and No. 22 Georgia Tech – and played in the Meineke Car Care Bowl vs. West Virginia.

Ployer Notes

• Over a span of two games last season, LB Bruce Carter blocked four consecutive punts. Carter blocked the final punt by Miami on Oct. 17, then blocked the first three punt attempts by then 24th-ranked Connecticut to set an ACC record and unofficial NCAA record for most consecutive blocked punts.

• Linebacker Quan Sturdivant led the nation last year with 87 solo tackles and ranked third in the ACC and 20th in the country in tackles per game.

• Tailback Shaun Draughn rushed for 866 yards last season, the most at UNC since Jonathan Linton had 1,004 in 1997.

• Senior Lowell Dyer is one of five ACC pivotmen named to the preseason watch list for the Rimington Trophy, presented annually to the nation's best center.

Yotes Aims For Efficiency

North Carolina offensive coordinator John Shoop believes the top statistic for a quarterback is pass efficiencey. Entering the 2009 season, junior signal caller T.J. Yates has a career pass efficiency rating of 131.56, which ranks fifth all-time at UNC. Yates missed half of the 2008 season with an ankle injury, but still managed to record a pass effi ciency mark of 153.04 last year and his career pass efficiency mark is third best among returning ACC QBs behind only NC State's Russell Wilson (133.93) and Wake Forest's Riley Skinner (132.34).

In the UNC career records, Yates ranks third in completion percentage (.598), sixth in passing yards (3,823), seventh in completions (299), eighth in attempts (500) and ninth in touchdowns (25).

Position-By-Position Preview

Offensive Line: The trio of Kyle Jolly, Alan Pelc and Lowell Dyer combined to start 29 games last year and form a solid nucleus of talent returning in 2009. Jolly is entering his third year as a starter at tackle and should contend for All-ACC honors. Pelc came on strong last year to earn a starting spot at guard. Dyer, a two-time All-ACC Academic honoree, has started at center in each of the last two seasons.

The Tar Heels will have to replace three-year starters Garrett Reynolds and Calvin Darity. Reynolds was a second-team All-ACC pick and consistently graded out as the team's top lineman. Finding their successors will be offensive line coach Sam Pittman's top priority. Junior Mike Ingersoll and sophomore Carl Gaskins are the top candidates at tackle. At guard, the unexpected departure of Aaron Stahl leaves an opportunity for redshirt freshman Jonathan Cooper, who was impressive on the scout team last year and has good quickness. Kevin Bryant battled injuries last year, but will challenge for playing time this spring at both guard and tackle. Cam Holland provides depth at center.

Returnees: OT/OG Kevin Bryant, OG Greg Elleby (moved from the defensive line to offensive line in the spring), OT Kyle Jolly, OG Alan Pelc, C Lowell Dyer; (returning starters in italic)

Losses: OG Bryon Bishop, RG Calvin Darity, OT Zack Handerson, OG Morgan Randall, OG Aaron Stahl, OT Garrett Reynolds

Additions: OL Travis Bond, OL David Collins, OL Brennan Williams

Wide Receivers & Tight Ends: North Carolina must completely rebuild its receiving corps after losing WR Hakeem Nicks (first round), TE Richard Quinn (second round), WR Brandon Tate (third round), WR Brooks Foster (fifth round) to the NFL draft. Carolina loses players that accounted for 17 of its 21 receiving touchdowns from 2008.

The only returning player with significant playing experience is Greg Little, who began his career as a wide receiver, moved to running back from the end of his freshman year and first part of his sophomore season, before moving back to wideout. He had 11 catches in 2008 and is expected to earn one of the starting positions this season. Freshman Dwight Jones and sophomore Rashad Mason played sparingly last year, but both have the talent to earn a starting position. Other candidates include Todd Harrelson, who redshirted last year, and highly-touted Joshua Adams, who joined the team in January. Johnny White, who is one of the fastest players on the team, has moved to wide receiver after playing most of his career at tailback. Zack Pianalto, Christian Wilson, Ryan Taylor and Ed Barham will compete at tight end/h-back. Pianalto was injured much of the 2008 season, but has shown the ability to be a productive player when healthy. Wilson saw significant time as a true freshman and has a lot of promise. Taylor is a good special teams player who has played both offense and defense during his career. Barham is a good blocker who is improving as a receiver.

Returnees: TE Ed Barham, WR Todd Harrelson, TE Vince Jacobs, WR Dwight Jones, WR Greg Little, WR Rashad Mason, TE Zack Pianalto, TE Christian Wilson, TE Ryan Taylor.

Losses: WR Cooter Arnold, WR Brooks Foster, WR Hakeem Nicks, Anthony Parker-Boyd, TE Richard Quinn, WR Brandon Tate, WR Kenton Thornton

Additions: WR Joshua Adams (January enrollee), WR Jheranie Boyd, ATH Erik Highsmith, WR Joshua McKie

Tailbacks & Quarterbacks: The Tar Heels return nearly every component of its 2009 offensive backfield, including all of their running backs from a year ago and starting quarterback T.J. Yates. The only loss is Cameron Sexton, who elected to graduate early and transfer to Catawba. Shaun Draughn became the starting tailback midway through the season and rushed for 866 yards, the most by a UNC tailback since Jonathan Linton in 1997. Ryan Houston provided a powerful punch off the bench, leading the team with eight touchdowns, including six from just a yard out.

While Draughn and Houston will still receive a bulk of the work at tailback, redshirt freshman Jamal Womble will have an opportunity to showcase his talents. He was a highly-recruited tailback the Tar Heels signed out of Arizona last year who has good speed, a low center of gravity and a quick, powerful burst. He was impressive in the spring and had a team-best 50 yards rushing in the spring game. It will be interesting to see what added dimension he brings to the ground game.

The Tar Heels are well stocked at fullback with Bobby Rome and Anthony Elzy. Rome is a powerful blocker with good hands. Both players are solid receivers out of the backfield.

Yates returns as the starter at quarterback for the third year. He will face competition from sophomore Mike Paulus, who started one game last season when Yates went down with an injury, and redshirt freshman Braden Hanson. All three signal callers will have to adjust to a new corps of receivers.

Returnees: QB Mike Paulus, TB Shaun Draughn, FB Anthony Elzy, TB Ryan Houston, RB Devon Ramsey, FB Bobby Rome, TB Johnny White, TB Jamal Womble, QB T.J. Yates; (returning starters in italic)

Losses: QB Cameron Sexton

Additions: RB Hunter Furr, QB Bryn Renner, ATH A.J. Blue, QB Donavan Tate

Three-year starter E.J. Wilson anchars a defensive line that returns all faur starters.

Defensive Line: This is arguably Carolina's deepset position with all four starters returning and several promising young players among the rotation. At times, Carolina played as many as nine defensive linemen per game in 2008. Defensive end Robert Quinn became a starter in the second game of the season and finished third in the ACC's defensive rookie of the year voting. Senior defensive tackle Cam Thomas is coming off his best season at UNC and returns for his third year as a starter. Defensive tackle Marvin Austin and end E.J. Wilson played well in 2008, and will look to increase their productivity this year. Reserves Quinton Coples and Michael McAdoo had solid rookie seasons and will push Wilson and Quinn for playing time. Aleric Mullins and Tydreke Powell are interchangeable with Austin and Thomas as starters at tackle.

Losses: None

Additions: DT Jared McAdoo, DE Donte Paige-Moss

Linebackers: Carolina returns two all-star candidates in Quan Sturdivant and Bruce Carter at linebacker. Sturdivant led the nation with 87 solo tackles and ranked third in the ACC in total tackles per game. Carter was a one-man blocking machine, leading the country with five blocks in 2008. Sturdivant will slide to middle linebacker this fall, creating an opening at the weakside linebacker position for speedy sophomore Zach Brown.

Although short on experience, the Tar Heels have as much depth at linebacker as they have in recent memory. Carter and Sturdivant started every game last year, but the five other players have seen little playing time except on special teams. Freshman Kevin Reddick enrolled in January after a semester at Hargrave Military Academy, but missed spring practice with mononucleosis. Brown won the competition for the last starting spot in the spring, but he will have to fend off competition from sophomore Linwan Euwell, converted safety Herman Davidson and redshirt freshman Dion Guy.

Returnees: OLB Zach Brown, OLB Bruce Carter, OLB Herman Davidson, OLB Linwan Euwell, OLB Dion Guy, MLB Ebele Okakpu, MLB Quan Sturdivant; (returning starters in italic)

Losses: MLB Mark Paschal, MLB Chase Rice

Additions: LB Hawatha Bell, LB Shane Mularkey, OLB Kevin Reddick (January enrollee)

Defensive Backs: Carolina returns three of four starters in the defensive backfield, including second-team All-ACC pick Kendric Burney, 2007 ACC Defensive Freshman of the Year Deunta Williams and senior cornerback Jordan Hemby. The graduation of All-America safety and three-year starter Trimane Goddard is a significant loss. Da'Norris Searcy, who had his career performance in the bowl game will be given every chance to win the job, but will face competition from juniors Matt Merletti and Jonathan Smith. Williams missed the spring due to a wrist surgery, but should be completely healthy this fall. Senior Melvin Williams had a great spring and will be ready if called upon. Hemby and Charles Brown were even coming out of the spring, and both are expected to be solid contributors in 2009. LeCount Fantroy and Brian Gupton will also compete for playing time at corner.

Losses: S Trimane Goddard, CB Richie Rich

Additions: DB Curtis Campbell, DB Josh Hunter, DB Mywan Jackson, DB Gene Robinson, DB Terry Shankle

Specialists: The unexpected departure of Jay Wooten leaves the Tar Heels with just one place-kicker – sophomore Casey Barth – with any experience entering the fall. Barth was the Tar Heels' primary field goal kicker in 2008 and connected on 10 of 14 attempts.

Carolina has no punter on the roster with any game experience. Walk-on Grant Schallock handled the punting duties in the spring and was impressive. He will be pushed by signee C.J. Feagles.

Carolina's special teams suffered a major loss last year when punt and kickoff return man Brandon Tate was lost for the season midway through the year. Johnny White did a good job late in the season and has the inside track on returning kickoffs. The Tar Heels are still searching for the right answer on punt returns and could look to fill the void with an incoming freshman.

Returnees: PK Connor Barth, H Trase Jones, PK Reid Phillips, P Grant Schallock

Losses: P Terrence Brown, PK Jay Wooten

Additions: P C.J. Feagles

Kenan Stadium Updates

A Great Setting, Getting Even Better

North Carolina is currently underway with a renovation of Kenan Stadium that will enhance the overall fan experience and provide much-needed recruiting and office space for the football program. The first phase in the Kenan Stadium Master Plan was the addition of a fifth floor to the Kenan Football Center and a renovation of other areas within the building. The project, which began immediately after the 2008 season, was scheduled to be completed by the first game of 2009.

The fifth floor contains additional office and recruiting space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four gameday suites, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The recruiting area and suites will also be used as academic study areas during the week. The second floor was completely renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. The fourth floor renovations included additional office space for football support staff.

Future plans call for a new Academic Center, which will serve all of Carolina's student-athletes, a 360-degree concourse, several thousand additional trees in the areas outside Kenan Staidium, and premium seating areas

"Many people acknowledge that Kenan Stadium and its surrounding woods create the most beautiful setting for college football in America. This Master Plan, with all the improvements, will actually make the stadium even more beautiful than it is today."

—Dick Baddour, UNC Director of Athletics

Home of the Tar Heels

Located in the West end zone, the "Tar Pit" is a centralized student-only seating area that boosts the Tar Heels' homefield advantage. Carolina students fill the area well before kickoff.

Thousands of fans cheer on the team each week at the traditional Old Well Walk. Carolina players arrive at the Old Well, a campus icon, approximately two and a half hours prior to kickoff and walk to the entrance of Kenan Stadium.

Head Coach Butch Davis

Leading UNC to Success

"Coach Davis taught me how to be a professional player. I know I still have a lot to learn, but I think I understand more of what it takes to be an NFL player now than I did before. I wouldn't be a first-round draft pick without his help and guidance."

– Kentwan Balmer, Defensive Tackl
Taken in the first-round of the 2008 NFL Draf

Davis is very involved with community outreach activities.

"Butch Davis worked for me for many years and did a great job. He is an outstanding coach and recruiter, and North Carolina is extremely fortunate to obtain him. I'm sure he'll do a great job."

– Jimmy Johnson
Fox Sports NFL Analyst
Former Miami (Fla.) & NFL Head Coach

"I've seen Butch as an assistant coach and as a head coach and I know that he instills toughness. In the NFL, it's a tough man's game. This program looks like it's on its way up. The future is bright here."

– Tom Ciskowski, Director of Pro and College Scouting, Dallas Cowboys

- With Hakeem Nicks selection by the New York Giants in the 1st round of the 2009 NFL Draft, Butch Davis has now produced an incredible 30 first round draft picks as a collegiate head coach. That is an average of 3.75 first round draft picks per year.

- Davis has coached in 11 postseason bowl games as an assistant or head coach, including two apiece in the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls.

- Davis was an assistant coach on Miami's 1987 national championship team and he either recruited or coached nearly all the players from Miami's 2001 national championship squad.

- Davis won two Super Bowls as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys.

Coaching Staff

Experience and Drive

That helps us because we're able to come down here and see each young man as if they were at the next level. It helps you as a player when you've had a college coach that has coached you like a professional."*

– George Stewart, Wide Receivers Coach, Minnesota Vikings

North Carolina coordinators John Shoop (offense), Everett Withers (defense) and John Blake (recruiting) all have experience in the NFL. Shoop worked with three different teams and was a coordinator for the Chicago Bears. Withers worked six seasons with the Tennessee Titans. Blake won two Super Bowls with the Dallas Cowboys.

Advancing to graduation, Building Character, Developing leadership

• The Academic Support Program assists Tar Heel student-athletes in exploring their interests and abilities, enjoying a broad educational experience, and reaching or exceeding their academic goals.

• During the 2008-09 academic year, 269 Carolina student-athletes made the ACC Academic Honor Roll, which is open to members of varsity squads who earn a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 for the year. In the fall of 2008, 173 student-athletes made the Dean's List, and 156 did so in the spring of 2009.

• The Academic Support Program is housed primarily in the Pope Academic Support Center, which is equipped with study facilities, tutorial rooms, a computer lab, a 128-seat auditorium, counselors' offices, and state-of-the-art video and computer equipment. At the center, students meet with staff to discuss course selection, major and career exploration, academic progress and academic eligibility.

• The Academic Support Program helps freshmen transition from high school to college through a variety of academic programs such as academic counseling, individual tutoring, group review sessions and supplemental instruction.

Carolina Leadership Academy

Developing World-Class Leaders for a Lifetime of Success and Service

• As the nation's premier leadership development program in collegiate athletics, the Carolina Leadership Academy develops, challenges and supports student-athletes, coaches and staff in their continual quest to become world-class leaders in athletics, academics and life.

• The Carolina Leadership Academy provides comprehensive and cutting-edge leadership development programing through interactive workshops, 360-degree feedback, one-on-one coaching, peer mentoring and educational resources.

Tar Heel senior Mark Paschal with Director of Athletics Dick Baddour. Paschal was one of three UNC football players to earn the Carolina Leadership Academy's highest honor, the Tar Heel Leader of Distinction Award, for 2008-09.

The Carolina Leadership Academy consists of three programs:

CREED Program

Leadership training begins in the freshman year. All leadership begins with personal leadership, therefore freshmen are taught skills to effectively lead themselves. Training consists of monthly meetings featuring keynote speakers and small group discussion. Upperclass student-athletes serve as peer mentors and discussion leaders. Special focus is on responsibility, accountability, making good choices, ethics and character building.

Rising Stars Program

Designed for a select group of "high potential" sophomores and juniors, the program provides future leaders with insights, strategies and skills necessary to become effective leaders. The program includes monthly meetings, interactive exercises and action learning experiences.

Veteran Leaders Program

This program is designed for team captains and veteran student-athletes. It provides advanced leadership training and support, teaches the critical skills and insights necessary to be effective vocal leaders and provides a strong peer network. Student-athletes meet regularly to learn and reinforce leadership principles and share successes, frustrations and lessons.

Tar Heel players also are NFL standouts off the field. Linebacker David Thornton, in his third year with the Tennessee Titans, was honored as the organization's 2008 Community Man of the Year in recognition of his community involvement.

"The number one thing I've noticed about Carolina players is that they are all hard workers. When you bring a guy to camp that is undrafted, like Willie, Greg and Jeff were, they all come prepared to work hard. Coach Davis has been very open to everything we need in terms of evaluating players. Scouts really enjoy coming here."

The ACC

Boston College • Clemson • Duke • Florida State • Georgia Tech • Maryland
Miami • North Carolina • NC State • Virginia • Virginia Tech • Wake Forest

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the Atlantic Coast Conference over the years has proven itself to be among the elite in Division I-A football. In 2008, the ACC won more non-conference games than ever before, posting a 41-17 record including 17-14 (.548 winning percentage) against teams from the SEC, Big Ten, PAC-10, Big 12 and Big East Conferences.

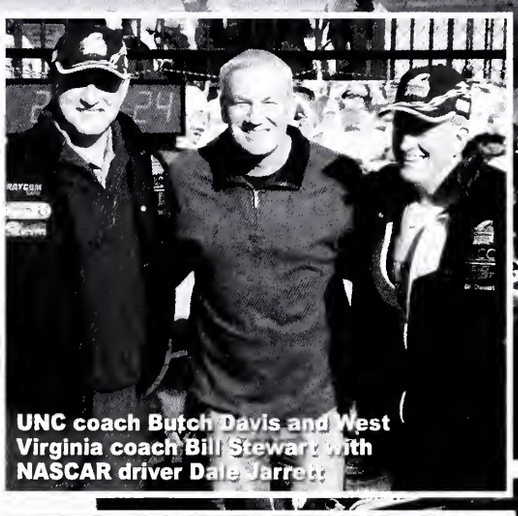

This past season, the ACC set an NCAA record sending 10 of its teams to post-season bowl games. Since 2005, no conference has had as many bowl game participants as the ACC, which has sent 34 teams to bowls in the four-year span.

In 2008, the ACC broke its own NCAA record of percentage of teams going to bowl games set in 2002, as 83.3 percent of its teams were in post-season play.

Bowl Experience

Playing in the Postseason

The Tar Heels made the 26th bowl game appearance in school history at the 2008 Meineke Car Care Bowl. In addition to the game against West Virginia, the week's stay in Charlotte included laps around the Lowe's Motor Speedway with NASCAR drivers and a trip to an NBA game, as well a visits to a local hospital.

Athletic Heritage

Tar Heel Pride

Carolina won the 2009 NCAA Championship in men's basketball.

Many of the best-known names in sports – such as Michael Jordan, Julius Peppers, Mia Hamm and Lawrence Taylor – wore Carolina blue.

Carolina: An All-Around Program

- The 2008-09 school year marked the first time in Atlantic Coast Conference history that a member school played in a football bowl game, the men's basketball Final Four and the baseball College World Series in the same season.

- Carolina was one of three schools to have student-athletes selected in the first round of the 2009 NFL, NBA and Major League Baseball drafts.

- North Carolina finished second overall in the 2008-09 Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cup, a national competition that measures a program's postseason success. It was Carolina's seventh consecutive top-10 finish and the ninth time UNC has been in the top five.

- UNC has won more national championships and conference championships than any other school in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The Tar Heel women's lacrosse and men's soccer teams finished as NCAA runners-up in 2008-09.

The Tar Heels have played in the College World Series in each of the last four years.

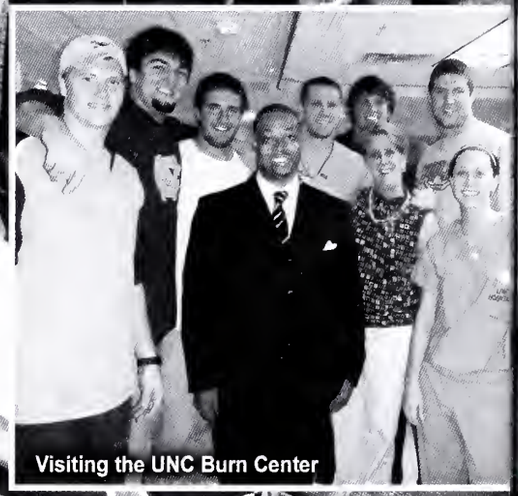

UNC's 2008 NCAA Women's Soccer Championship was the 20th in program history.

• The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill was the nation's first state university to open its doors and the only public university to award degrees in the 18th century. Authorized by the N.C. Constitution in 1776, the University was chartered by the N.C. General Assembly Dec. 11, 1789, the same year George Washington first was inaugurated as president. The cornerstone was laid for Old East, the nation's first state university building, Oct. 12, 1793. Hinton James, the first student, arrived from Wilmington, N.C., Feb. 12, 1795.

• Now in its third century, Carolina offers bachelor's, master's, doctoral and professional degrees in academic areas critical to North Carolina's future: business, dentistry, education, law, medicine, nursing, public health and social work, among others. Offerings include 71 bachelor's, 107 master's, 74 doctorate and four professional degree programs.

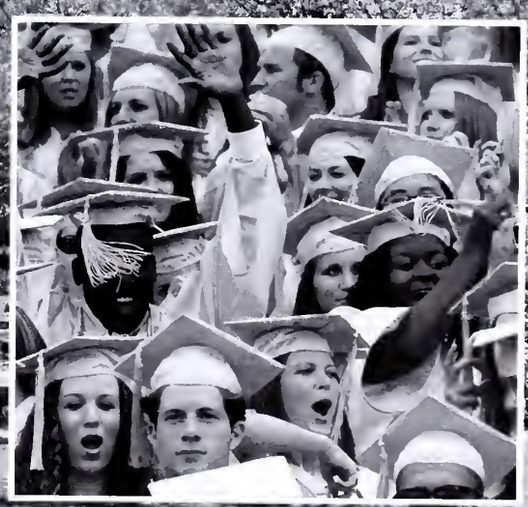

• Through teaching, research and public service, Carolina connects with the people of North Carolina every day in ways that improve lives and build futures. The University is committed to addressing the issues that North Carolinians are concerned most about – such as education, health care and economic development. The University's focus on excellence is to help North Carolina be the best that it can be.

• Among UNC's recent rankings are: First for offering the best combination of top-flight academics and affordable costs (Kiplinger's Personal Finance); Fifth-best public university in the U.S. (U.S. News and World Report); and second among major U.S. universities in the percentage of African American students in the first-year class (The Journal of Blacks in Higher Education)

• Chapel Hill has been ranked the No. 1 most livable small city (less than 1000,000) in America.

• Often referred to as "The Southern Part of Heaven," Chapel Hill has been called the perfect college town by several publications, including Sports Illustrated.

• The Triangle (Raleigh, Durham and Chapel Hill) has often been cited as one of the nation's top areas in which to live. Residents are within easy driving distance of both beaches and mountains.

FOOTBALL
TWO-THOUSAND NINE

North Carolina head coach Butch Davis has brought energy and enthusiasm back to the Tar Heel football program with his ability to motivate, teach and recruit at the highest level. A man with a proven record of success and an unyielding commitment to excellence, Davis has a clear vision for building a championship program in Chapel Hill based on integrity, character and honor.

The former head coach at the University of Miami and the NFL's Cleveland Browns, Davis is Carolina's 33rd head coach and the ninth since the ACC was formed in 1953.

Introduced as North Carolina's head coach on Nov. 13, 2006, Davis quickly rejuvenated the fan base and brought excitement to every Saturday at Kenan Stadium. Beginning with his first Carolina recruiting class in 2007, which many analysts ranked among the top 10 in the country, Davis has connected with student-athletes and fans alike with his brand of fast, hard-nosed, disciplined football.

Over the past two seasons, Carolina has sold out 12 of 13 contests, increased average attendance by nearly 18 percent and sold a school-record 36,250 season tickets in 2008.

Carolina improved from 4-8 in 2007 to 8-5 in 2008, the sixth-best turnaround in the country. The Tar Heels won games over bowl teams Rutgers, Miami, Connecticut, Notre Dame, Boston College and Georgia Tech and were in the hunt for the 2008 ACC championship until the final week of the season. Carolina's eight wins were its most since 2001. The Tar Heels earned an invitation to the Meineke Car Care Bowl in Charlotte, its first postseason game since 2004. UNC sold more than 22,000 tickets (10,000 more than its allotment) in just one week of sales and had an estimated 40,000 fans in attendance.

"We are building a program to compete at the highest level for a national championship," says Davis, who won a national title as an assistant coach with Miami in 1987. "It's a process that takes time and we are heading in the right direction. The steps we take are not always evident on the field, but are also accomplished in the classroom, the weight room and other areas off the field. We are climbing the mountain."

Davis's first season in Chapel Hill was highlighted by an impressive 33-27 win over Miami, in which he earned his first ACC victory against his former school. Carolina was competitive in nearly every game, with six losses decided by a combined total of just 24 points. Statistically, Carolina finished 35th in the country in total defense, improving nearly 60 positions from the previous year.

Several individuals have benefitted from Davis's return to the college game, none more than defensive tackle Kentwan Balmer and wide receiver Hakeem Nicks, both of whom became first-round draft picks under Davis' tutelage.

Balmer had career highs in tackles and sacks in 2007, earned all-conference honors for the first time and was selected in the first round by the San Francisco 49ers. Last year, Nicks finished an outstanding three-year career with 14 school records and was selected in the first round by the New York Giants. Nicks became the 30th first-round draft choice Davis has produced as a college coach. Many observers agree that Davis and his staff prepare players for professional football better than any other group in the country.

"Coach Davis taught me how to be a professional player," says Balmer. "I know I still have a lot to learn, but I think I understand more of what it takes to be an NFL player now than I did before. I wouldn't be a first-round draft pick without his help and guidance."

"Coach Davis prepares players incredibly well for the NFL," says Nicks. "Without his help and the assistant coaches, I would not be where I am today."

Carolina had an ACC-best five players picked in the 2009 NFL Draft, including Nicks, second-round pick Richard Quinn, third-rounder Brandon Tate and fifth-round picks Garrett Reynolds and Brooks Foster. Add defensive end Hilee Taylor (Carolina Panthers) and place-kicker Connor Barth (Kansas City Chiefs) from the previous season and UNC has produced seven NFL players in just two years.

But statistics and draft choices don't reveal the full story. Davis has hired an outstanding staff of assistant coaches, brought in three consecutive recruiting classes stocked with some of the nation's top high school players, and produced an entertaining product on the field. In addition, the University is currently underway with a renovation of Kenan Stadium that will enhance the overall fan experience and provide much-needed recruiting and office space for the football program. A fifth floor was added to the Kenan Football Center following the 2008 season. The floor contains additional space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four premium gameday suites, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The recruiting area and suites will also be used as academic study areas during the week. The second floor was completely renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. The fourth floor renovations include additional office space for football support staff.

No stranger to success, Davis has coached in 12 postseason bowl games as an assistant or head coach, including two apiece in the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls, and he either recruited or coached nearly all the players from Miami's 2001 national championship team. He also won two Super Bowls as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys. An excellent motivator and technician, Davis recruited or coached a number of players at Miami who were selected in the NFL Draft, including an amazing 28 first-round picks.

Prior to his arrival in Chapel Hill, Davis served as an analyst on the NFL Network for two seasons. There he was able to watch and study the latest college football offensive and defensive schemes. Yearning to return to the college coaching ranks, Davis surveyed the college football landscape, and when the Carolina job came open, he was immediately interested.

He also won two Super Bowls as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys. As a head coach, Davis has recruited or coached an amazing 30 first-round NFL Draft picks.

"When I looked at everything North Carolina had to offer in terms of a great campus setting, access to players and the proper balance between athletics and academics, I knew this would be a good fit for me and my family," said Davis.

Davis was head coach for six seasons at Miami (1995-2000) and led the Hurricanes to a 51-20 record, three Big East Conference championships and four postseason bowl wins in as many appearances. He took over a Miami program faced with NCAA sanctions that restricted the number of scholarships in his first three seasons. However, his Hurricane teams finished ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 on four occasions, including No. 2 in the nation in 2000, when the Canes went 11-1 and beat Florida, 37-20, in the Sugar Bowl.

In his first year in Coral Gables, Davis helped the Canes earn a share of the Big East Conference Championship by winning seven straight games to close the '95 season. The team would have received an invitation to a BCS bowl game, however, Miami declined the invitation due to NCAA sanctions previously approved by university officials for violations prior to Davis's arrival.

Davis again led Miami to a share of the Big East title in 1996 and catapulted the Hurricanes to a top 20 ranking and their first bowl victory in five years with a 31-21 win over Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. The following season he led Miami to a 46-23 win over North Carolina State in the 1998 Micron PC Bowl.

Davis's 1999 squad began the year with a 23-12 victory over Ohio State in the Kickoff Classic and capped the season with a 28-13 victory over Georgia Tech in the Toyota Gator Bowl, the Hurricanes' first New Year's Day bowl game under Davis.

In his final year at Miami (2000), the Hurricanes posted an 11-1 mark, including a 37-20 victory over Florida in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. That team was second in the nation in scoring, fifth in total offense, fifth in scoring defense and eighth in pass defense.

Davis also emphasizes the importance of academics, and his Hurricanes earned recognition from the American Football Coaches Association for outstanding graduation rates in each of his six seasons.

Davis left Coral Gables following the 2000 season to join the Cleveland Browns. In his first season in Cleveland in 2001, Davis led his young team to an impressive 7-9 record, exceeding by two the expansion club's combined victories from 1999 and 2000 (5-27). Cleveland led the NFL in takeaways with 42, including a league-high and team-record 33 interceptions. The Browns defense also scored 32 points (four interception returns, one fumble return, one safety). His second season as head coach resulted in the Browns earning their first playoff appearance and best regular season mark since 1994, despite 34 of the 53 players on the team's final active roster having four years of NFL experience or less. Cleveland finished the season with a 7-3 mark over its final 10 games, including victories in four of its final six outings, the best record over the final six games of the season for the franchise since 1988.

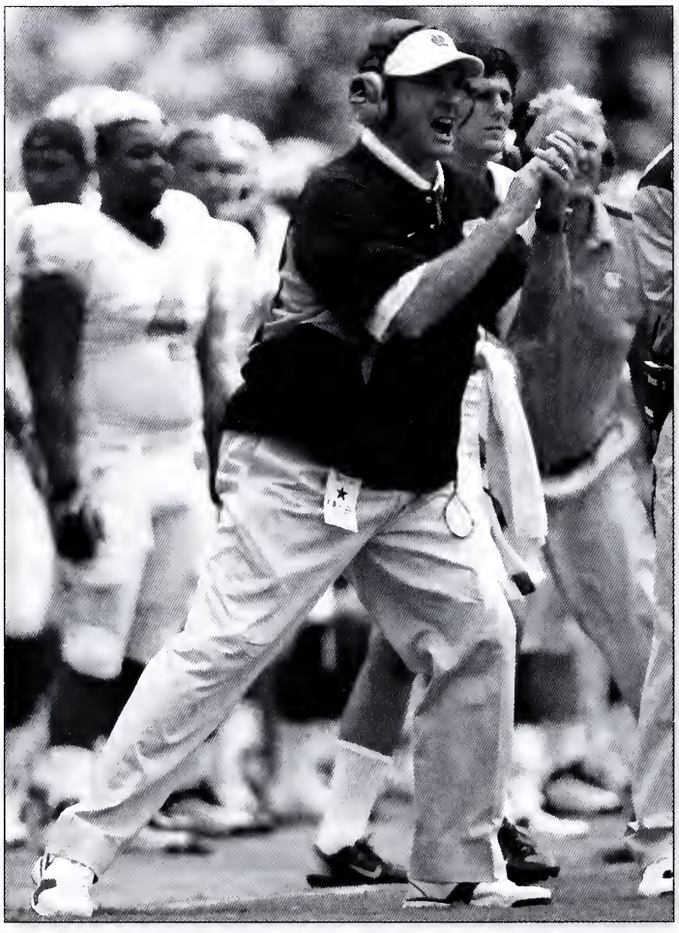

Cleveland was Davis' second stint in the NFL. He was a defensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys from 1989-94 and was defensive coordinator in 1993 and 1994. The Cowboys won consecutive Super Bowls in 1992 and 1993 and played in one other NFC championship game. Davis helped Dallas post one of the most spectacular turnarounds in sports history as the Cowboys went from a lowly 1-15 squad in 1989 to one of the most dominant NFL programs in the 1990s. He was the defensive line coach in the Cowboys' 52-17 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII and served as defensive coordinator in the Cowboys' 30-13 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVIII. As defensive line coach in 1992, Davis helped the Cowboys lead the NFL in rushing defense. As coordinator a year later, the Cowboys set a team record by allowing just 21 touchdowns in 16 regular-season games and allowed one offensive touchdown or less in 12 of 16 games.

Davis was also defensive coordinator during Barry Switzer's first season as head coach in 1994 and helped Dallas reach the NFC Championship Game, where eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco denied its bid for a three-peat. Davis's defense was No. 1 in the league in total defense (269.6 yards per game) and pass defense (172.0 yards per game), and third in scoring defense (15.5 points per game). He coached three Pro Bowl starters – end Charles Haley, tackle Leon Lett and safety Darren Woodson. The three defensive starters were the most for the Cowboys since 1983.

Davis was defensive line coach at Miami from 1984-88 under head coach Jimmy Johnson, whom he also coached under for five years in Dallas and five years at Oklahoma State. The Hurricanes went 52-9 in those five years and won the national championship after beating Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl to cap a perfect 12-0 record in 1987. He coached 15 linemen who went on to play in the NFL, including All-Americas Bill Hawkins, Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland, Daniel Stubbs and the late Jerome Brown.

Davis' line was a key part of the Miami defense that finished second in the nation in both scoring defense (9.7 points per game) and total defense (242.0 yards per game) in 1988. The 1986 Hurricanes set a school record with 49 sacks, broke the mark with 50 in 1988 and held opposing rushers to fewer than 2.3 yards per carry in 1987 and 1988.

Davis entered the collegiate coaching ranks on the offensive side of the ball as an assistant on Johnson's Oklahoma State University teams from 1979-83. At Oklahoma State, Davis coached receivers and tight ends while also serving as recruiting coordinator.

Davis played college football at the University of Arkansas for coach Frank Broyles. A knee injury curtailed his college career, and he became a student assistant coach for the Razorbacks. He earned a bachelor's degree in biology and life science in 1974. His coaching career began as a volunteer assistant in 1973 at Fayetteville High School in Arkansas. He had stints in Oklahoma at Pawhuska High School (1974-75) and Sand Springs High School (1976-77) as an assistant coach and at Tulsa Rogers High School (1978) in his first head coaching assignment before joining Johnson's staff at Oklahoma State.

Paul Hilton (Butch) Davis is a native of Tahlequah, Okla. Davis and his wife, Tammy, have a teenage son, Drew.

The Davis's are heavily involved in the Chapel Hill and surrounding communities. Since moving to Chapel Hill in 2006, the Davis's have pledged their time and financial support to many organizations. They include, but are not limited to: Night of Champions, Flashes of Hope, Lineberger Cancer Center, UNC Children's Hospital, SECU Family House, Athletes in Action, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Habitat for Humanity, Carolina Kids, Multiple Sclerosis, Crosby Scholars and Informed Families.

John Blake enters his third season on the North Carolina staff as the Tar Heels' associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach. Blake, who coached with Butch Davis in Dallas, has developed some of the top defensive linemen in the country at all levels, including high school, college and the NFL.

In 2008, Blake developed a unit that regularly played seven to eight players per game. Among the highlights of that group was defensive tackle Marvin Austin, who tied with E.J. Wilson for the most tackles among defensive linemen with 38. True freshman Robert Quinn quickly become a force at defensive end and was third in the league's defensive rookie of the year voting. Quinn was diagnosed with a brain tumor as a high school senior, but became a starter at Carolina in the Tar Heels' second game at Rutgers and won the ACC's Piccolo Award as the league's most courageous player. Tackle Cam Thomas also had his best season in 2008 under Blake's guidance.

In 2007, North Carolina defensive lineman Kentwan Balmer and Hilee Taylor both became NFL Draft picks in one season with Blake. Balmer was selected by the San Francisco 49ers with the 29th pick in the first round and Taylor was taken in the seventh round by Carolina.

Blake earned rave reviews from NFL Draft analysts for his ability to develop Balmer into a first-round selection in just one year of coaching. "Kentwan had a great senior year under the tutelage of John Blake, who I think is one of the best defensive line coaches at any level," said ESPN's Mel Kiper Jr.

In addition to his abilities as a defensive line coach, Blake is considered by many observers as the nation's top recruiter. In each of the past three years, at least one recruiting publication has named Blake the nation's best recruiter. Most recently, three Sporting News recruiting analysts named him the best in 2009. He also earned the same distinction from CSTV's Tom Lemming in 2008 and the Wall Street Journal and American Football Quarterly in 2007.

In February, Carolina signed a consensus top 10 recruiting class, including a ranking of No. 5 by Scout.com. It was the third consecutive outstanding recruiting class under Blake. In his first year at UNC, Blake was responsible for the recruitment of Austin, the nation's No. 1 high school defensive player.

Blake came to Carolina after serving three seasons at the University of Nebraska, where he coached several outstanding defensive linemen, including 2007 NFL first-round draft pick Adam Carriker (13th overall). The Huskers defensive line was ranked the top defensive line unit in the country by CollegeFootballNews.com in 2006.

Davis and Blake previously worked together as members of Jimmy Johnson's staff with the Dallas Cowboys. Blake joined the Dallas staff as defensive line coach after Davis was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1993. That year, Dallas ranked eighth in the league in total defense and beat Buffalo, 30-13, in Super Bowl XXVIII. After Davis left to become the head coach at Miami in 1995, Blake remained in Dallas and won another Super Bowl title under head coach Barry Switzer.

A native of Rockford, Ill., Blake played for Switzer at Oklahoma from 1979-82, where he earned All-Big Eight honors at nose guard. He later returned to his alma mater to serve as head coach of the Sooners from 1996-98.

At Oklahoma, Blake began as a student assistant working with the defensive line in 1985 and earned a national championship ring that season. The Sooners lost just two games during his first tenure on the staff.

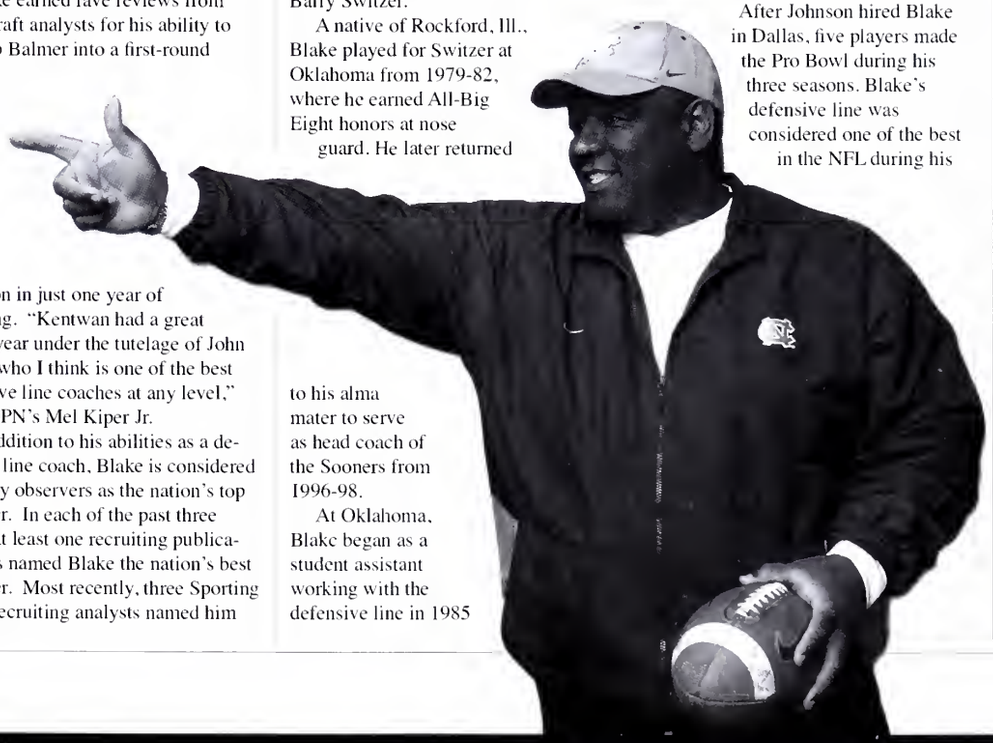

Blake's first full-time assistant position was at Tulsa from 1987-88, where he coached the tight ends and wide receivers. He returned to his alma mater in 1989 as the Sooners' defensive line coach, and then served as Gary Gibbs' linebackers coach from 1990 to 1992.

After Johnson hired Blake in Dallas, five players made the Pro Bowl during his three seasons. Blake's defensive line was considered one of the best in the NFL during his tenure. Among others, Blake tutored Pro Bowlers Charles Haley, Russell Maryland, Leon Lett, Chad Henning, Tony Tolbert and Jim Jeffcoat.

Blake earned his bachelor's degree in public relations and recreation from Oklahoma in 1986. He and his wife, Freda, have one son, Jourdan.

The longest tenured assistant coach at North Carolina, Ken Browning enters his 16th season with the Tar Heels and third as the running backs coach. Browning has coached on the offensive and defensive side of the ball at UNC, including three seasons as tight ends coach (2001-04) and 11 years as defensive tackles coach (1994-2000, 2005-06). Butch Davis is the fourth head coach Browning has worked under at North Carolina. Browning also oversees Carolina's camps and clinics.

In 2008, Browning helped develop the sophomore tandem of Shaun Draughn and Ryan Houston into one of the top tailback combinations in the league. Draughn steadily climbed the ACC rushing ranks to finished sixth in the league, while Houston led the team with eight rushing touchdowns. Draughn's 866 yards were the most by a UNC tailback since Jonathan Linton in 1997. Overall, the Tar Heels had their best rushing attack in four years, averaging 122.6 yards and scoring 18 touchdowns.

In 2007, Browning had the unique challenge of coaching a position group comprised of all freshmen and sophomores. In fact, Carolina began the year with just one player who had any experience as a college running back. That player was sophomore Richie Rich, who later moved to cornerback. Carolina's top four rushers last season were all freshmen - Johnny White, Greg Little, Anthony Elzy and Ryan Houston. Little started the last two games against Georgia Tech and Duke and was the starter in 2008 for the first half of the season.

In 16 seasons in Chapel Hill, Browning has developed a number of outstanding players, including first-round NFL draft picks Vonnie Holliday (DT), Marcus Jones (DT/DE) and Ryan Sims (DT) and second-round picks Rick Terry (DT) and Russell Davis (DT). He also recruited and coached 2008 first-round NFL draft pick Kentwan Balmer. Sports Illustrated selected North Carolina's defensive tackles in its positional "Dream Team" in its 1998 preseason college football issue. Nearly every defensive tackle Browning coached at UNC has been drafted by or signed by an NFL franchise. In 2002, Sims, who played under Browning for three years, was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the first round with the No. 6 pick.

Browning is in his second stint coaching on the offensive side of the ball at UNC. He coached Carolina's tight ends for four seasons (2001-04), where he developed several standout players, including NFL players Zach Hilton and Bobby Blizzard. With Browning on the defensive side of the ball, the Tar Heels led the ACC in total defense from 1995-97 and finished No. 2 in the nation in yards allowed in 1996 and 1997. The Tar Heels were third in the country against the run in 1996 allowing 73.9 yards per game. In 1997, Carolina was fourth in the nation stopping the run as opponents averaged 77.9 yards per contest. UNC held opponents to less than 50 yards rushing in six games and less than 100 yards in nine of 12 games.

Promoted to defensive coordinator in 2000, Browning directed a UNC squad that set a school record with an ACC-best 53 sacks. Carolina finished 19th in the nation against the run, allowing just 103.5 yards per game, and was second in the league and 30th in the nation in total defense.

One of the state's most decorated high school coaches, Browning joined the Tar Heel staff in 1994 and has coached in some of the most memorable Carolina football games. He has been a part of eight bowl games and was on the staff in 1996-97 when UNC had a combined record of 21-3 and finished ranked in the top 10 both seasons.

Browning was the head coach and athletic director at Northern Durham High School for 18 years. He posted a 178-35 record and won the 1993 4-A state title and Shrine Bowl. Over his last three years, Northern built a 43-2 record and he was named the North Carolina Coach of the Year by the Associated Press in 1992 and 1993. He became only the third coach to win both the state title and Shrine Bowl in the same year.

Browning and his wife, Susan, have three sons – Chuck, John and Joe.

JEFF CONNORS

The Cannars Family: Jeff, Michele, Kaitlin and Beau

Jeff Connors enters his ninth season as Carolina's Strength and Conditioning Coordinator and his eighth as an assistant athletic director. While his primary focus is the football team's strength and conditioning, Connors oversees the department's entire strength and conditioning program and also works specifically with the women's basketball team.

Connors has been honored as a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches association (CSCCa). The Master Strength & Conditioning Coach certification is the highest honor that can be achieved as a strength and conditioning coach, representing professionalism, knowledge, experience, expertise and longevity in the field.

Connors has helped develop some of the top players in Carolina's program, including Julius Peppers, Ronald Curry, David Thornton, Kentwan Balmer, Hakeem Nicks, Brooks Foster and Garrett Reynolds. In four years under Connors' direction, Balmer increased his overall strength and agility and became a first-round NFL draft choice.

Connors' conditioning program was one of the reasons Carolina outscored its opponents by 63 points in the second half in 2008. In 2004, players pointed to Connors' work as a reason the Tar Heels won three of the last four regular-season contests and earned a berth in the Continental Tire Bowl.

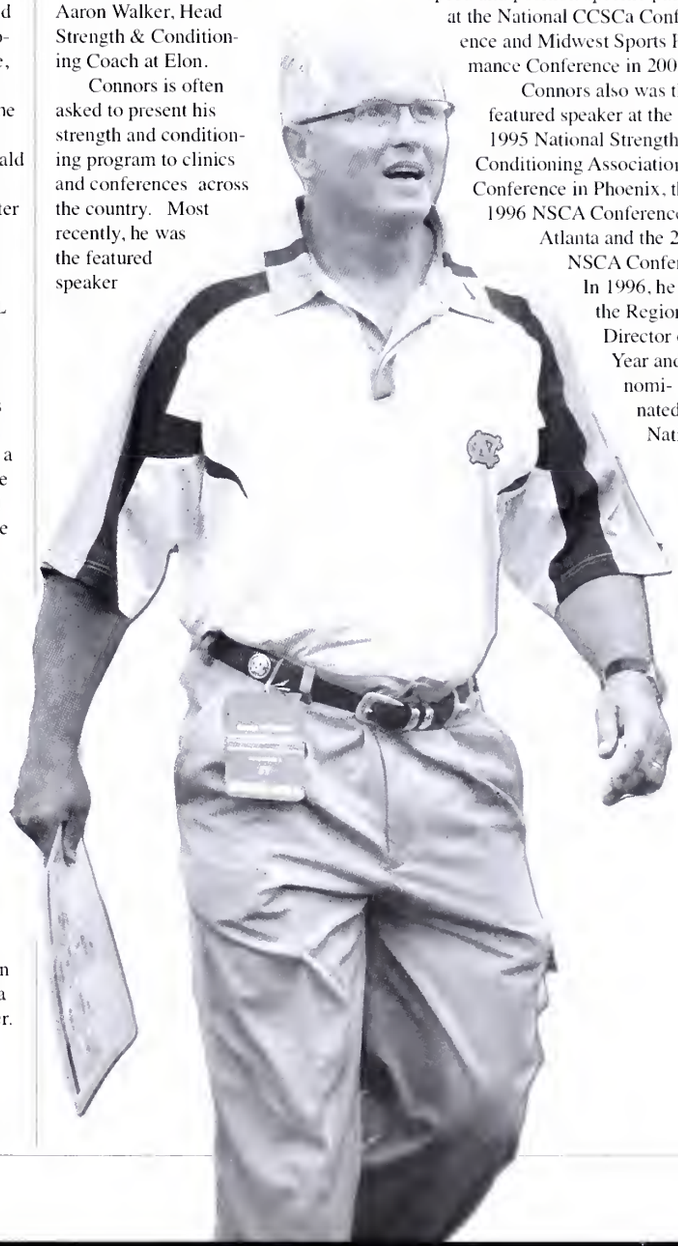

Since Connors began working with the women's basketball team, the Tar Heels have won four ACC championships, made two Final Four appearances and one Elite Eight appearance.

Connors came to Carolina after spending 10 seasons as East Carolina's Director of Strength & Conditioning. Under Connors, the Pirates were one of the best fourth-quarter teams in the country. In 1996, the ECU defense did not allow a point in the fourth quarter until the seventh game of the season and in 1999, the Pirates outscored their opponents, 102-56, in the final period. In 2000, ECU had a 94-57 advantage in the fourth quarter.

Connors' was the head strength and conditioning coach at Bucknell prior to his experience at East Carolina.

Several of Connors' former assistants are now head strength and conditioning coaches at other universities, including: Tom Howley, Director of Strength & Conditioning at Cornell; Jay Butler, Director of Strength & Conditioning at Rutgers; Jennifer Jones, Head Coach of Strength & Conditioning for Women's Sports at Texas A&M; Sonny Sano, Director of Strength & Conditioning at Ohio; Toby Jacobi, Strength & Conditioning Coach at Charleston Southern; Josh Bush, Head Strength Coach. Morgan State; Wes Herlocker, Head Strength & Conditioning Coach, Wofford; Aaron Walker, Head Strength & Conditioning Coach at Elon.

Connors is often asked to present his strength and conditioning program to clinics and conferences across the country. Most recently, he was the featured speaker at the University of Tennessee's strength and conditioning clinic this spring. He also presented UNC's speed and position specific package at the National CCSCa Conference and Midwest Sports Performance Conference in 2009.

Connors also was the featured speaker at the 1995 National Strength and Conditioning Association Conference in Phoenix, the 1996 NSCA Conference in Atlanta and the 2003 NSCA Conference. In 1996, he was the Regional Director of the Year and was nominated for National Strength Coach of the Year in 1991.

Connors was a competitive powerlifter and has won four state titles in powerlifting and has been ranked as high as fourth nationally. He holds Level I certification in Olympic Weight Lifting by the U.S. Weight Lifting Federation.

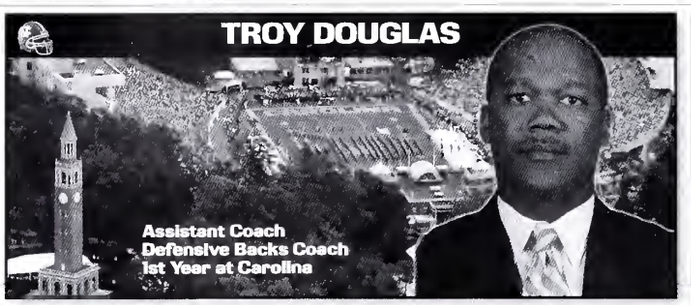

A 1980 graduate of Salem (W. Va.) College, Connors was a four-year starter at cornerback and was team captain as a senior. He led Salem in interceptions as a sophomore and junior.

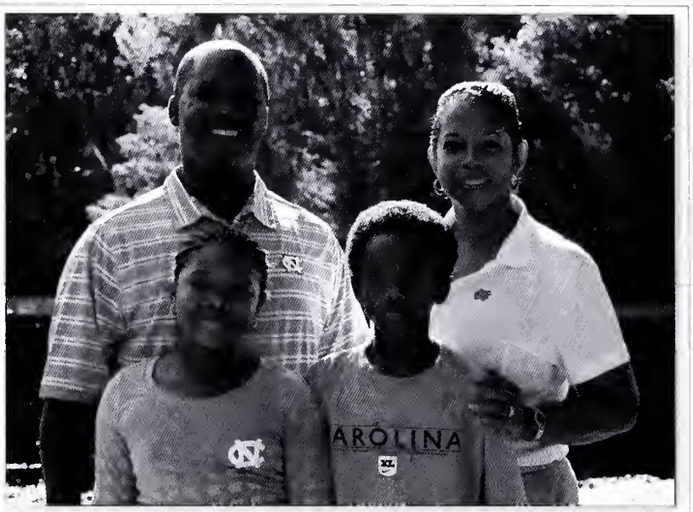

After college, Connors served as a police officer in South Florida for two years. Prior to becoming a strength coach, Connors coached high school football and wrestling at The Benjamin School in North Palm Beach, Fla., and he coached linebackers at the Tennessee Military Institute in Sweetwater, Tenn.

Connors and his wife, Michele, have a daughter, Kaitlin, and a son, Beau.

The Dauglas Family: Tray, Rebecca, Taryn & Tanner

Troy Douglas enters his first season as Carolina's defensive backs coach. He came to Chapel Hill after serving three years as the defensive backs coach at South Florida. During his tenure in Tampa, USF earned three bowl bids and won 26 games. Douglas will tutor the Tar Heel defensive backs along with defensive coordinator Everett Withers, his former teammate at Appalachian State.

Douglas is entering his 22nd season as a college coach, and has spent 20 seasons working in the defensive secondary.

At USF, Douglas played a major role in developing one of the nation's top defenses. In 2008, the Bulls finished 10th in the country in overall defense and in 2007, USF led the country in turnovers, interceptions and fumble recoveries. His secondary produced 17 of the 23 interceptions, including three by first team All-America Mike Jenkins, four by third team All-BIG EAST safety Nate Allen and six by second team All-BIG EAST corner Trae Williams. Jenkins was selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the first round of the 2008 NFL Draft and Williams was picked in the fifth round by Jacksonville.

The Bulls' defense was ranked 11th nationally in pass efficiency defense after his first season at USF and improved to seventh nationally in 2007. During the 2006 campaign, USF only allowed 11 passing touchdowns.

Douglas also has coached at Indiana (2004-05), South Carolina State (2003), Michigan State (2001-2002), SMU (1997-2000), UTEP (1995-1996), East Tennessee State (1992-1994) and West Chester (1989-1991).

At Indiana, Douglas instructed 2004 Big Ten all-freshman cornerback Tracy Porter and helped build a unit that had a +4 turnover margin. Porter was a second-round 2008 NFL Draft pick by the New Orleans Saints.

During his two years as the secondary coach at Michigan Sate, the Spartans still ranked 14th in the nation in pass defense despite losing four cornerbacks through the 2001 season.

In his one year at South Carolina State, Douglas was instrumental in building a defense that led I-AA in pass efficiency defense.

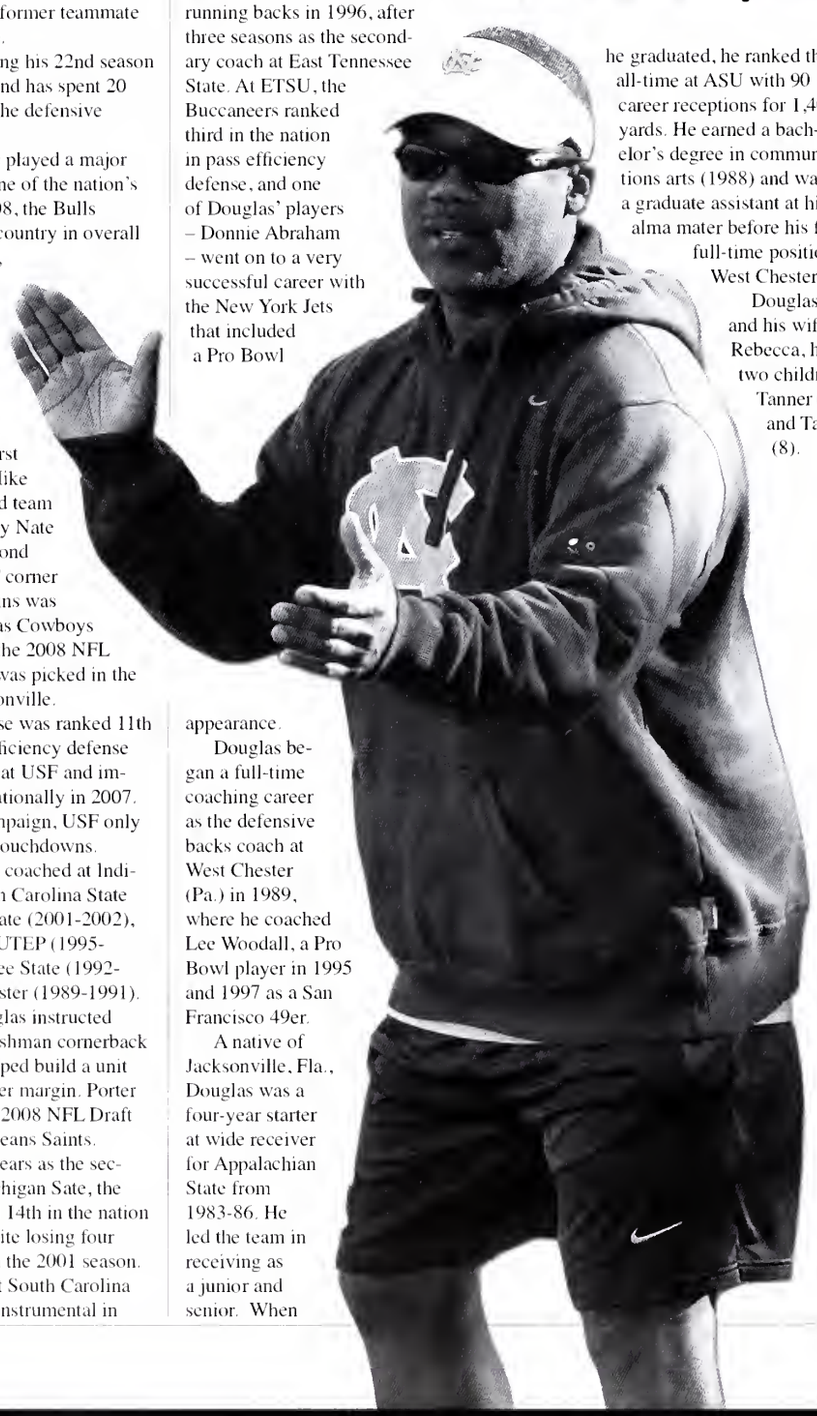

At SMU, Douglas coached running backs for one season (1997) before moving to the defensive side of the ball. In 1998, SMU was ranked 14th nationally in defense.

In his two seasons at UTEP, Douglas coached the secondary in 1995 and running backs in 1996, after three seasons as the secondary coach at East Tennessee State. At ETSU, the Buccaneers ranked third in the nation in pass efficiency defense, and one of Douglas' players – Donnie Abraham – went on to a very successful career with the New York Jets that included a Pro Bowl appearance.

Douglas began a full-time coaching career as the defensive backs coach at West Chester (Pa.) in 1989, where he coached Lee Woodall, a Pro Bowl player in 1995 and 1997 as a San Francisco 49er.

A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Douglas was a four-year starter at wide receiver for Appalachian State from 1983-86. He led the team in receiving as a junior and senior. When he graduated, he ranked third all-time at ASU with 90 career receptions for 1,401 yards. He earned a bachelor's degree in communications arts (1988) and was a graduate assistant at his alma mater before his first full-time position at West Chester.

Douglas and his wife, Rebecca, have two children – Tanner (11) and Taryn (8).

ART KAUFMAN

A 25-year coaching veteran, Art Kaufman enters his first season as Carolina's linebackers coach. He came to UNC after one season at Southern Miss, where he coached the defensive line and was the special teams coordinator.

Kaufman, who has coached in eight bowl games, helped lead Southern Miss to a victory over Troy in the New Orleans Bowl last year. A former defensive coordinator at Mississippi, Kaufman also has coached at Middle Tennessee State, East Carolina, Arkansas Tech and Louisiana Tech.

Kaufman spent three seasons at Middle Tennessee as the Blue Raiders linebackers coach and two seasons as defensive line coach at East Carolina. Prior to joining the staff at ECU, Kaufman spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas Tech.

A 1980 graduate of the University of Arkansas at Monticello, Kaufman had two stints at Mississippi, coaching in Oxford for a total of 10 years. He spent six years as the Rebels' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

Kaufman was a two-time All-America linebacker during his playing days at Arkansas-Monticello and followed his four-year career with the Boll Weevils by taking a graduate assistant position at Delta State University.

He earned his first full-time coaching job in 1983 when he became the outside linebackers coach at Northwestern State University (La.). In 1987, he was named defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Northwestern State.

He left there the following year for Ole Miss to coach the Rebels' outside linebackers and defensive ends. While at Ole Miss, Kaufman helped guide the Rebels to back-to-back bowl appearances (1989 Liberty Bowl and 1991 Gator Bowl) for the first time since the 1970s.

Four years later, Kaufman was named the defensive coordinator/linebacker coach at Louisiana Tech University, where he remained until returning to Ole Miss in 1995. In 1992, his defensive unit ranked in the top five nationally.

He again served as the Rebels' defensive coordinator and linebacker coach for the next six years. During his second stint at Ole Miss, Kaufman helped the Rebels to four straight bowl berths (1997-2000), and his 1999 defense ranked fourth nationally in rushing defense.

A native of Dermott, Ark., Kaufman has three daughters: Tara, Taylor, and Madison.

A former four-year letterwinner at North Carolina, Allen Mogridge returned to his alma mater this spring as the Tar Heels' tight ends coach after working seven seasons at the University at Buffalo.

Mogridge coached the offensive line for two seasons with the Bulls and was the team's running backs coach for three seasons. He also served as recruiting coordinator for head coach Turner Gill. In 2008, Buffalo won the MAC championship with a victory over heavily-favored Ball State and earned the school's second-ever bowl berth.

In his first season as Buffalo's offensive line coach in 2007, Mogridge mentored the Bulls' first ever All-MAC offensive linemen in center Jamey Richard and guard Jeff Niedermier. His offensive line paved the way for an offense that scored a Division I-A-record 291 points, produced the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the Division I-A era (James Starks) and protected a quarterback that completed a school-record 258 passes (Drew Willy). Richard was selected in the seventh round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts.

In 2006, he coached freshman running back James Starks to a second-team All-MAC selection - the first time a UB freshman earned All-League honors.

Mogridge had an excellent career at North Carolina where he lettered from 1996-99. He played four different positions – tight end, fullback, offensive tackle and defensive end – during his career and earned the Kenan Award for Leadership in his senior season. He went to four bowl games as a Tar Heel, including the 1996 and 1997 Gator Bowls. Carolina was a combined 21-3 over those two seasons and finished No. 4 in the final USA Today coaches poll in 1997.

Mogridge spent one year as a strength and conditioning coach at UNC while pursuing his masters degree. He spent the summer of 2000 in the Carolina Panthers training camp before playing for one year in the Arena Football League with the Carolina Cobras.

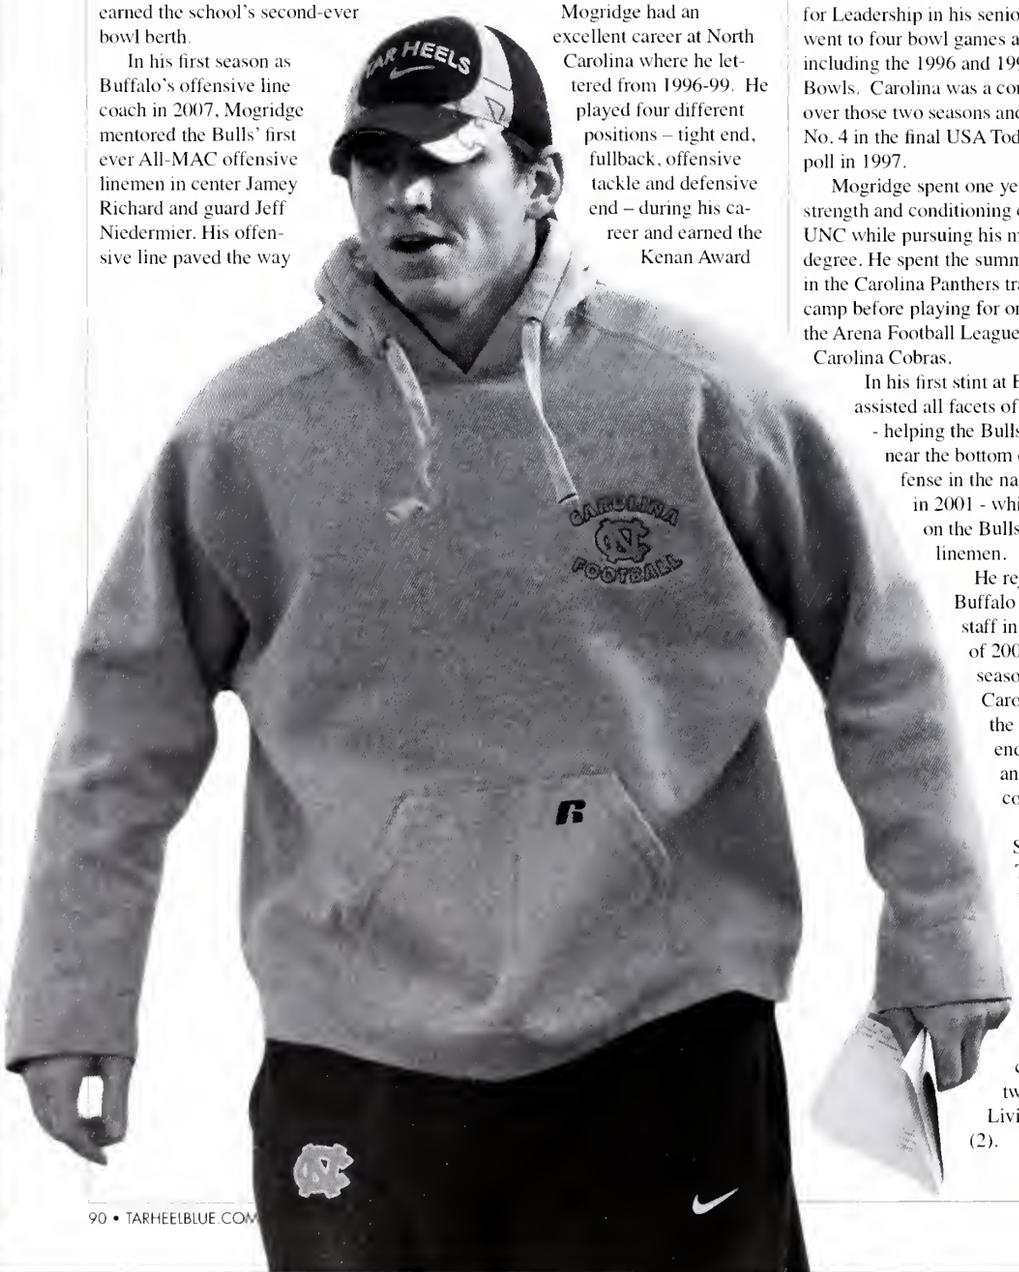

In his first stint at Buffalo he assisted all facets of the defense - helping the Bulls jump from near the bottom of total defense in the nation to 45th in 2001 - while focusing on the Bulls' defensive linemen.

He rejoined the Buffalo coaching staff in February of 2004 after one season at Western Carolina as the defensive ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

The Severville, Tenn., native married the former Jennifer Carpenter (UNC '97), and the couple has two daughters, Livi (5) and Izzy (2).

Sam Pittman enters his third season as North Carolina's offensive line coach.

North Carolina has shown steady progress along the offensive line under Pittman. In his first season in 2007, the Tar Heels had three-first year starters and just one senior among its top 10 players. That group continued to improve throughout the season and laid the foundation for a solid group in 2008.

Pittman helped develop offensive tackle Garrett Reynolds into a second-team all-conference selection a year ago. Reynolds consistently graded out as the team's top performer over the last two seasons, was named to the 2008 Lombardi Award watch list and was taken in the fifth round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. Reynolds was a key component in a line that helped Carolina produce its best running attack in four years, averaging 122.6 yards and rushing for 18 touchdowns.

Pittman came to Carolina after serving four seasons as Northern Illinois' offensive line coach (2003-06) and three years as its assistant head coach (2004-06). In 2006, the Huskies' offensive line paved the way for the nation's leading rusher, Garrett Wolfe, to run for more than 1,900 yards.

In four years at NIU, Pittman produced nine All-Mid-American Conference linemen, including seven first-team selections. NIU had a tailback top the 1,500-yard rushing mark all four years.

Despite three new starters on the offensive line and two freshmen among its top six players in 2006, Northern Illinois finished 17th in the country in rushing, averaging more than 180 yards per game. Wolfe finished his career as NIU's all-time leading rusher and is the 11th-leading rusher in NCAA history. The Huskies' offensive line played particularly well in the 2006 season opener at No. 1 Ohio State as NIU gained 171 yards on the ground.

In 2005, the Huskies were 16th nationally in rushing, averaging 206.7 yards. That season, Northern Illinois rushed for 211 yards at Michigan and 256 at Northwestern. In 2004, NIU was 9-3, won the Silicon Valley Bowl and finished 11th in the nation in rushing (238.2 ypg).

Pittman began his second term at Northern Illinois in 2003. That year, NIU finished 10-2 and beat Maryland and Iowa State and knocked off Alabama, 19-16, in Tuscaloosa. Pittman's line blocked for Michael Turner who finished second in the nation in rushing.

Pittman first coached at Northern Illinois from 1994-95 and produced a trio of All-Big West Conference talent, including All-America center Chris O'Neal. Pittman was the offensive line coach under John Blake at Oklahoma from 1996-98 where he coached first-round draft pick Stockar McDougle. Pittman has also worked with the offensive lines at Cincinnati (1996), Western Michigan (1999), Missouri (2000) and Kansas (2001).

Sam & Jamie Pittman

Before NIU, Pittman produced an 11-9-1 record as head coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 1992-93. His 1993 team earned the school's first bowl bid n 23 years at the Valley of the Sun Bowl in Phoenix.

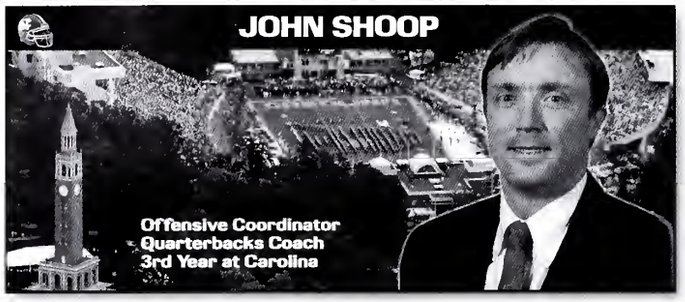

Pittman began his career as a student coach at Pittsburg (Kan.) State University in 1984 and 1985. He moved to Beggs (Okla.) High School as an assistant in 1986, Princeton (Mo.) High School as head coach in 1987-88 and Trenton (Mo.) High School as head coach in 1989-90.

At PSU, Pittman won four football letters, finished with 35 straight starts, and played in two postseason games at defensive end (1980-83). As a senior, he won first-team NAIA All-America, first-team All-Central States Intercollegiate Conference, team captain and co-MVP honors. In 1982, Pittman made first-team All-CSIC and team defensive MVP. In 1998, he was inducted into the Pittsburg State Athletics Hall of Fame and in 2004, he was voted to the school's All-Century squad.

Pittman received a bachelor's degree in education from PSU in 1986. He is married to the former Jamie Conrad of Pittsburg, Kan.

John Shoop enters his third season as North Carolina's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

In 2008, the Tar Heels lost starting quarterback T.J. Yates for six games early in the season after breaking his ankle against Virginia Tech. Off to a hot start, Yates did not return to the starting role until the last three games of the season. Reserve QB Cameron Sexton helped lead the team to a 5-2 record and had his best run of success at UNC under Shoop. Meanwhile, wide receiver Hakeem Nicks had his best two years in Shoop's offense, setting school records for career receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns. The Tar Heels also produced their best running attack in four years, averaging 122.6 yards per game as Shaun Draughn (866 yards) and Ryan Houston (8 touchdowns) led the way.

In his first year in Chapel Hill in 2007, Shoop developed an exciting offense despite having just one senior starter. Yates, an unknown commodity prior to the start of the season finished fourth all-time among ACC freshmen in single-season passing yardage and was selected first-team freshman All-America by The Sporting News. Yates set the single-season school record for passing yards and Nicks set a school mark with 74 receptions.

Wide receiver Brandon Tate became one of the best big-play threats in the conference in Shoop's offense, averaging more than 20 yards per catch. Versatile athlete Greg Little has been a productive player at both wide receiver and tailback as Shoop always finds ways to get the ball to the team's top playmakers.

Shoop came to Chapel Hill after serving two seasons with the Oakland Raiders. He was Oakland's quarterbacks coach in 2005, the tight ends coach in 2006 and was elevated to offensive coordinator for the final five games of the 2006 season.

Shoop spent the 2004 season as quarterbacks coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under head coach Jon Gruden. He worked five seasons (1999-2003) for the Chicago Bears under head coach Dick Jauron, including three as the offensive coordinator (2001-03). Shoop was promoted to Chicago's offensive coordinator position after spending the 1999-2000 seasons as the Bears quarterbacks coach. At the time, he was one of the youngest coordinators in NFL history.

In his first season as the coordinator in Chicago, Shoop revitalized the Chicago offense and helped lead the Bears to the NFC Central Division title with a 13-3 record. That season, tailback Anthony Thomas earned Offensive Rookie of the Year honors after setting a Bears' rookie rushing record with 1,183 yards, and quarterback Jim Miller had his most productive season as a pro.

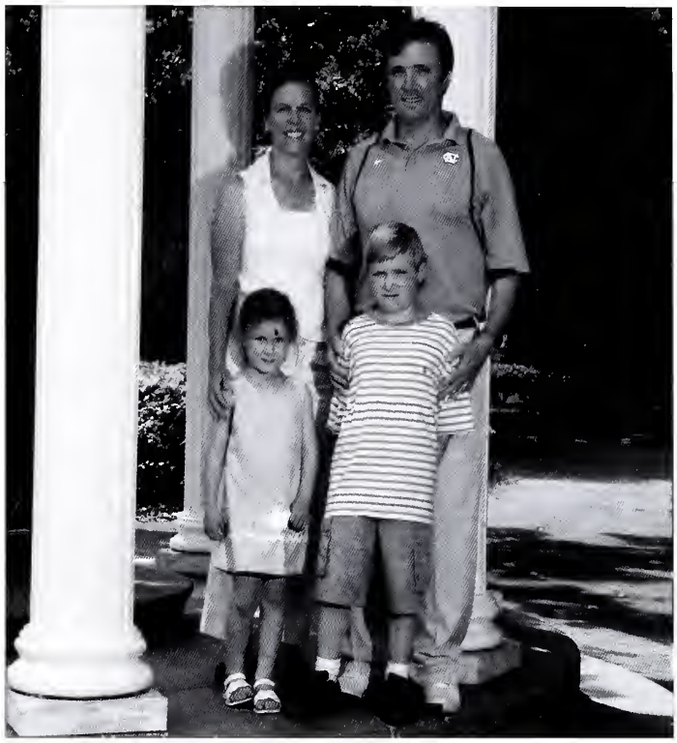

Under Shoop's direction in 2002, the Bears offense produced Pro Bowl wide receiver Marty Booker, who became the first Chicago receiver to earn all-star game honors since 1971.

Prior to joining the Bears, Shoop spent four seasons with the Carolina Panthers, where he began his NFL coaching career at the age of 25. Shoop was an offensive quality control assistant for the Panthers in 1995-96 where he was a member of a staff that led the team to the NFC Championship Game in 1996. He was then promoted to quarterbacks coach, serving in that capacity for Carolina from 1997-98.

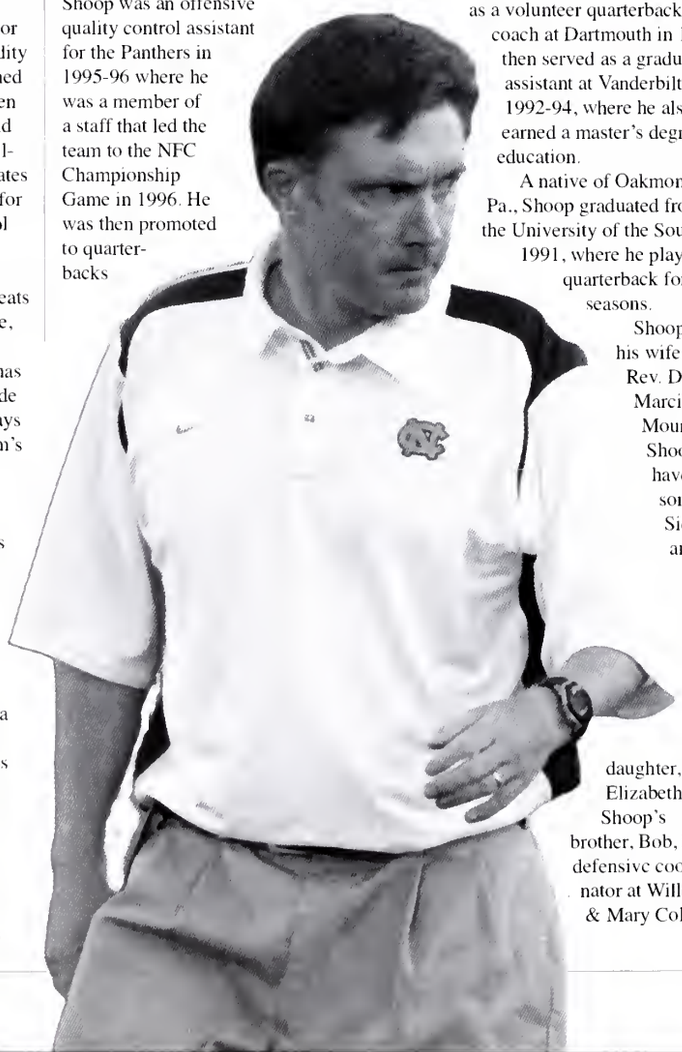

Shoop began his coaching career as a volunteer quarterbacks coach at Dartmouth in 1991, then served as a graduate assistant at Vanderbilt from 1992-94, where he also earned a master's degree in education.

A native of Oakmont, Pa., Shoop graduated from the University of the South in 1991, where he played quarterback for four seasons.

Shoop and his wife, the Rev. Dr. Marcia Mount Shoop, have a son, Sidney, and a daughter, Mary Elizabeth. Shoop's brother, Bob, is the defensive coordinator at William & Mary College.

The Williams Family: Charlie, Sydney, Jada, Charlie & Lisa

Charlie Williams enters his third season as North Carolina's wide receivers coach.

One example of Williams' impact on the program was the development of first-team All-ACC wide receiver Hakeem Nicks, who finished his three-year Carolina career in 2008 with 14 school records. Nicks set school records for career and single-season receiving yardage and after a remarkable 217-yard performance in the Meineke Car Care Bowl, declared for the NFL Draft. He was selected in the first round (29th overall) by the New York Giants.

Nicks' teammate Brandon Tate became a big play receiver under Williams' tutelage. Before Williams arrived, Tate had just five catches for 72 yards. In the two years under Williams, Tate caught 41 balls for 855 yards (20.9 average) and eight touchdowns in just 18 games.

All three of Carolina's starting wide receivers last year were selected in the 2009 NFL Draft. In addition to Nicks, Tate was taken in the third round by the New England Patriots and Brooks Foster went to St. Louis in the fifth round.

Williams, who coached wide receivers with head coach Butch Davis at the University of Miami, came to Carolina after serving as the University of Arizona's wide receivers coach from 2004-06.

A 24-year coaching veteran, Williams spent six seasons as receivers coach with Tony Dungy and the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-2001, tutoring standout performers such as Keyshawn Johnson, Reidel Anthony and Jacquez Green. Johnson was chosen to play in three Pro Bowls while Williams was his position coach. The 2000 and 2001 Tampa Bay offenses set several franchise offensive records, and the team advanced to the playoffs four times during his tenure.

Prior to his NFL stint, Williams was wide receivers coach for three seasons at Miami, two under Dennis Erickson and one under Davis.

At Arizona, Williams developed Syndric Steptoe into a big-play threat. Steptoe was the Wildcats' leading receiver in 2006 with 55 receptions for 568 yards. Mike Thomas, Arizona's second-leading receiver in 2006 with 50 catches, set the freshman school record with 52 receptions in 2005.

Williams also coached one season for Lou Holtz at South Carolina in 2003, where he helped develop Troy Williamson into a 2005 first-round NFL draft pick of the Minnesota Vikings.

In 1993 and 1994, Williams coached Chris T. Jones, who led the Hurricanes in receiving both years and had a total of 90 catches for 1,462 yards. The 1993 Hurricanes (9-3) played Arizona in the Fiesta Bowl and Jones led Miami with six catches for 98 yards.

Williams was part of the 1994 Miami staff that led the Canes to a 10-2 finish and played Nebraska in the Orange Bowl.

A native of Long Beach, Calif., Williams began his coaching career at Long Beach City College in 1984. He worked two years at New Mexico State (1986-87), four seasons at TCU (1988-91) and one year at Minnesota (1992) before joining the Miami program.

Williams played two years as a defensive back at Colorado State (1978-79). He and his wife Lisa, have two daughters, Sydney and Jada, and a son, Gregory.

The Withers Family: Pierce, Everett, Kara, and Tia

Charlotte, N.C., native Everett Withers enters his second season as North Carolina's defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

In 2008, the opportunistic Tar Heel defense ranked eighth in the country with 20 interceptions, just one shy of the school record. Carolina returned a school-record four interceptions for touchdowns and posted a positive turnover margin (0.46) for the first time in nine years. Under Withers' guidance, safety Trimane Goddard led the nation in interceptions with seven en route to first-team All-ACC and second-team Walter Camp and Associated Press All-America honors. He became the first Tar Heel defensive back to earn All-America honors since Dre' Bly in 1998.

Withers came to North Carolina after serving one season as the University of Minnesota's defensive coordinator in 2007.

Withers spent six seasons with the Tennessee Titans from 2001-06 under head coach Jeff Fisher. From 2002-04, Withers helped the Titans defense tally 57 interceptions, which was the most for the franchise over a three-year period since 1993-95. The 57 interceptions also ranked fourth in the AFC and eighth overall during that time. The Titans totaled 21 picks in 2004, including 16 by the secondary.

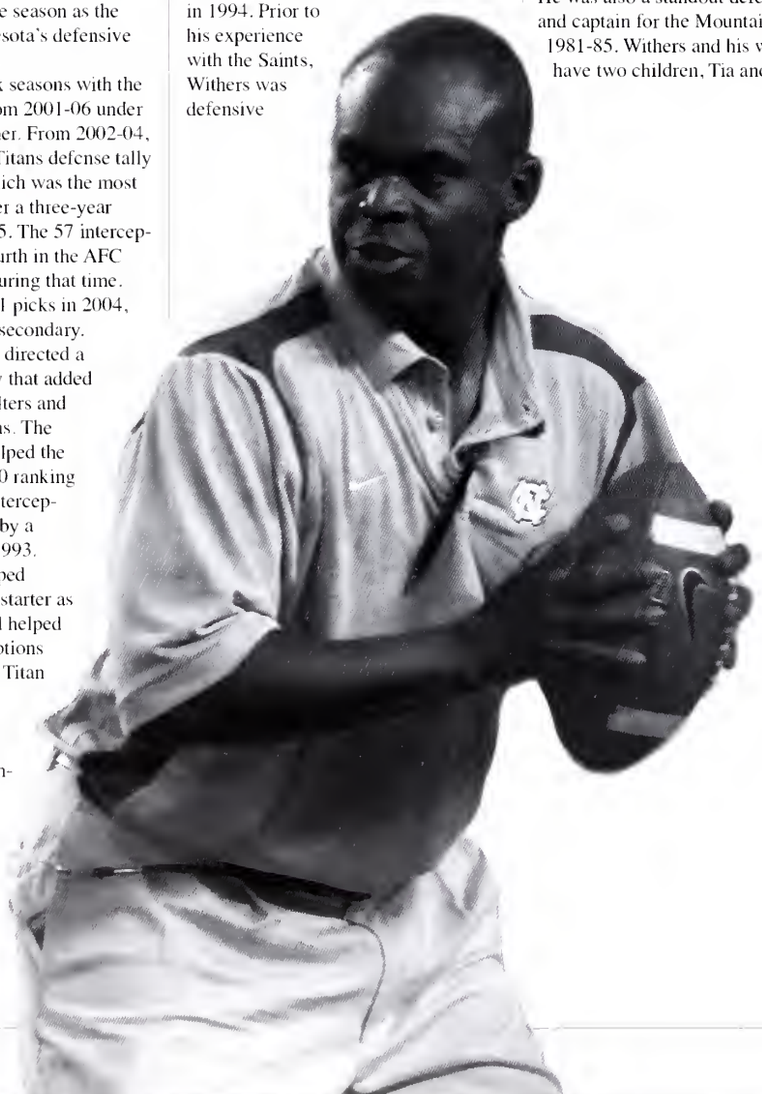

In 2002, Withers directed a revamped secondary that added safeties Lance Schulters and rookie Tank Williams. The new arrangement helped the defense earn a top 10 ranking and Schulters' six interceptions were the most by a Titans safety since 1993. Withers also developed Andre Dyson into a starter as a rookie in 2001 and helped him total 16 interceptions during his four-year Titan career, including six his final season.

Prior to working with the Titans, Withers was defensive backs coach under Mack Brown at Texas from 1998-2000, where he guided a Longhorns secondary which improved from 75th in the nation in pass defense in 1997 (132.7 efficiency rating) to first in the nation in 2000 (88.02). Withers is credited with helping a young corps of defensive backs improve in a number of statistical categories.

Withers joined the Longhorns after three seasons (1995-97) as defensive coordinator at Louisville. His 1996 defensive unit ranked fourth nationally in both total defense (235.8) and rushing defense (81.1) and led the NCAA in forced turnovers (41). While at Louisville, Withers helped current New York Giants All-Pro cornerback Sam Madison earn All-America honors for the Cardinals.

Withers' first National Football League experience came with the New Orleans Saints where he worked as defensive quality control in 1994. Prior to his experience with the Saints, Withers was defensive backs coach at Southern Mississippi for two seasons (1992-93) and outside linebackers coach at Tulane in 1991. The first three years of Withers' coaching career came at Austin Peay, where he was defensive coordinator (1988-89) and special teams/wide receivers coach (1990).

Withers earned his bachelor's degree from Appalachian State in 1985. He was also a standout defensive back and captain for the Mountaineers from 1981-85. Withers and his wife, Kara, have two children, Tia and Pierce.

Corey Holliday, who played for the Tar Heels from 1989-93, is in his ninth year with the football program. He was promoted to Associate Director of Athletics for Football Administration in 2006. Holliday coordinates daily football program administration, works with the University admissions office, supervises football operational personnel and handles other administrative duties as assigned by athletic director Dick Baddour and head coach Butch Davis.

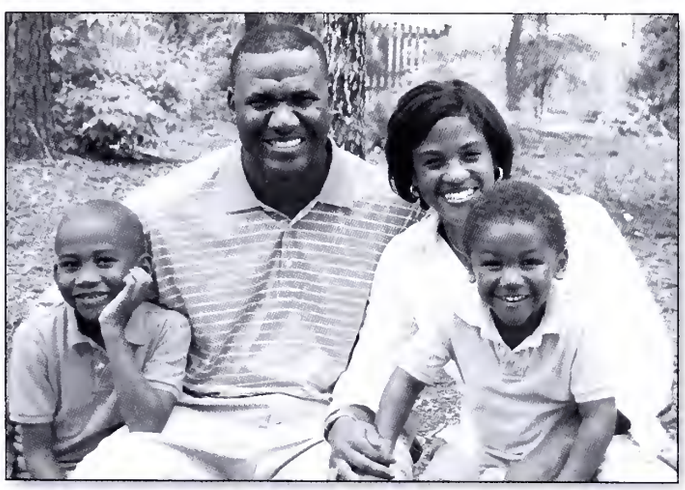

Holliday was selected as one of 25 athletics administrators to participate in the inaugural 2001-02 NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males.

Holliday graduated as the Carolina career record holder for most receiving yards (2,447), a mark he held until it was broken by Hakeem Nicks in 2008. Holliday is also fourth in career receptions. Holliday caught a pass in an ACC-record 45 consecutive games for the Tar Heels from 1990-93 and was a team co-captain as a junior and senior.

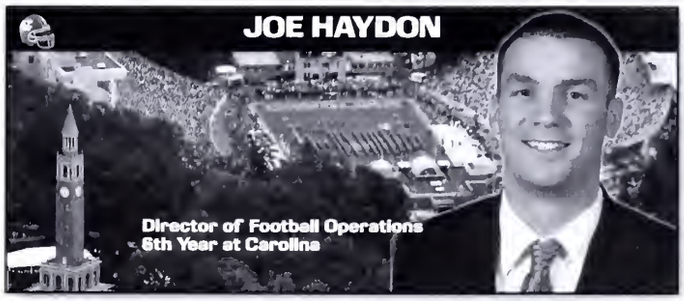

Holliday played four seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was a member of four divisional championship squads. He played in Super Bowl XXX against the Dallas Cowboys and had two receptions and two special teams tackles.

Holliday also has held positions with the Atlantic Coast Conference, UNC's Educational Foundation, and The Ohio State University. Before returning to Chapel Hill, he was a Business Process Analyst for Andersen Consulting in Columbus, Ohio.

He holds two degrees from North Carolina, including a B.S. in Business Administration in 1993 and a Master's in Sports Administration in 1997. Holliday and his wife, Angela (UNC '94), have two sons, Christopher and Nicholas.

Joe Haydon enters his sixth year with the Tar Heels and fourth as the team's director of operations. Haydon coordinates team travel, in-house recruiting visits and works with the NCAA on student-athlete admissions and eligibility.

A native of Wayland, N.Y., Haydon played basketball at Division III Rochester Institute of Technology. He was the team captain and earned Academic All-America honors as a senior.

After spending two years in the telecommunications business, Haydon attended Carolina's sports administration graduate school. He worked as an intern in the football office in 2004, was hired as the assistant director of football operations in 2005 and was promoted to Director in 2006. Haydon, 31, resides in Durham.

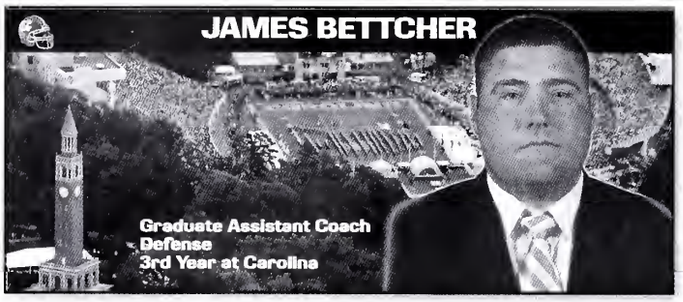

Andre' Williams, a former Tar Heel tailback, is in his fourth year as Carolina's Director of Football Student-Athlete Development. In that role, Williams works with the players in various administrative roles, including financial aid matters, housing, community service projects and as a liaison with the academic support program and compliance office.

Williams lettered at Carolina in 2000 and 2001 before a back injury forced him to stop playing football. He was the Tar Heels' leading rusher in 2001, when Carolina went 8-5 and won the Peach Bowl over Auburn. He also earned Academic All-ACC honors in 2001.

Williams graduated from Carolina in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in management and society. He worked one year for the Atlantic Coast Conference office before returning to Chapel Hill to earn a Master's degree in sports administration. Williams, 28, is married to the former Shayla Higginbotham.

James Bettcher begins his third season with the Tar Heels and second as the graduate assistant coach on defense. Bettcher worked in the Carolina football video department in 2007.

Bettcher came to Carolina after serving two seasons as the defensive graduate assistant at Bowling Green State from 2005-06 under head coach Greg Brannon. Bettcher coached safeties his first season and defensive tackles in his second. While at Bowling Green, he coached first-team all-conference performer Devon Parks, who led the team in sacks.

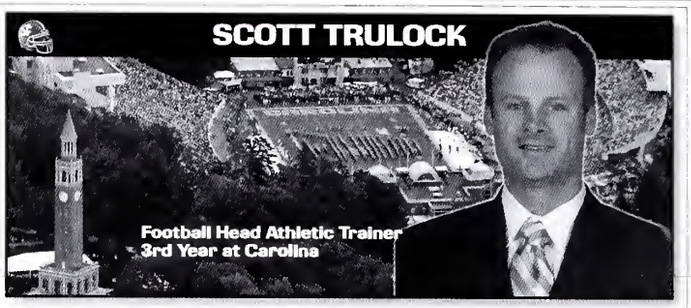

Bettcher began his coaching career at the University of St. Francis (Ft. Wayne, Ind.) where he served as defensive line coach and special teams coordinator from 2002-04. St. Francis played for two NAIA national championships, won 30 consecutive regular season games and captured three conference championships during his time as an assistant coach.

Erica & James Bettcher

A four-year starter at center, Bettcher played at St. Francis from 1998-2001. He was a two-sport standout, twice earning all-america honors in football and six times in track and field in the shot put and discus.

A native of Lakeville, Ind., Bettcher graduated with a degree in business management and a minor in accounting. He and his wife, Erica, reside in Durham.

Scott Trulock is in his third season as the team's Head Athletic Trainer for Football, where he heads a staff of two full-time assistants and two graduate assistants. Trulock and his staff work to keep Carolina's football student-athletes healthy and to rehabilitate any injuries quickly and successfully.

Trulock came to Carolina after spending 11 years in the National Football League. He served as the assistant athletic trainer for the Denver Broncos on Mike Shanahan's staff from 2004-06. Previously, he was the director of rehabilitation in Tampa Bay under head coach Jon Gruden from 2002-03. Trulock won a Super Bowl ring in 2002 when Tampa Bay knocked off the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Trulock began his career as assistant athletic trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1996-98 and also worked for the San Diego Chargers from 1999-2001.

While working in the NFL, Trulock was a member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers' Society (PFTAS). Within the Society, he served as the director of research for the PFATS Research and Education Foundation. In this role, he was responsible for spearheading the surveillance of injury data in order to establish trends in injury patterns to NFL players. In addition, Trulock has presented at many local, state, and national meetings.

The return to Carolina is a homecoming of sorts for Trulock, as he received his Masters Degree in Athletic Training from UNC in 1996. The position with the Football program presented him the opportunity to re-join one of the top Sports Medicine programs in the country. Actively involved in research since his days as a student at Carolina, Trulock utilizes the full complement of physicians, faculty, and researchers in the Sports Medicine department to provide cutting edge healthcare for UNC's football student-athletes.

A native of Orlando, Fla., Trulock earned his undergraduate degree in sports medicine at Valdosta State in 1994. Scott and his wife, Jamie, have two daughters, Corinne and Riley.

Goldsboro native and Tar Heel alumnus Dick Baddour is in his 13th year as Director of Athletics and his 43rd at the University of North Carolina. He directs one of the most successful and respected programs in the country, known for its commitment to academic integrity and competitive excellence in men's and women's sports.

Baddour has the third-longest current tenure among Atlantic Coast Conference athletic directors and is one of three to serve as Carolina's director for 10 or more years since the Tar Heels joined the league in 1954.

During Baddour's tenure, the Tar Heels have won 11 national championships, including six in women's soccer, two each in men's basketball and field hockey and one in men's soccer, won two football bowl games and had numerous top 10 national finishes in Olympic Sports. Nineteen different UNC men's and women's teams have combined for 61 ACC championships, more than any other school in that time. UNC has led the league in the number of team championships in seven of the last 12 seasons.

The 2008-09 season was one of the finest in Carolina history. Women's soccer and men's basketball won NCAA championships, men's soccer and women's lacrosse reached the NCAA finals, baseball advanced to the College World Series for the fourth year in a row and football played in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. UNC became the first school in ACC history to play in the men's basketball Final Four, the College World Series and a football bowl game in the same year.

Carolina finished second nationally in the 2008-09 Learfield Sports Directors Cup, an award that measures NCAA postseason performance. It was the 10th time in 12 years the Tar Heels finished first among ACC schools. Overall, Carolina has averaged a seventh-place finish in the Directors Cup during Baddour's tenure. At least 23 of 28 Tar Heel teams have qualified for NCAA postseason competition in each of the last four seasons.

The second-place finish in the Directors Cup marked the seventh top 10 finish by the Tar Heels in the last eight years, including top four showings in 2006, 2007 and 2009. By comparison, the other 11 ACC schools have combined for four top 10 finishes – and no finishes in the top four – in the 16-year-history of the Directors Cup.

The NCAA also honored six UNC athletic teams last year – baseball, men's basketball, women's fencing, women's golf, men's lacrosse and volleyball – with public recognition awards for their latest multi-year Academic Progress Rate scores.

Baddour emphasizes academic achievement and the overall student experience. Last year, 270 student-athletes made the ACC Academic Honor Roll, 329 earned Dean's List honors over the two semesters, and all 28 sports rated well in the APR. Eleven different programs finished the spring with a cumulative grade point average of better than 3.0.

Five years ago, Baddour created the the Carolina Leadership Academy, a training program for student-athletes, coaches and administrators. The program develops leadership skills through interactive workshops, 360-degree feedback, one-on-one coaching, peer mentoring and educational resources. Carolina's coaches consider the program an overwhelming success and it is a model for schools across the nation.

Baddour has hired head coaches in nine sports, including Roy Williams, Butch Davis and Mike Fox, overseen renovations or created plans to update virtually every facility in the athletic complex, expanded the direction and staffing for student-athlete services and worked tirelessly to set the program on sound financial footing.

Baddour has made it a top priority to ensure the athletic department stays financially stable. The department and Rams Club helped to raise $280 million over the last nine seasons in support of the Carolina First campaign, increasing the scholarship endowment to where it is the largest for a public school in the country. He worked out funding for facility enhancement projects, scholarships and operating budgets. He negotiated partnerships with Nike to outfit the athletic program, with Learfield Communications to direct UNC's multi-media properties, with Wachovia for on-site sponsorship in the Smith Center and Aramark for concessions. The Nike deal was widely praised as one of the most socially conscious contracts of its kind with respect to global labor issues.

Boshamer Stadium, home of the baseball program, re-opened in 2009 after a $25 million renovation and drew rave reviews in its first season. Currently, the department is working on upgrades or new facilities at Kenan Stadium, the Smith Center, Carmichael Auditorium, sports medicine and wrestling. The athletic department and Rams Club moved into the Ernie Williamson Athletics Center in 2007 and the Carolina Basketball Museum opened its doors in early 2008. Nearly 40,000 visitors have toured the museum, called one of the finest of its kind in the country.

Baddour began his UNC career in 1967 as assistant dean of men. In 1971 he became assistant dean of undergraduate admissions. He served as Assistant Dean at the UNC School of Law from 1983 to 1986. He served as the school's director of admissions and scholarship programs, head of personnel and supervisor of career planning and placement.

Baddour spent 11 years as John Swofford's top assistant before being named the Director of Athletics on June 25, 1997. In 2001, he received a Distinguished Service Medal from the UNC General Alumni Association.

Baddour and his wife, Lynda, have three children. Allen, a superior court judge for Orange and Chatham Counties, and his wife, Holly, have two sons, Henry and Jack; David, an attorney with RTP-based Womble-Carlyle, and his wife, Carey, have two daughters, Lauren and Julia, and son, Johnathan; Jennifer, a family therapist in private practice in Cary, and her husband, Kevin Snead, have a son, William.

Holden Thorp
CHANCELLOR

"We must make Carolina the best place to teach, learn, and discover."

AT CAROLINA, Holden Thorp has been an undergraduate student, a chemistry professor, a planetarium director, an inventor and entrepreneur, as well as a dean. He graduated with honors, won teaching awards, led a powerhouse academic department, developed technology for electronic DNA chips, founded spin-off companies, and succeeded as an administrator.

Now, as the 10th chancellor, Thorp is drawing from all of those experiences in leading Carolina among the ranks of the great research universities in the United States and around the world.

A North Carolina native, Thorp grew up in Fayetteville in a family steeped in Carolina traditions dating to the 1800s. His father, Herb, used to sing the alma mater, "Hark the Sound," at bed time. When it was time to graduate from Terry Sanford High School, there was only one school on his college application list – UNC. He earned a bachelor of science degree with honors in 1986.

Attending a world-class research university – where research and teaching are done by the same people – gave Thorp opportunities to work in chemistry labs alongside some of Carolina's very best faculty. Those experiences inspired him to become a college professor. He pursued that dream at the California Institute of Technology, where he earned a doctorate in chemistry in 1989, and at Yale University for postgraduate work. After a year teaching at N.C. State, he came back to UNC's chemistry department in 1993.

Because he has lived it from both sides of the classroom, Thorp is passionate about the undergraduate experience. "Carolina is perfectly suited to leverage our students' interests in the great problems facing our world to enhance their academic success and position them to lead us," Thorp says. "Our greatest contributions are the UNC alumni who go on to be leaders in communities across North Carolina."

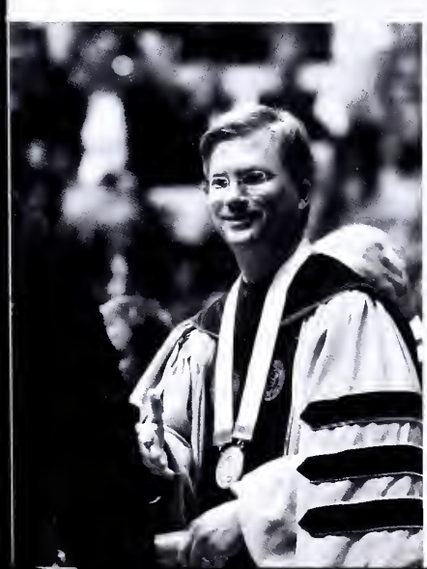

He says the University's future depends on aspiring to global academic excellence and serving the needs of North Carolina's students and people. "We're the university of both – and: Both academic prominence and a commitment to our state."

Before becoming chancellor on July 1, 2008, Thorp served a year as dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. He chaired the chemistry department, led a $17 million fundraising effort for the Carolina Physical Science Complex as faculty director, and spent four years as director of the Morehead Planetarium and Science Center.

Nationally, Thorp serves on the Associations Patent Reform Task Force, an advisory body to six associations representing U.S. higher education in a Congressional effort to reform patent law. He has published 130 scholarly articles on the electronic properties of DNA and RNA. He invented technology for electronic DNA chips that led to 19 issued or pending U.S. patents.

Although Thorp has lived mostly in North Carolina, he conducted a state tour during part of his first year as chancellor to show his personal commitment to the University's mission of serving the state. Stops included visits with high school students, university students, alumni and all UNC system chancellors.

An accomplished musician who plays jazz bass and keyboard, Thorp is married to Patti Worden Thorp, a Hope Mills native and UNC Greensboro graduate. Their children are John and Emma.

Keep up with Chancellor Thorp's chronicles of Carolina at his blog, holden.unc.edu, which features photos, video and audio.

"It's on us to do more than teach, more than educate. We must inspire our students to reach beyond themselves and take on the great problems facing the world."

I'M A TAR HEEL

IT'S A FEELING YOU GET when you are in Chapel Hill – a feeling that this is indeed a special place. It's not just brilliant students, or a Nobel Prize winner, or Hall of Fame coaches, or championship teams, or some of the most recognizable athletes in sports. This place is the sum of its parts – parts individually committed to the highest level of excellence in all that they do. It is the University of North Carolina.

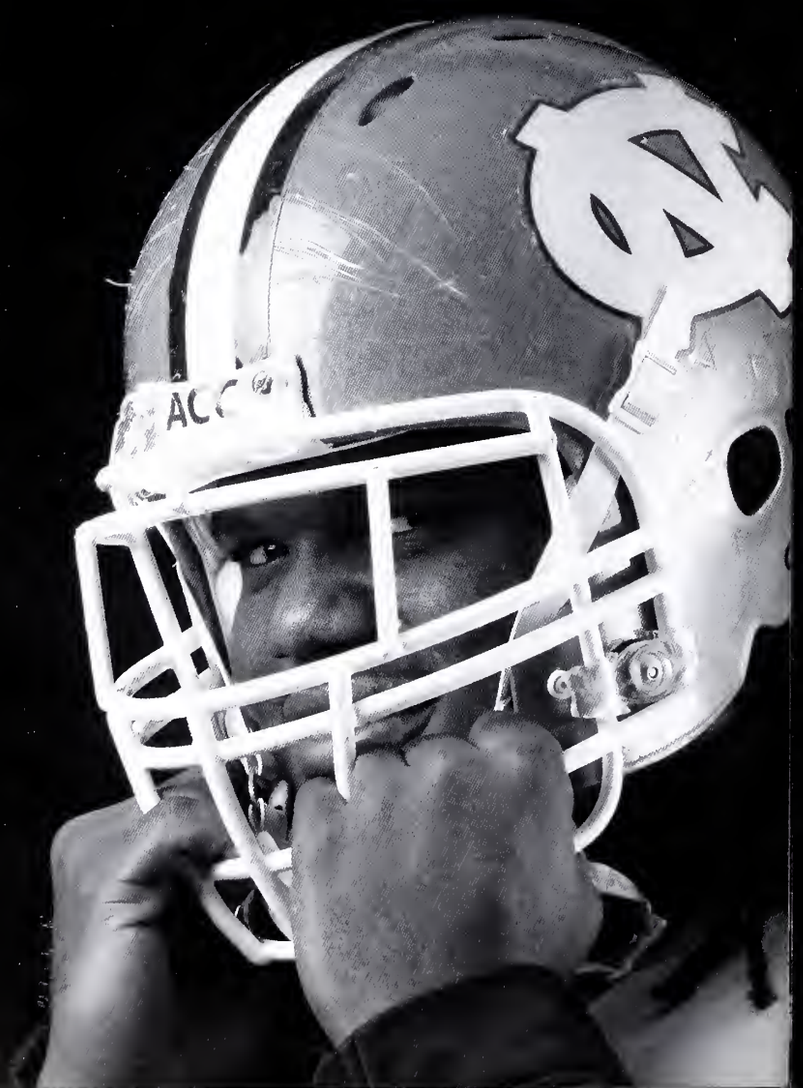

It is every person working toward a goal of making themselves better – which in turn makes Carolina, as a team, stronger. It is the personal commitment to wake up at 5:00 a.m. for practice. It is the lone shooter in the gym without the lights or the screaming fans. It is practicing hard day in and day out for the betterment of the team, knowing your jersey may never feel sweat on game day. It is busing back from a road game late at night, only to arise for that early morning mid-term exam ... and making Dean's List. It is an understanding that this is the Carolina Way – and it is what it means to be a Tar Heel.

The Rams Club supports this commitment to the highest level of excellence. Please join our efforts to make this experience possible for Carolina student-athletes. And give them the opportunity to say with pride: I'M A TAR HEEL.

THE RAMS CLUB

I'm the first person in my family to go to college. I don't take that for granted. I approach every day with the goal of succeeding the Carolina Way, and I thank the Carolina Family for making that possible.

I'm Marvin Austin,
and I'm a Tar Heel.

The Rams Club – A Need for Growth

The cost of competing at the highest level and educating outstanding student-athletes continues to climb. The Rams Club must grow its membership and level of support to keep Carolina as one of the nation's premier athletics programs both athletically and academically.

The Rams Club has witnessed impressive growth over the past several years – 51% of members have joined within the last 10 years. Membership in The Rams Club is available through endowment and annual gifts. Gifts of all sizes are important – 47% of all Annual Fund gifts are between $100 and $1,000. This growth must continue to meet the escalating needs of Carolina's 28 varsity sports and its student-athletes.

As a member of The Rams Club, you provide a vital component to the success of Tar Heel student-athletes. Your membership provides Carolina student-athletes the opportunity to proudly say, "I'm a Tar Heel."

I'M A TAR HEEL

Annual Fund

Donations through the Annual Fund offers The Rams Club the opportunity to meet immediate funding needs-primarily the funds needed to bridge the difference between the endowment's yield and the actual scholarship costs and other important projects for Carolina's student-athletes.

Scholarship Endowment

The Rams Club's Scholarship Endowment Trust is the largest athletic scholarship endowment in the nation. The Scholarship Endowment Trust is built upon gifts from Carolina supporters who have endowed Full or Half Scholarships in support of student-athletes which provide in perpetuity the support to a broad-based athletics program.

Carolina Forver - Planned Giving

As the Rams Club's planned giving program, Carolina Forever offers donors an opportunity to make a lasting impact by involving Carolina Athletics in their estate planning. Carolina Forever's mission is to insure that the university continues to provide in perpetuity the unique opportunity to experience what it means to be a Tar Heel student-athlete in a broad-based athletics program.

Sports Endowments

The Sport Endowments program provides additional funding for the operating budgets of each of the 28 sports. Donors can make gifts to an individual sport with the yield from that trust made available to the appropriate coach for use in budget-enhancing activities like recruiting, team travel, assistant coaches' salaries and more. With the gifts designated into an endowment, these gifts will provide a continuous stream of usable income in perpetuity.

THE RAMS CLUB

For more information about The Rams Club visit our website at www.ramsclub.com or call 919.843.2000.

To me, being a Tar Heel means more than just being a student-athlete. It's about representing the university, and carrying on the great tradition that so many Tar Heels have built before me.

I'm T.J. Yates,
and I'm a Tar Heel.

Carolina football plays its home games at Kenan Memorial Stadium (cap. 60,000), one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. Kenan Stadium has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927 and the thrill of playing in or attending a game there is as exhilarating now as it was when it was first constructed.

Considering its majestic setting among the Carolina pines, many observers say Kenan Stadium is the most beautiful football facility in the country. One national sports magazine rated Kenan one of the five best places in America to watch a college football game. For scenery, atmosphere and charm, it cannot be surpassed.

The stadium has been expanded several times since its completion in 1927. In each instance, though, great care was taken to keep its fundamental beauty intact. The addition of the Frank H. Kenan Football Center and the North Side Stadium Preferred Seating Box in 1997 have further enhanced the stadium's status as a campus landmark.

The Kenan Football Center houses the Carolina football program, including the locker rooms, weight room, training room, equipment room, players' lounge, computer labs and study areas, 100-plus seat auditorium, coaches' offices, theater and Hall of Honor.

An additional floor was added to the Kenan Football Center after the 2008 season. The fifth floor contains additional office and recruiting space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four premium gameday suites, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The recruiting area and suites also are used as academic study areas during the week. The second floor was completely renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. The fourth floor renovations added additional office space for football support staff.

The Charlie Justice Hall of Honor, located on the ground floor, is a multi-media history of Carolina football. Photographs, awards, trophies and artifacts detailing the rich and storied history of the sport in Chapel Hill are on display. The players who have been honored by placing their names and numbers on display in the stadium are also featured in the Hall of Honor. Special plaques, flags and an audio-visual presentation on each player are highlighted.

The James A. Heavner Theater was made possible by a special gift by the former executive producer of the Tar Heel Sports Network and president of Vilcom. The theater is a 30-person mini-theater equipped with surround sound and seven dramatic videos presenting the history of UNC football.

A number of rooms in the Kenan Football Center have been dedicated in the honor or memory of Carolina's benefactors, fans and athletic personalities. They include the Brinkley Lounge, the fourth floor reception area named for Harvey M. Brinkley Jr.; the Don McCauley/Paul Miller Head Coach's Suite; the Norman M. (Buddy) Black Jr. Lounge, the fourth floor hospitality area; the Oscar Davenport/Chris Keldorf Quarterback Meeting Room, as given by Bob Biggerstaff; the Jo Allison Clary Smith Weight Room; the Carolina Football Players' Locker Room, named in behalf of the more than 400 former Tar Heels who donated more than $2 million to the project; the Nassif Offensive Staff Meeting Room; the Ann and Paul Lawing Coaches' Locker Room; Koury Box North, box seating on the north side of the stadium named for Maurice J. Koury; the John W. Pope Academic Support Facility; the John W. Pope Stadium Box, a stadium box on the north side; the John D. Swofford Auditorium and the Jimmy W. Garrell coaches meeting room.

The 1997 expansion project, in which great care was taken to ensure that the surrounding environment would be altered as little as possible, ties the north and south concourses to either end of the lower deck via the third level of the Kenan Center, making fan movement around the stadium much easier. That project also added nearly 8,000 seats, a state-of-the-art football facility, chancellor's box and preferred seating box. The renovation and expansion project was financed through a combination of private contributions through the Educational Foundation and bonded indebtedness from the athletic department through the sale of revenue-generating bonds. The Educational Foundation and its members committed more than $50 million to the project.

Two ribbon videoboards on the facade of the North and South side upper levels were added in 2007. In 2003, a $2 million scoreboard at the east end of the stadium was added. The scoreboard was financed through an agreement with Learfield Communications, UNC's multi-media rights holder. The $2-million-figure includes the cost of the video board, installation and a new public address system. Over 40 new speakers were added throughout Kenan Stadium.

The football center is named in honor of the late Frank H. Kenan, one of the school's most generous benefactors. Kenan was a Durham resident and chief executive officer of Kenan Transport Company in Chapel Hill. He passed away at age 83 in 1996.

Kenan, a 1935 Carolina graduate, was the great-great-grandson of General James Kenan, a member of the University's founding board of trustees. An Atlanta native, Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors.

In recent years the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, of which he was a trustee, has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, NC State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

Kenan served on the steering committee of Carolina's Bicentennial Campaign, the University's largest fund-raising effort. Gifts by him, his family and the trust during the campaign exceeded $31 million. The largest portion of that was targeted for the business school. In 1991 the school was renamed the Kenan-Flagler Business School after a $10 million gift.

The preferred seating box that rises above the second deck of the grandstand on the north side of the stadium has outdoor seating for almost 1,200 spectators. That includes the Chancellor's Box on the second level of the box 45 feet above the ground. The fourth level, 68 feet high, has outdoor seating for more than 1,000, plus concessions and a 7,500 square foot lounge. There is a smaller lounge and food preparation areas on the third floor.

The Kenan Football Center and preferred seating box are the predominant changes in a multi-year renovation plan that began in 1995. A new playing field was installed that spring. The new turf includes an improved drainage system beneath the field that drains through the field itself rather than off the sides of the field as in the past. Prior to the 1996 season the restrooms and concession stands were expanded and renovated.

Another significant stadium expansion took place prior to 1988 and involved adding 2,000 choice seats between the 40-yard lines where the press box and chancellor's box formerly stood. A new press box was constructed on top of the upper deck on the stadium's south side. It is a one-level elongated structure, running from 10-yard line to 10-yard line.

Also part of the 1987-88 project were a permanent lighting system, a chancellor's lounge on the north side of the field and a football lettermen's lounge on the south side. The lights are part of a General Electric low-mount system which minimizes the height of the lightpoles. Cost of the entire project was $7 million. It was funded by private gifts and bonds.

William Rand Kenan Jr. deserves the credit for originally making the stadium a part of the University. He was born in North Carolina in 1873 and graduated from Carolina in 1894. An international industrialist, Kenan discovered carbide and made monumental progress in the field of chemistry. During his business career he was president of The Florida East Coast Railroad, The Florida East Coast Hotel Company, The West Palm Beach Water Company and the Florida East Coast Car Ferry Company.

He was a director of Florida Power and Light Company and built the first power plant in Miami in the early 1900s.

The stadium was built as a memorial to his parents, William R. Kenan and Mary Hargrave Kenan. Construction began in November 1926 and was completed the following August. Complete cost of the stadium and accompanying fieldhouse was $303,000.

Originally, the stadium was to be built through funds raised by alumni donations, and by June 1926, a group of nearly 40 alumni had contributed $27,926. At this time, however, a copy of the prospectus and plan of financing the stadium came into the hands of Kenan, who expressed an interest in the proposal. Kenan was considering establishing a memorial to his parents, and the pressing need for a stadium and the possibilities of the beauty, dignity and permanence it presented, suggested to him that the benefaction he contemplated may well take the form of a memorial stadium. The Stadium Committee immediately endorsed his proposal and on the very day in November 1926 on which Kenan visited the planned site, he announced his financial gift to build the stadium.

Kenan remained very interested in Kenan Stadium throughout his lifetime. In the 1950s he gave a $1,000,000 contribution to construct a second deck on the stadium. After Kenan's death in 1965 the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which was established by his will, donated $1,000,000 to enlarge and modernize Kenan Fieldhouse.

In 1988 the Kenan Trust made another $1,000,000 gift to complete the new chancellor's box on the North Side. Another lasting memory of William R. Kenan Jr. is the Kenan Athletic Scholarship Endowment, valued at over $1,000,000. Each year a student-athlete is awarded a full scholarship from this fund.

Besides giving the stadium to the University, Mr. Kenan also sponsored and financed the famous Kenan Professorships. He was awarded the honorary degree of LL.D. by his alma mater in 1944.

In the first game played there, Carolina defeated Davidson, 27-0, on November 12, 1927.

Carolina's all-time record at Kenan Stadium is 249-162-16. The most points scored by the Tar Heels in Kenan came in the third game played there as Carolina whipped Wake Forest, 65-0, in the 1928 season opener.

As originally built, the stadium seated 24,000. However, in 1963 the benefactor added portable stands and then an upper deck to the permanent stands, which increased capacity to 48,000. That was expanded to 50,000 in 1979, 52,000 in 1988, 57,500 in 1997 and 60,000 in 1998.

At the East end of the stadium is the Kenan Fieldhouse, home of the Student-Athlete Development Center. A 20,000 square foot building, it is a one-of-a-kind facility. For study purposes, it contains a language lab, video room, computer lab, theatre-style lecture hall, several reading rooms and numerous tutorial rooms. UNC's academic counseling staff has the advantage of using the most modern techniques in assisting student-athletes.

Capacity crowds have come to be expected at Kenan. In 1997, the Tar Heels played in front of a record-shattering crowd of 62,000 on Nov. 8, 1997, as fifth-ranked Carolina battled No. 2 Florida State. The largest crowd to watch a game prior to the most recent major expansion was 54,300 as Carolina defeated N.C. State, 31-17, in 1994.

The 1983 season saw another first in the stadium — a game played under artificial lights. The Carolina-Duke game was played in the late afternoon so it could be televised throughout the ACC area. Portable lights were brought in since the second half was played after sunset. Portable lights were also used in the 1987 Clemson game which was televised nationally by ESPN.

The 1991 season opener versus Cincinnati and that season's Clemson game, which was televised nationally by ESPN, were the first true night games ever played at Kenan Stadium.

CAROLINA
2008 IN REVIEW
TWO-THOUSAND NINE

CAROLINA FINISHES 8-5 IN 2008

North Carolina was 8-5 in 2008, a four-game improvement from 2007 and advanced to a postseason bowl game for the first time since 2004. The Tar Heels were in contention for the ACC title until the final week of the season and spent nearly half the season ranked among the top 25. Carolina posted wins over three ranked teams – Connecticut, Notre Dame and Georgia Tech – and notched impressive victories at Miami and vs. Notre Dame in Kenan Stadium. The Tar Heels fell to West Virginia, 31-30, in the Meineke Car Care Bowl in Charlotte on Dec. 27 to close the season.

HAKEEM NICKS FINISHES INCREDIBLE CAROLINA CAREER

Charlotte, N.C., native Hakeem Nicks finished his career as arguably the top receiver in Carolina history. The 6-2, 210-pound junior set 14 school records in just three seasons in Chapel Hill. He ranked first in the ACC in receiving yards (94.0/game), second in receptions (5.23/game) and sixth in all-purpose yards (106.9). In 2008, he had 68 receptions for 1,222 yards and 12 touchdowns. He also had five rushes for 34 yards and one touchdown. Nicks became the first player in school history to top the 1,000-yard receiving mark and also set the single-season record with 12 touchdown receptions.

NICKS IN UNC RECORD BOOK

- Most career receiving yards (2,840)
- Most career receptions (181)
- Most career touchdown receptions (21)
- Most career 100-yard receiving games (10)
- Most single-season receiving yards (1,222 in 2008)
- Most single-season receptions (74 in 2007)
- Most single-season touchdown receptions (12 in 2008)
- Most 100-yard receiving games in single-season (5 in 2008)
- Most receiving yards in bowl game (217 in 2008 Meineke Car Care Bowl)
- Most receiving touchdowns in bowl game (3 in 2008 Meineke Car Care Bowl)
- Most receptions in a game by a freshman (9 in 2006)
- Most receptions by a freshman in single season (39 in 2006)
- Most yards gained by a freshman in a game (171 vs. Notre Dame, 2006)
- Most yards gained by a freshman in a single-season (660 in 2006)

INDIVIDUAL HIGHLIGHTS OF 2008 SEASON

- Safety Trimane Goddard was named a second-team All-America by The Associated Press and The Walter Camp Football Foundation. The senior from Robersonville, N.C. led the nation with seven interceptions. He twice sealed a Carolina victory on the last play of the game with a turnover. He picked off a pass in the end zone at Miami and recovered a fumble vs. Notre Dame to ensure a Carolina victory.
- Linebacker Bruce Carter led the nation with five blocked kicks, including three in one game vs. Connecticut. Carter is believed to be the only player in NCAA history to block four consecutive punts (last one vs. Miami and three vs. UConn.)
- Linebacker Quan Sturdivant led the nation with 87 primary tackles. The 6-2, 235-pound sophomore ranked third in the ACC and 20th in country with 9.4 tackles per game.
- Senior Mark Paschal was voted the team defensive MVP and ranked fourth in the ACC and 21st in the country in tackles per game (9.4).
- Brandon Tate became the NCAA all-time leader in combined kick return yards with 3,523. He set the school record with his sixth kick return for a touchdown. Against McNeese State, he set the school record with 397 all-purpose yards.
- A year following brain surgery, freshman defensive end Robert Quinn was named the 2008 ACC Piccolo Award winner as the league's most courageous player. The Ladson, S.C., native started 12 games and had 26 tackles and 6.5 tackles for losses.

Wide receiver Hakeem Nicks set 14 school records in just three seasons in Chapel Hill.

CAROLINA COMEBACKS

Coming from behind to win was nothing new for the 2008 Tar Heels. Carolina trailed in seven of its eight wins, including three (Miami, Notre Dame, Boston College) by deficits of at least 10 points. The only time Carolina did not trail was in a 28-7 win over No. 22 Georgia Tech.

THREE WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS

North Carolina won three games over ranked teams in 2008, including No. 22 Georgia Tech, No. 24 Connecticut and No. 23 Boston College. All three wins came at home, marking the first season in school history that Carolina has earned three victories over ranked teams. Carolina also posted three victories against ranked teams in 1992, but only two came at home. North Carolina's average margin of victory against ranked teams this season was 22.6 points (UConn by 26, BC by 21, Georgia Tech by 21).

TAR HEELS EIGHTH IN THE NATION IN INTERCEPTIONS

Carolina finished eighth in the nation with 20 interceptions. The Tar Heels intercepted at least one pass in 10 of 13 games and had multiple interceptions in six games, including a season-high four at Rutgers. The only games Carolina did not pick off a pass were in losses to Virginia, Maryland and NC State. Eight different players had at least one interception in 2008, including Trimane Goddard, linebacker Mark Paschal, cornerback Kendric Burney, safety Deunta Williams, cornerback Charles Brown, linebacker Quan Sturdivant, linebacker Bruce Carter and defensive tackle Marvin Austin. Carolina established a single-season school record with four interception returns for touchdowns (Carter at Rutgers, Austin vs. Connecticut, Sturdivant vs. Notre Dame and Goddard vs. Boston College). The previous record of three was set in 1994. UNC also set a school record with 467 interception return yards. Carolina's 20 interceptions were the most since it had 20 in 1996.

Caralina 35, McNeese State 27
August 30, 2008
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -Brandon Tate put on a dazzling one-man shaw, scaring an an 82-yard punt return and putting North Caralina ahead for good with a 57-yard catch to help the Tar Heels hold off McNeese State 35-27 on Saturday.

Tate finished with a school-record 397 all-purpose yards for the Tar Heels, wha showed little else in their second season under Butch Davis. In a game suspended nearly two hours due to weather, they blew a 14-0 first-half lead and had to rally from a third-quarter deficit against a Football Championship Subdivision opponent.

For all the preseason aptimism that has abaunded here, Narth Caralina had ta rely almost solely on Tate's ability to weave through oncoming defenders or break free from the clutches of wauld-be tacklers an this night.

The senior started with a 56-yard return on the opening kickoff and had a 54-yard run that helped set up the Tar Heels' second touchdown. He also had a 38-yard punt return in the first quarter, finishing with 106 yards rushing and 93 yards receiving ta break the schaal record af 339 all-purpose yards set by Derrick Fenner in 1986. The 397 yards were second-most in Atlantic Coast Conference history.

Brooks Foster also had a touchdown catch for North Carolina, which compiled most of its 384 yards in the final 20 minutes. Shaun Draughn and Greg Little ran for fourth-quarter touchdowns that helped the Tar Heels stay in front.

Derrick Fourroux and Mark Fantenot ran for scores to lead the Cowboys, who scored 20 unanswered points after the game resumed. But after Fourroux's 2-yard score for the 20-14 third-quarter lead, the Tar Heels onswered by going to - who else? - Tate.

Facing a third-and-6 near midfield, T.J. Yates heaved the ball deep to Tate, who caught it in stride and raced into the end zone for a 21-20 lead with 4:35 left in the third quarter.

Tate later broke the school record in fitting fashion, taking a handoff to the right side, then breaking free from Joshua Ellison - who had a hold of Tate's collar - and reversing field for a 20-yard gain early in the fourth.

Ultimately, the only thing thot slowed Tate was the weather. Officials suspended the game due to lightning with North Carolina leading 14-0 on Foster's short TD cotch with 12:03 left in the first half. Both teams headed to the locker room before heavy rain arrived in a delay that lasted 1 hour, 48 minutes.

Caralina 44, Rutgers 12
September 11, 2008
Rutgers Stadium • Piscataway, N.J.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. (AP) -T.J. Yates threw three touchdown passes and the Tar Heels wan for the first time outside North Carolina since 2002, beating errar-prane Rutgers 44-12 in a natianally televised game that pitted Davis against his former pupil, Greg Schiano.

Yates found a wide-open Hakeem Nicks on touchdown passes af 9 and 11 yards and connected an a 69-yard scoring play with speedster Brandan Tate, wha also scared on a 12-yard end around

The Tar Heels intercepted faur passes, including three by starter Mike Teel. Linebacker Bruce Carter returned a bobbled pass 66 yards far a touchdown as the Tar Heels (2-0) handed Rutgers (0-2) its warst lass since a 56-5 lass ta Lauisville on Nov. 11, 2005. Freshman Jay Wooten added field goals of 43, 29 and 27 yards.

The victary was the Tar Heels' biggest since a 52-17 win over Duke in 2001.

The start is the best since 2000 for Narth Caralina, which is looking far its first winning season since 2001. The Tar Heels were 4-8 a year aga in Davis' first seasan.

In many ways, the Scarlet Knights looked like the Rutgers af old. They blew pass caverages on all three of Yates' TD passes, had a bad punt lead to a Narth Carolina score and saw their senior quarterback turn the ball over three times.

By the time the third quarter was over, North Caralina had a 38-6 lead and only a couple of thousand fans from the sellout crowd af 42,502 were on hand for a derisive cheer when Teel threw a fourth-quarter touchdown poss to Kevin Brock.

Davis, who hired Schiano as his defensive coordinator at Miami, saw his team improve markedly after struggling in the season opener against McNeese State.

Yates finished 14-of-22 for 221 yards and matched his career high with the three TD passes. Tate caught four passes for a career-best 138 yards. His 69-yard touchdown catch was the longest of his career. Nicks added six catches for 63 yards with the two TDs, tying his single-game high.

North Carolina took control of the game with 38 points in the second and third quarters. The Tar Heels scored on three stroight possessions in the second to take a 17-6 halftime lead.

Virginia Tech 20, Caralina 17
September 20, 2008
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -Dustin Keys kicked the go-ahead 45-yard field goal to cap Virginia Tech's comeback fram a twa-tauchdown deficit and beat North Caralina 20-17 in a matchup of Atlantic Coast Canference division favorites.

Kenny Lewis Jr. and Darren Evans each ran for second-half touchdowns for the Hakies (3-1, 2-0 ACC), wha struggled much af the game and trailed 17-3 midway through the third quarter before finding a way ta win their fifth straight in the series.

Virginia Tech managed just 268 total yards and converted only three of 16 third downs, but hung araund and taok advantage of their oppartunities ta get back in the game.

Brandon Tate and Greg Little each scared tauchdawns far the Tar Heels (2-1, 0-1), who had pointed to this game as their shot to prove they had arrived as a rising league power in Butch Davis' secand season.

Instead, Narth Caralina's players and fans got a painful reminder that the rebuilding project will nat be an avernight success.

Despite stuffing the Hokies at nearly every turn while their offense slowly but steadily maved the ball, the Tar Heels saw it all unravel quickly. They had 14 penalties for 121 yards - including a pair on third down to extend the Hakies' first TD drive - while cammitting four turnovers, miscues made worse when they lost quarterback T.J. Yates to a broken left ankle in the third quarter.

Little's 50-yard run up the middle gave North Carolina the 17-3 lead with 6:44 to play in the third, but the Hokies answered with a 13-play, 89-yard drive that ended with Evans' 10-yard run to make it 17-10. Then, after Little fumbled at North Carolina's 36-yard line, Virginia Tech capitalized again and tied it on Lewis' 11-yard run with 13:45 to go.

Finally, the Tar Heels cammitted a late-hit penalty an a punt return that set up Keys' go-aheod kick.

Yates, who was hurt while being sacked by Orion Martin, left the stodium briefly for X-roys before returning and watching the final minutes from a training table. That forced the Tar Heels to turn to redshirt freshman Mike Paulus, who threw an interceptian to end Narth Carolina's last best drive and threw another one on faurth down deep in his own end ta seal the game.

Paulus finished 3-for-8 for 23 yards, while Tyrod Taylor shoak off two interceptions to lead the Hokies' comeback before leaving the game with after injuring his onkle in the final period.

Caralina 28, Miami 24
September 27, 2008
Dalphin Stadium •
Miami Gardens, Fla.

MIAMI (AP) -Cameran Sextan threw a 14-yard touchdawn pass ta Braaks Foster with 46 seconds left, Trimane Goddard had twa interceptians in the final minutes, and North Carolina rallied fram an early 14-point deficit ta beat Miami 28-24.

Sexton - playing because North Carolina starter T.J. Yates will miss six weeks with a broken left ankle - relieved starter Mike Paulus early and completed 11 af 19 passes far 242 yards, including two fourth-quarter scores.

He found Hakeem Nicks with a 74-yard pass with 9 minutes remaining, then coolly found Foster in the right corner of the end zone in the final minute ta give Narth Caralina (3-1, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) its first lead of the day.

Miami had one more chance, getting the ball at its awn 31. Robert Marve found Kayne Farquharson for a 29-yard gain that taak the Hurricanes to the North Carolina 20 with 15 seconds remaining.

Marve nearly haoked up with Farquharson again on the final play of the game, but Goddard's second pick af the quarter sealed the Tar Heels' win. Farquharson had his hands on the ball in the end zane, yet Gaddard was the one who wound up with possession.

Marve threw three tauchdown passes for Miami (2-2, 0-1), and Graig Cooper rushed for 110 yards plus had a receiving TD for the Hurricanes, who lost to the Tar Heels for the secand straight seasan.

Down 24-14 midway through the fourth quarter after Marve cannected with Aldarius Jahnsan an a 4-yard touchdown pass, the Tar Heels went to work. Nicks caught the ball ahead af a diving Bruce Jahnsan for the first North Carolina touchdown of the final quarter, seeming to stun the Hurricanes a bit, and then Sexton delivered the perfect touch pass at the end.

It was a stirring turnaround, especially considering how the game started.

The Hurricanes needed only eight plays to go 89 yards - with Caoper rushing three times for 60 of them - on the opening drive, capped by Marve finding Farquharson with a 9-yard touchdown pass.

A special-teams blunder by the Tar Heels loter in the opening quarter gave Miami a two-touchdown edge.

Miami made it look easy in the first 15 minutes, outgaining North Carolina 127-24, limiting the Tar Heels to minus-4 yards rushing and less than two yards per play.

Suddenly, everything that went right in the first quarter suddenly stopped for Miomi.

Caralina 38, Cannecticut 12
October 4, 2008
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -Shaun Draughn rushed for a career-high 109 yards and a tauchdawn, defensive lineman Marvin Austin returned an interception 23 yards far another score and Narth Caralina rauted No. 24 Connecticut 38-12.

Bruce Carter blocked three punts, Matt Merletti fell on one of them for a touchdown and Draughn's 39-yard tauchdawn run started the game-breaking sequence that gave the Tar Heels their first win over a ranked team in three years.

Ryan Hauston had a 1-yard score and Cameron Sexton threw a 13-yard touchdown pass ta Hakeem Nicks for North Caralina (4-1), which overcame some shortcamings on the stat sheet by scoring 21 points off Husky mistakes. UConn outgained the Tar Heels 378-263 and had a 10-minute advantage in time of possession, but couldn't overcome three interceptions by new starter Zach Frazer.

Danald Brawn, the nation's leading rusher, ran for 161 yards--20 below his average--with a tauchdown far the Huskies (5-1). But 93 of those yards came in the fourth quarter, well after this one was decided.

Draughn, a former safety, taak a handaff fram Sexton midway through the third quarter and raced untouched up the middle to make it 24-6.

Frazer's third interception came about 2 minutes later, and sealed it. Frazer was being spun by defensive end E.J. Wilson and tried to thraw the ball away when Austin plucked it out of the air and jogged into the end zone.

Frazer completed 24 of 42 passes for 210 yards in place of injured starter Tyler Lorenzen, who's out with a broken right faot.

Making his first start since 2006, Sexton was 9-of-16 for 117 yards with an interception, but led the Tar Heels to their first nonconference victory over a Top 25 team since beating then-No. 17 Stonford in 1997. They had lost nine straight against ranked teoms since upsetting then-No. 19 Boston College in 2005.

Yet this was no upset: North Carolina entered as o seven-point favorite.

Still, UCann outgained the Tar Heels 169-107 in the first half, had the ball for nearly twice as long--and still trailed 17-3 because of mistakes by Frazer and the punt team.

The game was delayed for 22 minutes early in the third quarter when two banks of lights temporarily went dark.

Caralina 29, Natre Dame 24
October 11, 2008
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -Cameron Sexton scared on a leaping 4-yard keeper ta start the fourth quarter and Quan Sturdivant had a mamentum-changing 32-yard interception return to help the No. 22 Tar Heels beat the Fighting Irish 29-24, providing anather boost to coach Butch Davis' rebuilding effart.

The Tar Heels (5-1), off to their best start since going 8-0 in 1997, beat the Fighting Irish (4-2) far the first time since 1960.

Hakeem Nicks had nine catches for 141 yards and freshman walk-on Casey Barth kicked three field goals, helping North Carolina rally from an 11-paint first-half deficit.

The Tar Heels' offense failed to reach the end zone in the first half while their defense struggled to slaw Jimmy Clausen and the Natre Dame passing game. But their knack for farcing turnovers - four after halftime - was enough to help them hang on in a game that came down to a wild finish.

It was Notre Dame's first game in the state of North Carolina since unheralded sophamare Jae Mantana led a comeback win here in 1975.

The teams certainly provided a memorable finish, with Notre Dame reaching the North Carolina 7 in the final seconds befare officials ruled - after a review - that receiver Michael Floyd fumbled the ball in what appeared ta be a frantic attempted lateral. Trimane Gaddard recavered, giving the ball back to Narth Carolina for a joyous kneel-down with 3 seconds left.

Clausen threw far a career-best 383 yards - his third straight career game - and touchdowns to Golden Tate and Flayd that helped the Irish take a 17-9 halftime lead.

Notre Dame finished with 472 yards, but couldn't overcome two interceptions and two lost fumbles in the second half.

The Tar Heels went most of the way without big-play receiver and returner Brandon Tate, who sprained his right knee in the first quarter. Nicks picked up the slock with anather big doy against the Irish after tallying six catches for 171 yards and a score against them two years ago in South Bend. Converted safety Shaun Draughn added his second straight solid game, finishing with 91 yards rushing on 17 carries.

Sexton threw for 201 yards, but he made his biggest play with his feet, scrambling right on third down and jumping through a hit from Kyle McCarthy at the goal line for the 29-24 lead with 14:55 to play.

Virginia 16, Caralina 13 (OT)
October 18, 2008
Scott Stadium • Charlattesville, Va.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) -Cedric Peerman scored from two yards in overtime ta give Virginia a 16-13 win over No. 18 North Carolina.

Virginia (4-3, 2-1, ACC) trailed 10-3 with 2:18 ta play, but Peerman scored on a twa-yard run with 47 seconds left in regulation and Robert Randolph's conversian was barely good to send the game inta avertime.

Casey Barth kicked a 28-yard field goal to begin OT, and Narth Carolina (5-2, 1-2) led 13-10.

Tight end John Phillips caught a 19-yard pass from Marc Verica ta put the ball on the Tar Heels' four. Peerman ran for two yards and then two more for the winning score.

Narth Caralina, which won its previous three games and was off to its best start since winning eight straight games to start 1997, was without key playmaker Brandon Tate, who suffered torn ligaments in his right knee in last week's win over Notre Dame. He was last for the seasan.

Sophomore Shaun Draughn had 13 carries for 80 yards in the first quarter. He hod 140 yards--the third straight game he's rushed for more than 100.

Virginia, held to just 18 yards in the first quarter and 59 in the first half, got a fortunate break early in the third quarter. Sexton's short pass rolled right into the arms of nose tackle Nick Jenkins for an interception.

The Cavaliers took over on the Tar Heel 34, but had to settle for a 37-yard field goal by Randolph.

On the Tar Heels' next possession, Nicks caught a pass near midfield and fumbled. After Chase Minnifield recovered the ball on Virginia's 45, the Cavaliers were able to drive to the North Carolina 23.

Randolph attempted a 39-yard field goal, but it was blocked.

Virginio drove to the North Carolina 39, but its drive stalled, and was forced to punt. The Tar Heels toak over on their own five-yard line with 9:51 to play and made three third-down plays--two receptions by Nicks and a 10-yard run by Draughn to keep the ball away from the Cavaliers. Nicks, who leads the ACC in receiving added a 23-yarder after North Carolina called its final timeout with the ball on the Virginia 42.

Barth's 40-yard field goal with 2:22 remaining gave the Tar Heels their 10-3 lead. The Tar Heels' 15-play drive losted 7:29.

Getting the ball back with 2:18 to play, the Cavaliers drove 82 yards in 1:35, Peerman scored on a two-yard run, and Randolph lined up for the extra point. His attempt was tipped and barely made it over the crossbar for a 10-10 tie with 47 seconds to play.

Caralina 45, Bastan Callege 24
October 25, 2008
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -Hakeem Nicks had three second-quarter touchdown catches and ran for a score in the fourth quarter ta help Narth Caralina beat No. 23 Boston Callege 45-24.

Trimane Goddard added an interceptian return far a touchdown far the Tar Heels (6-2, 2-2 ACC), who fell behind 10-0 in the first quarter before roaring back with a dominating perfarmance that made them bawl-eligible for the first time in four years. The Tar Heels also got a short tauchdawn run from Ryan Haustan after a long interception return by Kendric Burney, who had two of the team's three picks of BC quarterback Chris Crane.

Nicks finished with eight catches far 139 yards - with 127 yards coming in a 24-point second quarter - and three rushes for 31 yards, proving ta be a matchup the Eagles (5-2, 2-2) had na answer for all day. He had TD catches of 26, 40 and 43 yards ta ga with his 12-yard rushing scare.

Cameron Sexton threw far 238 yards, while Shaun Draughn had 64 yards rushing in a 352-yard day for the offense. That was more than enough against Boston College, which finished with 244 total yards behind a shaky performance from Crane.

Crane threw for 204 yards and two touchdowns, while the Eagles got just 40 yards rushing.

Boston College's defense got the Eagles aff to a fast start, with Ran Brace sacking Sexton on North Carolina's third play and forcing a fumble thot Kevin Akins scaaped up and returned 13 yards for a 10-0 lead with 6:18 left in the opening period.

There were few highlights for BC fram there. Crane threw a short TD pass just before halftime, but didn't direct another scoring drive until the final minutes. By then, North Carolina had put the game far out of reach.

Sexton connected with Nicks 31 seconds after Crane's TD toss to make it 24-17 at the break. Then Burney picked off Crane on the Eagles' first possession of the second half and returned it to BC's 1-yard line to set up Houston's score on the next play.

Goddard essentially closed the door, jumping in front of Crane's pass for Brandon Rabinson near midfield and going 51 yards for the score and a 38-17 lead on the first play of the fourth quarter.

Caralina 28, Geargia Tech 7
November 8, 2008
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N C. (AP) -North Caralina's defense hung in against Georgia Tech's triple-aptian attack long enough for the offense ta finally get moving Ryan Haustan ran for a pair of fourth-quarter touchdawns ta help North Carolina beat the 22nd-ranked Yellaw Jackets 28-7, ensuring their first winning season in seven years.

Cameron Sexton added two touchdown passes far the Tar Heels (7-2, 3-2 ACC), while Hakeem Nicks had a touchdown catch and set the school recard for career receiving yardage in the final period.

North Carolina also used a strang 1-2 rushing attack with Haustan and Shaun Draughn, and converted a pair of fumbles into touchdowns to break the game open late.

It was clear the Tar Heels were prepared; Georgia Tech couldn't sustain a scoring drive nar push deeper than the Tar Heels' 23-yard line until Jonathan Dwyer's 85-yard touchdown run - the longest rush allowed by North Carolina - with 6 minutes left. By then, however, the Tar Heels already had a 21-0 lead.

Dwyer, the league's No. 2 rusher, ran for 157 yards for the Yellow Jackets (7-3, 4-3), wha finished with 326 yords rushing and 423 total yards.

But they did themselves in with several miscues that kept them scoreless until the game was out of reach - none bigger than the back-to-back turnovers in the third and fourth quarters. There were alsa two missed field gaals and two failed fourth-and-short conversion attempts in the first half.

North Carolina's offense didn't give its defense much help, getting Sexton's touchdawn pass to Zack Pianalto on the opening drive but little else for the next two-plus quarters. Thot is, until Georgio Tech's Roddy Jones muffed a punt that was recovered by Matt Merletti at the Yellow Jackets 30 late in the third quarter.

North Caralina converted quickly, getting an 8-yard run from Draughn to help set up Houston's 2-yard score that made it 14-0 with 13:57 to play.

Then, Robert Quinn stripped Jaybo Shaw on a keeper and Paschal recovered the fumble on the ensuing passession. Houston converted again, running four straight times before bouncing off a hit from Morgan Burnett at the goalline for a 3-yard score that pushed the lead to 21 points with 10:49 left.

Draughn finished with 90 yards rushing and Houston had a career-high 74 to offset a shaky passing day from Sexton, who went just 7-for-16 for 100 yards.

But Sexton found Nicks for an easy 31-yard score on fourth dawn with 4:11 left to seal it, and Nicks set the receiving record with a 22-yard catch a little later from T.J. Yates, making his first oppearance in relief from a broken ankle suffered in September.

Maryland 17, Carolina 15
November 15, 2008
Byrd Stadium • College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, MD. (AP) -Ployingan o wet field, focing o tough North Coralino defense and starting 82 yards from the end zone, Maryland desperotely needed o score to keep olive its run af success ogoinst ronked teoms.

Chris Turner made it happen, engineering a dramatic 19-play drive thot pravided the Terrapins with a 17-15 victary over the No. 17 Tor Heels.

Obi Egekeze kicked a 26-yard field gool with 1:42 left to cap a 73-yard morch thot losted nearly 9 minutes ond praduced the anly points af the secand holf.

An 18-yard completion from Turner to Ronnie Tyler an o third-ond-11 fram the Maryland 44 helped, but the key wos an impromptu 9-yord run by Turner on o fourth-and-5 at the Carolina 32.

Da'Rel Scatt ran far 129 yards ond a touchdawn and Davin Meggett had 86 rushing yards far Maryland (7-3, 4-2). The Tar Heels (7-3, 3-3) dropped out of first place in the Caastal Divisian and remained winless at Maryland since 1997.

North Carolina converted only one of 11 third downs and finished with anly 75 yards rushing. It was their third loss by three points or fewer.

After Egekeze's late field gaal, Cameran Sextan's bid to bring the Tar Heels back ended with an interceptian by Jamari McCallaugh in the final minute.

Sexton went 10-for-24 for 166 yards and took the blame far an offense that produced only 11 first downs.

Narth Caralina missed a chance ta increase its anepoint lead late in the third quarter when Casey Barth's 28-yard field gaal attempt hit the left upright. A 44-yard pass from running back Shaun Draughn to Brooks Foster preceded the errant kick.

The Tar Heels got the ball back when a fumble by second-string quarterback Josh Portis was recovered by Quintan Caples at the Maryland 33, but three straight incomplete passes led to a punt.

A back-and-farth first half, played at times in heavy rain, ended with North Carolina up 15-14.

The game's first points came on a Maryland mistake: a snap aver the head af punter Travis Boltz, who dived on the ball in the end zone for a 42-yard loss and a safety.

After Barth added a field goal, Scott capped a 76-yard drive with a 3-yard tauchdawn run ta put the Terrapins up 7-5.

Two plays later, Sextan lafted a pass an the run that cleared leaping defensive back Kenny Tate and landed in the arms of Cooter Arnold, who completed the 59-yard play far his first career touchdown.

NC State 41, Caralina 10
November 22, 2008
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -Russell Wilsan threw for two touchdowns ond had o key run in the third quarter ta set up another score, and NC Stote beot the 25th-ranked Tor Heels 41-10.

Toilbock Jomelle Eugene ron for two touchdowns and Andre Brown ran for another for N.C. Stote (5-6, 3-4 Atlantic Coast Conference).

NC Stote scared 21 paints in the third quarter to blow it open, earning its biggest win in the series since a 40-6 victory in 1989. N.C. Stote finished with a seoson-high 466 tatol yords while holding North Carolina to a season-low 203, handing the Tar Heels (7-4, 3-4) their most lopsided loss under second-yeor cooch Butch Dovis.

Wilson finished with o career-high 279 yards passing to go with 50 yards rushing. The redshirt freshman also extended his interceptian-free streak ta a schaal-recard 203 passes, part af a turnover-free day against a defense that has been one of the nation's best at farcing mistakes.

Instead, it was North Carolina giving it away.

North Caralina cammitted six turnavers - twa on fumbles by starting tailback Shaun Draughn in the opening 5 minutes - and got no spark fram the return af quarterback T.J. Yates ta the starting lineup.

North Carolina's previous three losses were by a cambined eight paints.

Yates started all 12 games last year and the first three this season before breaking his left ankle against Virginia Tech in September. One-time third-stringer Cameron Sexton had won four of six starts since, but Davis apened campetitian this week after Sextan's shaky performance in last weekend's loss at Maryland.

Yates campleted 10 af 22 passes far 116 yards and an interception before Davis opted for Sexton midway through the fourth quarter. By then, the Tar Heels trailed 34-10 - thaugh it might nat have mattered wha started at quarterback.

The Walfpack managed ta canvert only one af Draughn's early fumbles into a field goal and led 10-3 at halftime on Wilson's 17-yard TD pass to George Bryan. Then, leading 17-10, N.C. State put the game aut of reach.

With his mability buying time against Narth Caralina's pass rush, Wilson completed passes to convert on third and faurth dawn befare running 26 yards ta set up Brown's 2-yard scoring run that made it 24-10.

Then, a play after Richard Quinn fumbled away the ensuing kickoff, Wilson connected with Owen Spencer for a 21-yard touchdown over the middle to push the lead ta 31-10 with 1:14 left in the third quarter.

Caralina 28, Duke 20
November 29, 2008
Wallace-Wade Stadium • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) -A near-perfect T.J. Yotes threw three touchdawn posses, ond Trimane Goddord intercepted a pass in the clasing seconds ta seol North Carolino's 28-20 victary over Duke.

Shoun Draughn rushed far 110 yords and a touchdown and caught onother scare from Yates to help Narth Carolina (8-4, 4-4 ACC) snap a two-game lasing streak ond beot the Blue Devils (4-8, 1-7) far the 18th time in 19 years.

Thaddeus Lewis led Duke into the red zone in the finol minute before his fourth-down poss went stroight to Goddord at the 4.

Yates completed 15 af his first 16 posses and finished 15-of-19 for 190 yords with scoring passes cavering 11 yards to Draughn, 25 yards ta Hakeem Nicks and 32 yards to Richard Quinn. He wan as a starter for the first time since Sept. 11 at Rutgers after after missing five games with a broken left ankle suffered a week later against Virginia Tech.

Lewis finished 34-of-49 for 278 yards with an 8-yard touchdown pass to Eran Riley. Vincent Rey returned a fumble 36 yards far a score for Duke, which ended David Cutcliffe's first season with five straight losses after starting 4-3.

The Blue Devils hove last five straight in the rivalry for the Victory Bell, the rolling trophy that is annually spray-painted with the winning team's shade af blue.

One passessian after Duke made it a one-point game, Yates helped the Tar Heels retain ownership of the trophy when he faked a handaff, ralled right and hit a wide-open Quinn in stride. The tight end rumbled - and then spun - into the end zone with 1:16 left in the third.

Narth Carolina - which was favored by a touchdown - didn't take its first lead until late in the second quarter, when Yates put the Tar Heels up 21-14 with a deep ball to Nicks.

The receiver pulled in the ball behind Glenn Williams near the back af the end zane far his school record-tying ninth TD catch. Nicks finished with three catches far 38 yards and became the school's first player with 1,000 yards receiving in a season.

Duke closed to 21-17 at halftime an Jae Surgan's career-lang 55-yard field goal on the final play, then made it 21-20 on Nick Maggia's 27-yard kick an the first series of the second half.

GEORGE BARCLAY, GUARD, 1934

Barclay was Carolina's first football All-America. The 5-11, 185-pound guard and linebacker was a three-year standout for Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A fine blocker and an extraordinary tackler, Barclay lined up in the offensive interior next to tackle Jim Tatum. He was captain of the 1934 team which went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as head coach at Carolina for three seasons, from 1953 to 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK, END, 1937

A 185-pound end, Bershak was a two-way performer for the Tar Heels. He was a fine receiver, but was even better on defense. He played two years for Carl Snavely and one for Ray Wolf. Bershak, an honor student, was also a basketball starter. He was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

STEVE MARONIC, TACKLE, 1938

Maronic was a two-way tackle for the Tar Heels and team co-captain in 1938. He was an "iron man," playing almost 60 minutes in every game that season. He turned in two of his best performances in front of the New York media against NYU at Yankee Stadium and Fordham at the Polo Grounds. Those games solidified his All-America chances. Maronic also was a place-kicker and hit 13 straight PATs in his final season.

PAUL SEVERIN, END, 1939-40

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CHARLIE JUSTICE, HALFBACK, 1948-49

Twice a runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, Justice is rated by many as the best all-around player in the history of Southern football. He was a true triple-threat performer, leading Carolina in rushing, passing and punting from 1946 to 1949. He sparked Tar Heel teams which appeared in the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. He was the school's all-time total offense leader with 4,883 yards for more than 40 years and also ranks as the Tar Heels' fourth-leading career scorer, eighth-leading rusher and 18th-leading passer. He had a career punting average of 42.6 and averaged 14.2 yards on punt returns and 26.6 yards on kickoff returns. In 1948 he received the national player of the year award from the Washington Touchdown Club and was the recipient of the Walter Camp Memorial Trophy. Justice is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

KEN POWELL, DEFENSIVE END, 1949

Powell teamed with Art Weiner to give UNC a formidable pass receiving threat in the post-Wold War II "Justice Era." He was outstanding in the 1947 Sugar Bowl against Georgia and earned first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1949 by NEA. That organization named Powell to its All-America Team on defense, the first time it selected All-Americas on both offense and defense. He finished his career with 23 receptions for 324 yards and three touchdowns.

ART WEINER, END, 1948-49

A great all-around end, Weiner led the nation in receiving in 1949 with 52 catches. He had been seventh nationally in receiving the previous year with 31 catches. His 106 career catches are the ninth-most in school history and until 1997 he held the UNC career record with 18 touchdown receptions. Many remember him best for a game-saving defensive play on the last snap of the 1949 Duke game. Weiner was named the most outstanding lineman in the Senior Bowl. Weiner was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

IRV HOLDASH, CENTER, 1950

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

AL GOLDSTEIN, END, 1958

An outstanding two-way end, Goldstein earned All-America honors in 1958 by making 24 catches for 490 yards, averaging an amazing 20.4 yards per reception. Adept at making the seemingly impossible catch, he had a 68-yard TD reception at Virginia. He also starred defensively and had a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown against Maryland.

BOB LACEY, END, 1963

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

DON McCAULEY, HALFBACK, 1970

McCauley shattered the Carolina and the Atlantic Coast Conference record books with a dazzling senior season in 1970. He rushed for 1,720 yards and scored 21 touchdowns, setting marks which still stand. His 1,720 yards was an all-time collegiate high at the time, breaking O.J. Simpson's NCAA record. McCauley led the nation in all-purpose running that season. He was twice the ACC Player of the Year and still ranks fifth in carcer rushing at UNC. He had a lengthy professional career with the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002.

Don McCouley is corried off the field by the Kenon Stodium foithful following his legendory finol home gome performonce in 1970. McCouley rushed for 279 yords ond scored five touchdowns in o 59-42 win over the Blue Devils.

RON RUSNAK, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1972

Rusnak was a unanimous All-America selection in 1972 as Carolina posted an 11-1 record. At 6-2 and 220 pounds, he did not have the size to play professional football, but Rusnak was a great college player. He was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice, starting on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. In 1972 he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1974

Huff was a key man on one of the most explosive units in Carolina history. He was the leader of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels accumulate 4,691 yards, at the time a school record, in 1974. The 6-4, 255-pound Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Sparked in great part by his play up front, the Tar Heels had two backs rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season. Huff was the third player selected in the NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts.

CHARLES WADDELL, TIGHT END, 1974

Waddell rates as one of the best all-around athletes in Carolina history. He won three football letters, two in basketball and one in track. Not only was he a fine receiver at tight end, but he was also a dynamic blocker. He set a school single-game record in 1974 with three touchdown catches against Clemson. He had 41 career catches for 518 yards and seven TDs. His professional career was cut short by a knee injury.

DEE HARDISON, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1977

A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Hardison played on one of the top defensive teams in Carolina history. UNC led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. The Tar Heels led the ACC in total, rushing, passing and scoring defense. A big reason was the play of Hardison, a 6-3, 252-pound tackle who dominated the line of scrimmage all season. After leaving Carolina he began a lengthy NFL career with the Buffalo Bills.

RICKY BARDEN, DEFENSIVE BACK, 1979

One of the top defensive backs in Carolina history, Barden was a repeat All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 1978 and 1979. Barden made nine career interceptions. He started at cornerback for two years and then was shifted to strong safety for his final year where he broke up nine passes and was the third-leading tackler on the team. His 156 yards on interception returns are the third-most in school history.

Lowrence Toylor dominoted college footboll in 1980, eorning ACC ployer of the yeor honors.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1980

From midway in his junior season until the end of his senior year in 1980, Taylor dominated the football field as few defensive players ever had. Now regarded as the finest outside linebacker in the history of the game, Taylor had a remarkable senior season which featured a school-record 16 quarterback sacks and six other tackles for losses. In Carolina's only close games in an 11-1 season, Taylor made the game-saving defensive plays against Texas Tech and Clemson. He was a runaway selection as ACC Player of the Year.

RON WOOTEN, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1980

Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He was the leading vote-getter in the offensive line on the All-ACC team. He was one of the leaders of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels lead the ACC in total offense and which also helped produce two 1,000-yard backs. He went on to become a starting guard with New England in the NFL.

DAVID DRECHSLER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1981-82

Drechsler became Carolina's first two-time All-America since Charlie Justice and Art Weiner when he earned first-team honors in 1981 and 1982. He played every position in the offensive interior during his Carolina career, but settled in at guard. The 6-4, 253-pound Drechsler played on Tar Heel teams which were 37-10-1 and were unbeaten in four bowl games. He also was the winner of a post-graduate scholarship from the NCAA. Drechsler went on to become a starter with the Green Bay Packers until a back injury forced him to give up the game.

WILLIAM FULLER, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1982-83

Fuller is one of just six Carolina players to win first-team All-America honors twice. Although powerfully built at 6-3 and 250 pounds, Fuller's greatest asset was his quickness. He used that quickness to make 13 tackles for losses and six sacks in 1982 and 17 tackles for losses with five sacks the following year. He was the only unanimous choice on the 1983 All-ACC team and is one of just three defensive linemen ever to make All-ACC for three straight years.

BRIAN BLADOS, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1983

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL draft.

HARRIS BARTON, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1986

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

PAT CROWLEY, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1989

Crowley was a standout offensive guard and a leader of the first of Mack Brown's teams. He won first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 1987, 1988 and 1989 and became only the second offensive lineman in conference history to win three all-league honors (Virginia's Jim Dombrowski was the other). He started every game in his college career and helped open the way for a pair of 1,000-yard backs (Derrick Fenner in 1986 and Kennard Martin in 1988). He is one of three Tar Heels to be named first-team All-ACC in three seasons.

BRACEY WALKER, FREE SAFETY, 1993

The first Carolina defensive back to ever receive first-team All-America honors by a major organization, Walker burst onto the scene in 1992 when he was one of the stars of the Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State. Walker blocked two punts in that game, returned one of them for a tying touchdown and set up the game-winning interception with a jarring collision. He was the Defensive MVP of the Peach Bowl. In 1993 he led the Tar Heels with 100 tackles and was the co-leading vote-getter on the All-ACC first team defense. He also blocked four more punts, two of which were recovered in the end zone by Carolina, and was named the National Special Teams Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

MARCUS JONES, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1995

Jones became the first Tar Heel to earn consensus first-team All-America honors since Harris Barton in 1986 and the first defensive lineman since William Fuller in 1982-83. Jones had 25 career sacks and finished with 222 tackles. That included 46 behind the line of scrimmage. He broke Lawrence Taylor's school record for sacks and held that mark until Greg Ellis broke the record in 1997. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1995 and earned first-team All-ACC honors for the second straight season. He became the first Tar Heel defender to repeat all-conference selections since Tim Goad in 1986-87. As a senior he had a career-high 94 tackles, despite facing constant double- and triple-team efforts. He registered an ACC-leading 19 tackles for losses for 74 yards, seven of which were quarterback sacks. He was hampered in the first half of the season by a knee sprain. Over the last five weeks, however, he averaged 10.8 tackles per game and had 16 tackles for losses for 65 yards, including six sacks for 41 yards, and pressured the quarterback 13 times. Quite fittingly, Jones capped his career by sacking Arkansas quarterback Barry Lunney on the Razorbacks' final offensive play in Carolina's 20-10 win in the 1995 Carquest Bowl.

Marcus Jones pasted seven sacks and 19 tackles for losses in 1995 en route ta the ACC Defensive Player af the Year honors.

Harris Bartan was an excellent student-athlete ot Caralina fram 1983-86. He was a first-round draft pick af the Son Froncisca 49ers and was chased far a post-graduate by the NFL.

DRE' BLY, CORNERBACK, 1996-97

The first freshman in ACC history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors, Bly became just the fifth freshman in NCAA history to be named to the Associated Press All-America first team in 1996. He was also a first-team All-America selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and Athlon Sports and a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award as the National Defensive Back of the Year. He earned Atlantic Coast Conference first-team honors and was the league's Rookie of the Year. He is the only UNC freshman to earn first-team All-America honors. He made two second-half interceptions, broke up two passes and had seven tackles against West Virginia in the 1997 Gator Bowl. Bly led the nation in interceptions and interceptions per game. He set an ACC single-season interceptions record with 11, one more than Bob Sullivan of Maryland had in 10 games in 1965. The Chesapeake, Va. native had three multi-interception games, including three against Georgia Tech, two at Florida State and two at Virginia. In 1997, Bly became the first player in UNC history to repeat consensus first-team All-America honors. He had five interceptions, including one he returned for a touchdown in a comeback win over Virginia. In 1998, he set the ACC all-time record with his 20th interception (not counting the two he had in the Gator Bowl). He was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors on three occasions.

JULIUS PEPPERS, DEFENSIVE END, 2000-01

One of the top two-sport athletes in Carolina history, Peppers became the first Tar Heel defensive player to win a national college football award by winning both the Lombardi Trophy as the nation's top lineman and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defensive player. In just three seasons, Peppers finished second at Carolina in career sacks and tackles for loss. In 2000, he led the nation with 15 sacks and established a school record with 24 tackles for losses. The following year, Peppers led a defense that finished first in the ACC and 15th in the nation in total defense. He became just the second Tar Heel and the first since Lawrence Taylor to earn unanimous All-America honors. A forward on Carolina's basketball team, Peppers averaged 7.1 points and 4.0 rebounds to help the Tar Heels claim a share of the 2001 regular-season ACC championship. He was the second overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

Charlie Justice was more than just a great football player. He was a bonafide superstar...a hero...a legend in his own time. He had an impact on his home state that no other athlete had ever had before or few have had since.

During his four years in Chapel Hill, from 1946 to 1949, Justice helped guide the Tar Heels to three major bowls. For one week during the 1948 season Carolina was ranked as the nation's No. 1 college football team. The Tar Heels ended that year rated third, the best finish in school history.

It is no wonder then he was held in great esteem by everyone in the state. Certainly, the time was right for a hero like Charlie Justice. World War II had just ended and people wanted to turn their attention to more pleasant things. They wanted someone to help them forget the trauma they had just suffered. So they looked for heroes and they found Charlie Justice.

In his book, They Made the Bell Tower Chime, Bob Quincy summed up Charlie Justice's college carcer quite succinctly. An excerpt is repeated here:

The Justice era of 1946-49 was the most exciting in Carolina's football history. Charlie was the ringleader of a circus of thrills. He set the pace, but his backing was superb.

The Tar Heels operated from the single wing with the kinds of variations that at times resembled the Harlem Globetrotters' pre-game ball-handling act. The four seasons netted 32 victories, seven losses and two deadlocks, plus three major bowl appearances.

The 170-pound Justice was one of the nation's most sought-after players when he enrolled at Carolina. Some called him the hottest property in the history of football at that time. He had been a standout at Asheville's Lee Edwards High, leading the Maroons to two unbeaten seasons. He was All-Southern two years at Asheville, and as a member of the Shrine Bowl football team in 1942 he scored three touchdowns against South Carolina, a record that still stands.

The Navy became home for Charlie during the war years, and he became a phantom on a pro-studded Bainbridge Navy Squad. After two years of romping for Bainbridge against opponents across the country, he was a target for pro offers from the Philadelphia Eagles and Washington.

Charlie wanted an education, and scouts stayed in pursuit. He chose Chapel Hill after seriously considering South Carolina and Duke. An off-hand remark by Snavely—"I hope he comes out for football"—became a classic understatement.

In the Virginia game his freshman year he gained 170 yards in 17 carries with runs of 18, 40, and 56 yards. He had seen little practice because of a leg injury, but the Cavaliers were certain he carried a spare appendage.

Choo Choo (he acquired the name at Bainbridge when a gob remarked, "He runs along just like a choo choo train,") was excitement. He was all eagerness on the sidelines and all business when he moved into the tailback slot. He thrived on duty, and he was a master of the quick kick, a devastating rusher, a good passer, and a fake artist who could charm a cobra.

Jack Fitch, a thick-legged back who occasionally shared duty with Justice when not playing on the wing, sized up Charlie's style by noting, "Justice has the ability to be running at full speed, stop suddenly, and then be back at full speed almost instantly. He was never regarded as fast in terms of a track man. He had a change of pace that couldn't be matched, and he knew how to follow blockers as well as any back I've ever watched."

The Snavely system called for a spinning fullback, fakes and counter fakes, fullback pass plays and reverses. It was a dashing brand of football made more exciting by players' ability and maturity to accept Snavely's often complicated maneuvers.

A book, "Choo Choo", documents the career of Charlie Justice. He was a folk hero and deserved the special treatment. The great Benny Goodman and the late Johnny Long recorded the Campbell-Beebe song, "All The Way Choo Choo." It sold by the thousands.

Typical of Justice was the Georgia game of 1948. He scored three times against the Bulldogs in a 21-14 triumph, the climax being an 84-yard punt return. At mid-way point that season, the Tar Heels were ranked No. 1 in the nation.

Justice erased more records than a company of auditors during his four years at UNC. He scored 234 points and passed or ran for 64 touchdowns. As a ball carrier he accumulated 2,634 yards.

His total offense record of 4,883 yards lasted for 45 years until quarterback Jason Stanicek broke the mark in 1994. Justice, graciously, was on hand to congratulate Stanicek.

Justice seemed to peak when the traditional games were being played. He led the Tar Heels to four straight wins over Duke. He was an All-America mention as a freshman and made many of the major teams as a junior and as a senior. He was runnerup for the Heisman Trophy to Doak Walker of SMU in 1949.

Charlie's finest moment came in the College All-Star Game of 1950 at Chicago's Soldier Field. He was voted the MVP of the game for good reason. The All-Stars walloped the Philadelphia Eagles, led by Steve Van Buren, 17-7. Justice gained 133 yards individually, or 48 more than the Eagles posted as a team. He set up a touchdown on a 60-yard pass from Eddie LeBaron.

Justice passed away in Cherryville on October 17, 2003. He was 79. The next day, Carolina played Arizona State at Kenan Stadium and the number 22 was painted at the 22-yard line in Justice's honor.

A stotue of legendory Tor Heel Chorlie "Choo Choo" Justice was dedicated in 2004.

Twenty-six former University of North Carolina football players have been honored in a special fashion as their names and jersey numbers have been placed on the facade of Kenan Stadium's upper deck. The men honored include five who have already had their jersey numbers retired, Carolina's consensus first-team All-Americas and any athlete who was named Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year. Consensus All-Americas are those players who made the majority of the first-team selections in any given year. In 2003, the Athletics Council and Athletic Director Dick Baddour voted to also honor five first-team Associated Press All-Americas and two players who were among the ACC's greatest 50 football players.

GEORGE BARCLAY #99

A guard and linebacker from 1932 to 1934, whose number has been retired. He was the school's first football All-America and is a member of the state of North Carolina's Sports Hall of Fame. A guard and linebacker at 5-11, 185 pounds, Barclay was a standout for three seasons under coaches Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A tremendous blocker and ferocious tackler, he was captain of the 1934 team that went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as UNC's head coach from 1953 until 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK #59

A great two-way end from 1935 to 1937 who was a consensus All-America in 1937. His number also has been retired. Bershak was a brilliant defender and his team's top receiver. He also was a starter on the basketball team and an honor student. Bershak was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

BILL SUTHERLAND #46

A blocking back on the 1946 Sugar Bowl team, whose number has been retired. He died in an auto accident after his freshman year, stunning his teammates and Coach Carl Snavely. Sutherland was named one of the Tar Heels' three captains for what would have been his sophomore season and Snavely worked to ensure that his number would be retired.

CHARLIE JUSTICE #22

One of the most famous and popular athletes in the history of the state. Justice was a consensus All-America and twice runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. During his four seasons, 1946-49, Carolina went to the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. A single-wing tailback, he still holds many of the school's total offense records. In addition, he was a sensational punter and kick returner. He was the 1948 National Player of the Year.

Kelvin Bryont wos one of eight Tor Heels selected to the ACC's Top 50 teom in 2002.

ART WEINER #50

An outstanding two-way end from 1946 to 1949, whose number has been retired. Weiner won All-America honors in 1948 and 1949 and was the nation's leading receiver as a senior. He teamed with the legendary Charlie Justice to form perhaps the most potent offensive duo in school history. Voted the top lineman in the Senior Bowl, Weiner is a member of the National Football Hall of Fame. He is still ninth in UNC receptions with 106.

DANNY TALBOTT #10

A star quarterback from 1964 to 1966 and the 1965 ACC Player of the Year under Head Coach Jim Hickey. Talbott led the league in total offense and scoring that season. He had 318 yards of total offense in one game against Georgia, at the time a school record.

DON MCCAULEY #23

The ACC Player of the Year as a junior and senior and a consensus All-America in 1970, his final season. McCauley was the first of Carolina's NCAA-record 23 backs to rush for 1,000 yards. He twice led the ACC in rushing with 1,092 yards in 1969 and 1,720 in 1970. That latter total at the time broke O.J. Simpson's single-season NCAA record. He also led the nation in all-purpose running as a senior and his 126 points that year still is the league record.

RON RUSNAK #62

An offensive guard on three bowl teams from 1970 to 1972 who won unanimous All-America honors in his senior season. At 6-2, 220 pounds, Rusnak wasn't as big as some linemen, but had great technique. He was the cornerstone of the offensive front on the 1972 team, which went 11-1. Rusnak was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. He won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1972 as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF #68

A three-year starter at offensive guard from 1972 to 1974 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Huff was a dynamic blocker at 6-4 and 250 pounds. He was the key figure on the 1974 line which helped Carolina boast a pair of 1,000-yard backs and lead the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring. Led by Huff, UNC accumulated 4,691 yards, at the time a school record. The Tar Heels were fifth nationally in total offense and ninth in scoring that season. Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference and was the third player selected overall in the 1974 NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts.

MIKE VOIGHT #44

A hard-running tailback from 1973 to 1976 who was the ACC Player of the Year as both a junior and senior. Voight is second in Carolina history in rushing with 3,971 yards and third in scoring with 254 points. He had three 1,000-yard seasons and twice was the top ground-gainer in the ACC. In 1976 he scored 110 points and ran for 1,407 yards, including 261 in his final game —a dramatic 39-38 shootout with Duke.

DEE HARDISON #71

A defensive tackle from 1974 to 1977 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Hardison was the star of one of Carolina's greatest defenses in his final year. He dominated the line of scrimmage all season long as the Tar Heels led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. Carolina also topped the ACC in total, rushing and pass defense that year. No team would lead the league in all four again until Florida State in its 1993 national championship season.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR #98

An outside linebacker from 1977 to 1980 who is regarded as the greatest player of all time at that position. Taylor was a consensus All-America and the ACC Player of the Year in 1980. He had a Carolina-record 16 quarterback sacks that season for losses totaling 127 yards. Sparked by his play, the Tar Heels went 11-1 in 1980 and won the ACC championship.

WILLIAM FULLER #95

A defensive lineman from 1980 to 1983 who was a consensus All-America as a senior. Also honored as a first-team All-America as a junior, he is one of only six Tar Heel players to be named first-team All-America twice. Fuller, who utilized his tremendous quickness to slice through offensive lines, had 22 tackles for losses in both 1981 and 1983. He is one of only three defensive linemen ever to make the All-ACC team three times.

ETHAN HORTON #12

The Associated Press ACC Player of the Year as a senior, Horton rushed for 1,247 yards in 1984 after a 1,107-yard performance in 1983. He was named the game's co-MVP in UNC's 1981 Gator Bowl win over Arkansas and was the MVP of the 1982 Sun Bowl.

MARCUS JONES #71

A defensive end/tackle from 1992 to 1995 who was a consensus All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. Jones had 24 career quarterback sacks to break Lawrence Taylor's school record. A two-time first-team All-ACC selection, Jones led a Tar Heel defense which had the ACC's No. 1 rated total defense in 1995. He finished his career with 222 tackles, including 46 for losses. Jones helped Carolina to four straight bowl invitations and wins in the 1993 Peach and 1995 Carquest Bowls.

GREG ELLIS #87

A defensive end from 1994 to 1997, Ellis is UNC's all-time leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS #41

An outside linebacker from 1994 to 1997, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in '97, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

DRE' BLY #31

The Chesapeake, Va., native is the only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to earn first-team All-America honors in three different seasons. Bly became the first freshman defensive player in college football history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors in 1996. When he repeated consensus honors in 1997, he became the first two-time consensus All-America in UNC football history. In 1998, he set the all-time ACC record for interceptions with 20 and was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly led the nation as a freshman with 11 interceptions in the regular season and added two more pass thefts in the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia. Bly was named first-team All-America in 1996 by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, the Football Writers and the Walter Camp Foundation. In 1997, Bly added five more interceptions and was named All-America by the Associated Press, the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers and Football News.

Amas Lawrence is the anly ACC player ta rush far 1,000 yards in faur cansecutive seasans.

JULIUS PEPPERS, #49

A unanimous All-America selection in 2001, Peppers won the 2001 Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman. He also won the Chuck Bednarik Award as the nation's top overall defensive player, earned All-America honors in 2000 and was a two-time first-team All-ACC selection. Peppers ranks second at UNC and sixth in the ACC in career sacks, despite playing just three seasons. He led the nation with 15 sacks as a junior. One of the top two-sport athletes in ACC history, Peppers was a forward on UNC's basketball team where he helped the Tar Heels advance to the 2000 Final Four and earn a share of the 2001 ACC regular-season title.

KELVIN BRYANT, #44

A three-time first-team All-ACC tailback, Bryant ranks fourth at UNC with 3,267 rushing yards. He had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from 1980-82. Despite injuries, he had 1,015 yards in seven games in 1981. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 19 occasions and scored six touchdowns in a game against East Carolina in 1981. Bryant holds the NCAA record for most touchdowns scored in two and three consecutive games (11 and 15, respectively). He played eight years of professional football.

HARRIS BARTON, #67

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

CAROLINA'S ACC TOP 50 PLAYERS

In 2002, the Atlantic Coast Conference celebrated its 50th Anniversary and named the 50 greatest football players that have played in the conference. Caralina had eight players amang that list, including:

Dre' Bly
Kelvin Bryant
William Fuller
Amas Lawrence
Dan McCauley
Julius Peppers
Lawrence Taylar
Mike Vaight

BRIAN BLADOS, #60

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL draft.

IRV HOLDASH, #25

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

BOB LACEY, #85

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

AMOS LAWRENCE, #20

The only ACC player and one of only four players in college football history to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons. Lawrence holds the UNC career record and is second in ACC history with 4,391 yards rushing. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 25 occasions and his 286 yards rushing vs. Virginia in 1977 was NCAA freshman rushing record at the time. Lawrence was named the co-MVP in the 1979 Gator Bowl and was the MVP of the 1980 Bluebonnet Bowl.

PAUL SEVERIN, #87

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

1947 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Georgia 20, Carolina 10
January 1, 1947

The 1947 Sugar Bowl, which matched Carolina against Georgia, is one of the most famous Tar Heel games of the Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice years and produced one of the most controversial plays in bowl history.

Carolina was leading 7-0 in the third period when Bulldog defensive right end Joe Tereshinski intercepted a Tar Heel pass at the Georgia 24-yard line. He then flipped a lateral to Dick McPhee who raced 52 yards to the Carolina 14.

The Tar Heels argued the lateral was a forward one and the play should have been called back. However, the officials ruled differently. Georgia went on to score the tying touchdown on a quarterback sneak by Johnny Rauch.

Carolina's lone touchdown came on a Walt Pupa two-yard run following an interception by Tar Heel guard Bob Mitten.

The Tar Heels' last lead at 10-7 came on a Bob Cox field goal.

The Georgia game-winner came on a 67-yard touchdown pass from Trippi to Dan Edwards less than three minutes after the UNC field goal.

The Dawgs' Charley Trippi rushed for 77 yards, while Justice carried 18 times for 37 yards.

1949 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Oklahoma 14, Carolina 6
January 1, 1949

The Tar Heels returned to the Sugar Bowl in 1949 and were defeated 14-6 by the University of Oklahoma, representing the Big Seven Conference. A record crowd of 85,000 turned out to see the Charlie Justice-led Tar Heels battle Bud Wilkinson's Sooners.

Carolina threatened early, advancing via a Justice to Art Weiner 23-yard pass play to the OU 15. Justice's next pass, however, was intercepted by linebacker Myrle Greathouse who rumbled 59 yards to the Carolina 13. Sooners' quarterback Jack Mitchell scored the first points of the day on a two-yard run.

The Heels capitalized on an OU fumble later in the first quarter and Justice marched the team down to the two, from where Hosea Rodgers scored. The conversion was wide right.

Carolina advanced to the OU eight late in the first half, but could not score.

The Sooners regained the lead for good in the third quarter. Quarterback Darrell Royal connected for 37 yards with Frankie Anderson and two plays later, Lindell Pearson ran it in from eight yards out.

Justice was brilliant, rushing for 84 yards and passing for another 57.

1950 Cotton Bowl
Dallas, Texas
Rice 27, Carolina 13
January 1, 1950

Charlie Justice had another great day in the 1950 Cotton Bowl, but it just wasn't enough as the Tar Heels fell to fifth-ranked Rice, 27-13. The Owls had a 9-1-0 record, while Carolina came in at 7-3 and was ranked 16th.

Rice and Carolina played to a scoreless draw in the opening quarter, hut Rice opened the scoring in the second quarter when quarterback Tohin Rote hooked up with Billy Burkhalter for a 44-yard touchdown. Bobby Lantrip's three-yard run built a 14-0 halftime lead, and the Owls kept right on rolling i n the third quarter.

On its second possession of the second half, Rice traveled 77 yards in six plays, capped by Rote's 17-yard scoring pass to "Froggie" Williams. Burkhalter made it 27-0 with a 12-yard fourth quarter score.

The Tar Heels got two touchdowns in the final eight minutes. Justice hit Paul Rizzo for a two-yard touchdown pass and then Rizzo ran it in from two yards.

Justice managed 59 yards rushing and another 63 in the air, while Art Weiner led the Tar Heels with five receptions for 41 yards. Billy Hayes topped the UNC rushing attack with 107 yards on 19 carries.

The 1950 Cotton Bowl marked the end of the "Choo-Choo" Justice era that began in 1946. The Tar Heels went 32-9-2 in that time and played in three major bowl games.

1963 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 35, Air Force 0
December 28, 1963

It had been 13 years since Charlie Justice had led Carolina to the 1950 Cotton Bowl, so when the Tar Heels got a chance to play in the 1963 Gator Bowl, they made the most of it. The Tar Heels walloped the Air Force, 35-0.

Ken Willard was the hero of the day. He ran for 94 yards on 18 carries and scored the first touchdown which keyed the runaway victory. When Willard wasn't running in this rout, he did his share of the offensive blocking.

Joe Robinson scored on a five-yard pass and also caught a two-yard conversion to give the Tar Heels a 20-0 lead at intermission.

Coach Jim Hickey's Tar Heels had 23 first downs to the Academy's 14, and piled up 370 yards in total offense compared to 260 for the Falcons.

Gary Black completed all six of his passes for 71 yards and one touchdown and he rushed for another score. Junior Edge was good on five of his nine throws for 42 yards.

Carolina finished the season 9-2, its best record in Hickey's eight years at the helm.

Arizona State 48, Carolina 26
December 30, 1970

The Tar Heels exploded for 26 second quarter points but couldn't hold off Arizona State in the final two quarters as the Sun Devils rallied for an exciting 48-26 victory before 52,126 fans at Grant Field.

Carolina spotted unbeaten ASU 14 points on a pair of touchdowns runs, from eight and 33 yards, by Bob Thomas.

Don McCauley got the Tar Heels on the scoreboard with a one-yard plunge set up by a long pass from Paul Miller to Ricky Lanier. ASU scored on its next series, though, on a 67-yard TD catch by J.D. Hill.

Carolina then scored the final three touchdowns of the first half to go into the intermission with a 26-21 lead. First, Miller passed 37 yards for a score to Tony Blanchard. Then McCauley rushed in from 17 yards out. And finally, the All-America McCauley scored again from four yards.

Arizona State dominated a second half which was played in a heavy Atlanta snowstorm and without Miller, who left with an injury.

Monroe Ely scored twice and Thomas reached the end zone for the third time in the Sun Devils' 27-point second half.

1971 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Georgia 7, Carolina 3
December 31, 1971

For the first time since 1950, the Tar Heels were playing in a bowl game for the second consecutive season. This time, the Tar Heels would fall, 7-3, to the Georgia Bulldogs.

The game produced a bowl first — brothers coaching against each other. Bill Dooley led the Tar Heels and older brother Vince coached the Dawgs.

The game was a defensive struggle with all the points coming in the third quarter.

In the opening half, Carolina had the best chance as linebacker Jimmy Webster, voted the Tar Heels' MVP this day, blocked a punt out of bounds at the Georgia 24. A fumble, though, denied Carolina any points.

A pair of long runs by Lewis Jolley brought the Tar Heels down to the Georgia 16 on UNC's first possession of the second half. But a procedure penalty forced the Heels to settle for a 35-yard field goal by Ken Craven.

A 31-yard pass play from Andy Johnson to Roy Hunnicutt set up the Georgia touchdown. Jimmy Poulos, on the very next play following Hunnicutt's catch, took it in for a score from 25 yards. Poulos rushed for 161 yards on the afternoon and was named the Georgia MVP.

1972 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 32, Texas Tech 28
December 30, 1972

Carolina capped an 11-1 season in the 1972 Sun Bowl by defeating Texas Tech, 32-28. Quarterback Nick Vidnovic brought the Tar Heels from behind with a late scoring drive which he capped by tossing a 13-yard touchdown pass to wingback Ted Leverenz.

That play, with a minute to go in the game, gave UNC a 30-28 lead. Carolina added two points moments later as Ronnie Robinson sacked quarterback Joe Barnes in the end zone.

The Tar Heels led 9-0 in the second quarter on a field goal by Ellis Alexander and touchdown run by Dick Oliver. The Red Raiders rallied, however, for the next 21 points and a 21-9 lead. Vidnovic hit Leverenz for a 62-yard touchdown and Billy Hite carried it in from three yards to reestablish a 24-21 Carolina lead. Tech gained the advantage, 28-24, with 7:41 to play in the game.

Vidnovic completed 14 of 26 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Ike Oglesby rushed for 71 yards and Sammy Johnson added 52.

The Red Raiders had a touchdown called back in the second quarter. All-America guard Donald Rives ran a blocked punt back for an apparent score, but Tech was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct and the points were nullified.

1974 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Mississippi State 26, Carolina 24
December 28, 1974

Despite mounting 402 yards in total offense, the Tar Heels dropped a 26-24 decision to Mississippi State in a record-setting Sun Bowl.

Terry Vitrano's two-yard touchdown with 3:41 remaining was the game-winner. That capped a 16-play, 80-yard drive which lasted nearly seven minutes.

Carolina had taken a 24-20 lead with 10:26 to play on an Ellis Alexander field goal.

The Bulldogs totaled a Sun Bowl record 499 yards in total offense — 455 of those yards came on the ground via the veer offense. Walter Packer rushed for 189 yards, Vitrano added 164 and quarterback Rockey Felker gained another 69.

The Tar Heels also got big ground gains from Mike Voight and James Betterson. Voight picked up 90 yards on 19 carries and Betterson chipped in with 84 on 17 rushes. But Voight was stopped a yard shy of a first down on Carolina's last offensive play of the game. Chris Kupec, who led the nation in pass completion percentage, connected with Jimmy Jerome for 29 yards and a touchdown.

1976 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Kentucky 21, Carolina 0
December 31, 1976

Playing without an injured Mike Voight, the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year, the Tar Heels managed just five first downs and 108 yards total offense in a 21-0 loss to Kentucky.

Voight, who had rushed for 1,407 yards, injured his ankle in practice two days before the game when he stepped in a hole going out on a pass play. Ironically, Voight had caught just four passes the entire season.

The teams battled to a tie at the half, but Carolina thought it had put up points in the first quarter. On the Tar Heels' opening drive, Matt Kupec hit split end Walker Lee with a 50-yard touchdown pass, but officials ruled the Tar Heels offside and the play came back.

Early in the third quarter, Kentucky defensive end Bud Diehl knocked the ball from Kupec's grasp and the 'Cats recovered at the UNC 21. That set up the first of three rushing touchdowns by fullback Rod Stewart.

Stewart, who finished with 104 yards and the game's MVP trophy, added fourth quarter scores from 13 and three yards.

Subbing for Voight, freshman Doug Paschal led the Tar Heels with 41 yards rushing.

1977 Liberty Bowl
Memphis, Tenn.
Nebraska 21, Carolina 17
December 19, 1977

No. 12 Nebraska scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and rallied for a 21-17 victory over 13th-rated North Carolina.

Reserve quarterback Randy Garcia came off the Cornhuskers' bench in the final period to toss a pair of touchdown passes, including a 33-yard game-winner to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game. That came six plays after Nebraska recovered a fumble at the UNC 43.

Tar Heel quarterback Matt Kupec, voted the game's Most Valuable Player despite the loss, had led the Tar Heels to a 17-7 lead in the third quarter. Kupec, who connected on seven of his 11 passes, threw touchdown passes to Brooks Williams and Bob Loomis. Tom Biddle added Carolina's final points with 4:17 left in the third on a Liberty Bowl record 47-yard field goal.

Carolina led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, allowing just 7.4 points per game through the regular season. Nebraska was the only team to score more than 14 points against UNC all season.

Bill Dooley resigned in January 1978 to accept the dual position of head football coach and athletic director at Virginia Tech.

1979 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 17, Michigan 15
December 28, 1979

Matt Kupec completed 18 of 28 passes for 161 yards and one touchdown and Amos Lawrence rushed for 118 yards to lead North Carolina to a 17-15 win over Michigan.

Trailing 9-0, the Tar Heels rallied for the next 17 points and then held off a Michigan threat late in the game to post the first of Dick Crum's four consecutive bowl wins.

Carolina had two chances early on to score first, but high winds knocked down a pair of Jeff Hayes field goal attempts. Michigan did score first following a turnover and added a 53-yard touchdown reception by Anthony Carter to move ahead 9-0.

Doug Paschal put the Heels on the board with a two-yard touchdown. Early in the third, Kupec engineered a 16-play, 97-yard touchdown drive which culminated in a 12-yard pass to Phil Farris. Hayes added a 32-yard field goal in the fourth for a 17-9 UNC lead.

Michigan, thwarted once already in the fourth when Lawrence Taylor scooped up a loose ball, did manage another Carter touchdown with 1:28 left, but the two-point conversion pass to Carter fell short.

Kupec and Lawrence were named co-Most Valuable Players.

1980 Bluebonnet Bowl
Houston, Texas
Carolina 16, Texas 7
December 31, 1980

Amos Lawrence rushed for 104 yards and one touchdown and the Tar Heel defense allowed just two first downs and 36 total yards in the second half as Carolina played error-free football to defeat Texas, 16-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Lawrence, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, scampered 59 yards for a touchdown on the Tar Heels' fourth play from scrimmage for a 7-0 lead. Following a Texas touchdown in the second quarter by Mike Luck, Carolina regained the advantage for good on a one-yard run by Kelvin Bryant.

Jeff Hayes converted a fumbled punt snap by the Longhorns into a 31-yard field goal with 2:03 to play in the third quarter.

The defense, which allowed 224 yards and 11 Texas first downs in the opening half, dominated the second 30 minutes. UNC safety Steve Streater was named the defensive MVP as he had an interception, recovered a fumble and also boomed a 63-yard punt, longest in Bluebonnet Bowl history.

Carolina's 11-1 record matched the best season in UNC history. The Tar Heels finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and ninth by UPI.

1981 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 31, Arkansas 27
December 28, 1981

Kelvin Bryant rushed for 148 yards and Ethan Horton added 144 to lead the Tar Heels to a 31-27 victory over Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Bryant and Horton shared Most Valuable Player honors, but it was a key defensive stop by seldom-used freshman Ronnie Snipes which saved the night for Carolina.

After building a 31-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Carolina watched as Arkansas rallied for two touchdowns and had the ball again inside Tar Heel territory with less than a minute to play. But on third down, Snipes, who had played just two previous downs in the contest, sacked quarterback Brad Taylor for a 17-yard loss.

The game was deadlocked at 10-10 at the half, but Carolina came right out to open the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 85-yard drive which was capped by Horton's one-yard scoring run.

UNC quarterback Rod Elkins scored on a one-yard sneak on the Tar Heels' next drive. He was set up by a 21-yard run by Horton and a 13-yard scamper by Bryant.

Horton then churned out 42 yards on six plays and went in from four yards out to give the Heels a 31-10 lead with 7:29 to play in the game.

The Razorbacks scored with 5:05 to play, recovered an onside kick and scored again with 2:44 left. UNC punter Jeff Hayes took an intentional safety with 1:44 to play. That gave the ball back to Arkansas and set up Snipes' defensive gem.

1982 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 26, Texas 10
December 25, 1982

North Carolina scored the final 23 points of the game in the final quarter and held seventh-ranked Texas to 48 total yards in the second half as the Tar Heels became the first ACC team to win four consecutive bowl games.

Ethan Horton was the offensive star of the game, rushing for 119 yards in the second half as Carolina won 26-10. He replaced injured starter Kelvin Bryant, who totaled 45 yards before leaving the game with an injured ankle.

Trailing 10-3 after three quarters, the Tar Heels vaulted into the lead via three consecutive field goals. Sophomore walk-on Rob Rogers, who had connected from 53 yards in the second quarter, hit a 47-yard field goal with 14:51 to play to narrow the Texas lead to 10-6. Brooks Barwick was then successful from 24 and 42 yards, the latter putting the Heels into the lead at 12-10 with 4:56 left.

Horton tacked on a three-yard touchdown with 2:17 remaining and Mike Wilcher fell on a loose ball in the end zone for another touchdown with 1:35 to play.

The defensive series of the game came five minutes into the third quarter with Texas leading 10-3 and with the ball, third-and-goal at the Carolina one. Two times, Texas fullback Ervin Davis tried to find the end zone, but twice he was hurled back. First, it was Wilcher who made the hit and then on 4th-and-goal, Greg Poole made the stop which changed the game.

The Christmas Day affair was played with intermittent snow flurries and a wind-chill reading that hovered around 12 degrees.

1983 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Florida State 28, Carolina 3
December 30, 1983

Florida State scored the first two times it had the ball and penalties and turnovers cost the Tar Heels dearly, as the Seminoles whipped Carolina 28-3 in a miserably cold and half-empty Peach Bowl.

Played before only 25,648 fans in low-20 degree temperatures, the Peach Bowl loss snapped the Tar Heels' consecutive bowl- game winning streak at four.

The Seminoles held the Tar Heels' running game to just 32 yards and three first downs. One thousand-yard rushers Ethan Horton and Tyrone Anthony were held to 30 and 27 yards, respectively.

Florida State quarterback Eric Thomas, making his first start, connected with Weegie Thompson on touchdown passes on the 'Noles first two series.

Midway through the second quarter, the Tar Heels fumbled away a punt at their own 16 and FSU converted via a 1-yard touchdown run.

Carolina put up its only points of the day on Brooks Barwick's 36-yard field goal.

The loss was the fourth in the final five games of the season and ended a season in which Carolina had been ranked third in the nation.

1986 Aloha Bowl
Honolulu, Hawaii
Arizona 30, Carolina 21
December 27, 1986

Arizona converted four North Carolina fumbles into 20 points and then held off a furious Tar Heel rally in the fourth quarter to win the 1986 Aloha Bowl, 30-21.

Carolina dug itself a 30-0 hole and did not put points on the board until freshman tailback Torin Dorn broke a 58-yard touchdown run with 2:19 left in the third quarter.

The Tar Heels fumbled five times in the first three periods and the Wildcats turned them into two touchdowns and two field goals.

Following Dorn's electrifying run, the Tar Heels quickly moved back within striking distance with two more touchdowns in the next seven minutes.

Mark Maye hit Randy Marriott with a six-yard touchdown pass after a Norris Davis interception and then followed a Davis punt block with a two-yard scoring run of his own to narrow the margin to 30-21 with 9:10 to play.

That, however, was as close as Carolina could challenge. A couple of dropped passes thwarted two more Carolina drives.

Dorn was the game's leading ground-gainer, rushing for 101 yards on only seven carries. Maye completed 17 of 34 passes for 171 yards; he hooked up with Eric Starr a game-high seven times for 53 yards.

1993 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 21, Mississippi State 17
January 2, 1993

Defensive MVP Bracey Walker blocked consecutive third-quarter punts, returning one of them for the tying touchdown, and forced a fourth quarter interception which Cliff Baskerville returned 44 yards for a touchdown to lead Carolina to a 21-17 Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State.

Walker's heroics capped a fierce second-half comeback in which the Tar Heels came from 14 points behind to score three times, although just once on an offensive possession.

MSU took a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter and had two more scores in the second quarter called back due to holding penalties.

Carolina regrouped at halftime, however, and cut the lead to 14-7 just six plays into the third quarter. Mike Thomas connected with Bucky Brooks for a 53-yard completion on the fourth play of the half and Natrone Means scored from a yard out two snaps later.

Means led the Tar Heel offense with 128 yards rushing and was named the game's Offensive MVP.

Later in the third quarter, Walker blocked a punt but Carolina's field goal try was unsuccessful. On the next series UNC again forced the Bulldogs to punt and this time Walker blocked the kick, picked up the loose ball and raced 24 yards untouched for the tying score.

Early in the final quarter Walker forced a midair loose ball with a jarring hit and Baskerville plucked the ball out of the air and sprinted 44 yards down the left sideline for what proved to be the winning score.

1993 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Alabama 24, Carolina 10
December 31, 1993

Quarterback Brian Burgdorf threw for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead 18th-ranked and defending national champion Alabama to a 24-10 victory over 11th-ranked Carolina in Outback Steakhouse Gator Bowl.

Corey Holliday caught nine passes for 125 yards and was UNC's MVP.

After a scoreless first period, Alabama took the lead on a 22-yard field goal by Michael Proctor. Carolina quarterback Jason Stanicek then led a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in just 1:36 to take the lead, 7-3, on the ensuing possession. Stanicek hit Holliday with completions of 29 and 22 yards and executed one of his trademark option pitches to freshman tailback Leon Johnson for an 18-yard gain. William Henderson plunged in from a yard out for the lead.

The Crimson Tide went up 10-7 Burgdorf scored from 33 yards out on a quarterback draw.

With 1:44 left before intermission, Stanicek led what would be the final Tar Heel scoring drive. He hit Holliday with passes of 12 and nine yards and Curtis Johnson ran twice for 20 yards before the drive stalled and Tripp Pignetti hit a 23-yard field goal to tie the game at 10.

The Alabama defense was the key to the game, holding UNC to a season-low 42 net yards rushing on 25 carries. Carolina could only muster 40 total yards and four first downs in the second half.

1994 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Texas 35, Carolina 31
December 30, 1994

Priest Holmes rushed for 161 yards and four touchdowns, including the game-winner with 1:17 to play, to lead Texas to a 35-31 win over the Tar Heels before a Sun Bowl record crowd of 50,612.

Holmes' four-touchdown performance wrestled away MVP honors from UNC quarterback Mike Thomas, who had the finest passing day of his career. Thomas completed 23 of 39 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns. He set UNC bowl game records for completions and yards and tied the mark with two scoring tosses. He was 15 for 19 in the first half and completed 20 of 29 before a final desperation drive.

Wide receivers Marcus Wall and Octavus Barnes were two more standouts for the Tar Heels. Wall was selected the game's Most Valuable Special Teams Player. He gave the Tar Heels a 24-21 lead in the fourth quarter when he returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown.

Barnes set UNC bowl game records for most catches and yards with nine receptions for 165 yards and one score. The 165 yards were also the most in Sun Bowl history.

With Carolina up, 31-21, Texas quickly went on a 68-yard touchdown drive in only 2:38. On the next series, Texas took over at its own 32 and drove 68 yards in 10 plays for the winning score. Holmes carried the last three plays on the drive for nine, two and finally the five yard touchdown run.

1995 Carquest Bowl
Miami, Fla.
Carolina 20, Arkansas 10
December 30, 1995

Leon Johnson rushed for a Carolina bowl record 195 yards and Mike Thomas threw for two scores as the Tar Heels knocked off Arkansas, 20-10, in the Carquest Bowl.

Johnson's 195-yard effort topped the previous high of 148 yards by Kelvin Bryant, also against Arkansas, in the 1981 Gator Bowl. Johnson had just 23 yards on eight carries in the first half, but exploded for 172 yards in the second half.

All-America tackle Marcus Jones capped his career with four tackles for losses, including a quarterback sack on Arkansas' last play from scrimmage - his final collegiate play.

Trailing by a touchdown the Tar Heels quickly moved into position to tie the game. On third-and-long quarterback Mike Thomas rolled right, threw back across the field to Ashford, who sprinted around the left flank into the end zone.

The Razorbacks managed to take a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Latourette. Two series later Carolina went into the lead for good. On third-and-eight from the 28, Thomas ran the option around the right corner, turned upfield and then pitched the ball to Johnson, who was trailing the play perfectly. Johnson ran untouched for a 28-yard, go-ahead score.

1997 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 20, West Virginia 13
January 1, 1997

Oscar Davenport, starting in place of injured first-team all-conference quarterback Chris Keldorf, completed 14 of 26 passes for 175 yards and one touchdown as Carolina defeated West Virginia 20-13 in the 52nd annual Toyota Gator Bowl. Davenport, who also rushed for one touchdown, was named the game's MVP.

Carolina broke the scoring drought early in the second quarter when Davenport found Octavus Barnes in the back corner of the end zone on an 18-yard pass. As time was running down in the first half, Davenport and Leon Johnson led the Tar Heels on a five-play touchdown drive. Johnson caught a pass for 13 yards and rushed twice for 19 yards in the drive. Davenport scored on a 5-yard option keeper for a 17-3 lead.

West Virginia opened the second-half scoring with a 34-yard touchdown pass to close within seven points. A fumble recovery by Greg Williams ended one WVU threat, but West Virginia had one last chance to tie the game late in the fourth quarter. Carolina stopped the Mountaineers on 4th-and-6 at the UNC 24 with just under two minutes remaining.

Dre' Bly, Carolina's consensus first-team All-America, picked off two second-half passes. Carolina's defense forced four West Virginia turnovers; the Mountaineers had 10 in 11 regular-season games.

1998 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 42, Virginia Tech 3
January 1, 1998

Chris Keldorf threw for 290 yards and three scores and Carolina's defense and special teams added touchdowns as the Tar Heels pounded Virginia Tech, 42-3, in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

The victory, UNC's most lopsided in a bowl game, secured a No. 4 final ranking in the coaches' poll for the 11-1 Tar Heels. The game was Carl Torbush's first as Carolina's head coach. Torbush, UNC's defensive coordinator the past 10 years, was elevated to head coach on December 8th after Mack Brown accepted the same position at the University of Texas.

Keldorf completed 17 of 28 passes, including touchdown throws of 62 and 14 yards to wide receiver Octavus Barnes and four yards to fullback Jamie Carrick.

Carolina amassed 427 total yards and held the Hokies to just 185 yards. Leading 3-0, Keldorf hit Barnes with a 62-yard bomb down the left sideline for a 10-0 lead. Later in the first quarter, Carolina forced Virginia Tech to punt deep in Hokie territory. Quinton Savage blocked the punt and Dre' Bly scooped it up at the 6-yard line and scored for a 16-0 UNC advantage.

One minute and 10 seconds after Bly's touchdown, Ellis fell on a loose ball in the Tech end zone for another touchdown. Carolina scored 16 first-quarter points in the entire regular season, but scored 16 in the first quarter of the Gator Bowl and six more just seven seconds into the second quarter.

The 42 points were the most in UNC postseason history and the three touchdown passes by Keldorf set a UNC bowl game record.

1998 Las Vegas Bowl
Las Vegas, Nev.
Carolina 20, San Diego State 13
December 19, 1998

Ronald Curry rushed for a season-high 93 yards and a touchdown, punter Brian Schmitz was outstanding despite windy conditions and the Tar Heel defense did not allow a TD in the last 59 minutes as Carolina defeated San Diego State, 20-13.

Curry, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, gave Carolina the lead for good with a 48-yard touchdown run on the final play of the opening quarter. He rushed for 93 yards on 10 carries and accounted for 96 of Carolina's 196 total offense yards, despite playing just four series.

The game was played winds gusting to 47 miles per hour. Passing was almost impossible. In fact, Carolina won the game despite completing just four passes for 33 yards.

Schmitz averaged 44.0 yards on five punts and pinned the Aztecs inside their own 11-yard line four times. Late in the second quarter, Schmitz unloaded a 66-yard punt into the wind.

San Diego State took an early 7-0 lead in the first minute of the game before the Tar Heels scored 20 unanswered points to close the first half. After two second-half field goals cut it to 20-13, the Aztecs had one final chance to tie the game. With just over a minute left, Dre' Bly broke up a pass in the end zone. On the following play, Brandon Spoon tipped Brian Russell's pass in the air and the ball was intercepted at the goal line by Keith Newman with 59 seconds remaining.

2001 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 16, Auburn 10
December 31, 2001

Willie Parker rushed for 131 yards and Ryan Sims led a spirited defensive effort as North Carolina won its fifth consecutive postseason bowl appearance with a 16-10 victory over Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Parker, who started his first game since September, was spectacular, scoring on a 10-yard run in the first quarter and setting up a second-quarter field goal with a 43-yard dash. Parker had the fifth-best rushing day in UNC bowl history and it was the 11th time a Tar Heel had rushed for more than 100 yards in a bowl game.

Parker's touchdown was set up by Carolina's defense, which allowed just 32 total rushing yards and shutout Auburn for three quarters. In the first quarter, cornerback Michael Waddell forced a fumble at the Auburn 26-yard line that defensive end Joey Evans picked up and rumbled to the Auburn 8-yard line. Two plays later, Parker's touchdown gave Carolina a 7-0 lead.

Curry, who was named the game's Offensive MVP, scored on an incredible touchdown run in the third quarter to give Carolina a 16-0 advantage.

Defensively, Carolina came up with several big plays throughout the game and held off a furious Auburn comeback in the fourth quarter. Sims, the Defensive MVP, had six tackles, including two sacks and was constantly disrupting the Auburn backfield.

After scoring twice in the fourth quarter, Auburn attempted an onside kick, but UNC's Richard Moore covered the ball and the Tar Heels ran out the clock.

2004 Continental Tire Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Boston College 37, Carolina 24
December 30, 2004

Kicker Ryan Ohliger scored on a 21-yard fake field goal run to seal Boston College's 37-24 victory over North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Clinging to a 27-24 lead over North Carolina (6-6) in the fourth quarter, BC quarterback Paul Peterson was injured as he tried to run outside for a first down on third-and-1 and was brought down awkwardly by Tommy Davis. On the next play, Ohliger, a 5-foot-9 freshman, took the handoff from holder Matt Ryan and raced into the end zone, breaking a tackle along the way, for a 34-24 lead with 10:32 to play. Before leaving, Peterson went 24-of-33 for 236 yards and two touchdowns.

Virginia represented the ACC in the first two Tire Bowls, so the inclusion of North Carolina was a welcome change of scenery. Tar Heels fans snapped up over 65,000 tickets, washing out the scattering of Boston College supporters in a sea of light blue.

They had plenty to cheer about early as North Carolina seized the momentum by scoring a pair of touchdowns after Peterson's fumble and Ohliger's missed field goal.

North Carolina quarterback Darian Durant threw for 260 yards and three TDs in his final game as a Tar Heel. He finished his storied career with 51 school records, including all major passing and total offense records.

Wide receiver Derelle Mitchell caught seven passes for 116 yards.

2008 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
West Virginia 31, Carolina 30
December 30, 2004

Pat White threw for 332 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown pass to Alric Arnett midway through the fourth quarter to send West Virginia to a 31-30 win over North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

The senior quarterback was voted MVP, helping West Virginia (9-4) overcome Hakeem Nicks' big day for North Carolina. Nicks caught eight passes for 217 yards and three touchdowns for the Tar Heels (8-5), but T.J. Yates was intercepted by Pat Lazear with under 2 minutes left to end Butch Davis' hopes of a bowl win in his second year at North Carolina.

White completed 26 of 32 passes and threw one interception. The NCAA's all-time leading rushing quarterback added 55 more yards on the ground to finish with 4,480.

After J.T. Thomas recovered Shaun Draughn's fumble at the West Virginia 30, White threw a 41-yard pass over the middle to Jock Sanders, picked up nine yards on a running play and then rifled a pass between two defenders to Arnett for the go-ahead touchdown with 7:14 left.

Yates couldn't find the dynamic Nicks on the Tar Heels' final drive, eventually throwing his first interception of the game.

Nicks already set three school receiving records and shattered his career-high in yards receiving - with 10:37 left in the second quarter. It was part of a dizzying offensive display by both teams that produced six touchdowns in the game's first 20 minutes.

Nicks' 25-yard TD catch from Yates early in the second quarter was his 178th career reception - another school record - and gave North Carolina a 23-21 lead. The action thrilled a sellout crowd at Bank of America Stadium that included thousands of fans from both schools.

MEDIA INFORMATION
FOOTBALL
TWO-THOUSAND NINE

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

Football media services are coordinated by Director af Faatball Cammunications Kevin Best and Assistant Athletic Communications Director John Martin. Please direct interview, infarmatian and photo requests to Best or Martin. Best's office is located an the faurth floor of the Kenan Football Center. The main Athletic Cammunicatians Office is located on the street level of the Kaury Natatorium, adjacent ta the Dean E. Smith Center and less than one mile from Kenan Stadium.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press credentials at Caralina hame football games shauld be made in writing on statian/newspaper/magazine letterhead to Associate A.D. for Communications Steve Kirschner. The mailing address is P.O. Box 2126, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27515. Requests may be sent via fax (919-962-0612) or e-mail (stevekirschner@unc.edu), but all requests should be sent so they reach the Athletic Cammunications Office at least ane week priar ta the game.

Credentials will be mailed or they may be picked up before 5 p.m. on Friday at the Athletic Communications Office. Thase credentials nat picked up by 5 p.m. an Friday will be left far Saturday pickup at Kenan Stadium Will Call at the ticket window of Kenan Fieldhouse (old fieldhouse, East endzone). Will Call opens three hours prior to kickoff and will be staffed through the third quarter.

SIDELINE POLICY

Photogrophers will not be allowed on the sidelines without a UNC-issued phatagrapher's vest. Vests will be distributed in the press box beginning 90 minutes prior to kickoff. Each photographer must sign in for his/her own vest. Under NCAA and Atlantic Coast Conference guidelines, photographers are not allawed between the 25-yard lines and must remain autside the restraining lines surrounding the field. Credential holders not working will be asked to leave the sidelines. A representative of the Athletic Communications Office will be on the field ta handle any questians and serve as field liaisan ta press bax afficials. We ask, far the safety of others, that equipment not be left unattended on the sidelines. If you are shooting with a tripod, please keep a safe distance from the playing field.

GAME DAY PARKING

Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to Steve Kirschner. Single-game parking passes will be mailed. Parking is lacated either in the Rams Head Deck an Ridge Raad ar the East Drive Deck at the corner of East and Manning Drive.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following a brief cooling-off period, requested UNC players will head directly to the interview area on the fifth floor of Kenan Football Center for a 20-25 minute interview periad. The Tar Heels' locker room is closed.

Representatives from the Cammunicatians Office will take player requests from the media during the fourth quarter. Lacal television media who are on the field during the game shauld make player requests priar ta the end of the game to the on-field Communications representative.

Head caach Butch Davis will conduct a short interview with Woody Durham far the Tar Heel Sparts Netwark's live broadcast while the players are in the interview area. Davis will begin his pastgame press conference after the player interviews are completed.

After night games, Davis and the players will be available simultaneously due to deadline demands. Quotes will be gathered fram bath Davis and several players far distribution in the press box. Away game procedures will vary, depending an available facilities.

Please note: Davis is cantractually abligated ta da a shart pastgame interview with the Tar Heel Sports Radio Netwark. After night games, great care will be taken to get Davis to the general media as quickly as possible. We understand everyone has deadline pressures after late games and will da aur best to provide access to Davis as quickly as possible.

INTERNET AVAILABILITY

DIRECTIONS TO MEDIA PARKING

- From Eastern North Carolina and/or Raleigh/ Durham International Airport: Take I-40 West to Chapel Hill. Stay in the left or middle lane because I-40 splits about five miles past the airport (the right lane heads to Durham). Stay to the left and follow I-40 West to Exit 273-A. Follow NC-54 West for approximately three miles. Exit right onto Route 15-501 South/54 West and follow for one mile. Turn right at the traffic light onto Manning Drive. Go up the hill, stay straight through the intersection. The next traffic light will be at the intersection of Manning Drive and Gravely Drive. Press parking is either in the Rams Head Deck on Ridge Road or the Dogwood Deck on Manning Drive.
- From North of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 South to Durham. I-85 will split at exit 174. The right-hand lane takes you to I-40 and Greensboro. Stay in the left-hand lane and take exit 174 (a left-hand exit) for 15-501 South. Stay on 15-50I South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass until you turn right onto Manning Drive. See above.
- From Charlotte and West of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 North to I-40 East. 85 and 40 split in Hillsborough, just west of Chapel Hill. Take I-40 to exit 270 and exit onto Route 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass when it splits into 15-501 and Franklin Street. Follow 15-50I to Manning Drive and turn right. See above.
- From South of Chapel Hill: Take I-77 North to I-85 and then follow the same directions as from Charlotte. Or take I-95 North to I-40 West. 95 and 40 converge just north of Benson, N.C. Then take I-40 all the way to Chapel Hill and follow the directions from the airport. See above.

Tar Heel Sports Network

Learfield Communications begins its 11th full year as the official media rights holder for the University of North Carolina athletic teams..

Based in Jefferson City, Missouri, Learfield purchased Tar Heel Sports Properties in October 1999, adding the UNC property to 50 other schools under the Learfield umbrella. Among those for which Learfield also owns the rights are Alabama, Clemson, Colorado, Oklahoma, Indiana, Miami (Fla.), Missouri and Wisconsin.

"Our goal is to continue and add to the tremendous tradition and fan following at Carolina," says Gary Sobba, the nine-year General Manager for Tar Heel Sports Properties.

"I have worked on various college campuses for more than 20 years," adds Sobba, "and if there is a better athletic program in the country than this one, I don't know where it is."

Tar Heel Sports Properties is in its 15th year as UNC's multimedia rights holder. All Carolina fans have heard of the Tar Heel Sports Network, which broadcasts the play-by-play of football and basketball games, but that is only one facet of the operation.

Tar Heel Sports Properties is a full-service agency overseeing production and sales of all the University of North Carolina's football and basketball entities including television, print products, internet and radio.

THSP brings you a variety of ways to follow the Heels during the athletic season. Simply, listen to your radio during the week for "Butch Davis Live" and "Roy Williams Live" or watch game highlights Saturday mornings on "Inside Carolina Football and Basketball," and on "Tar Heel Football Review Show" in the Triangle. When you are at Kenan Stadium pick-up the official game program.

The Tar Heel Sports Network continues to bring the great tradition of Carolina sports into your home.

Woody Durham, beginning his 39th year as the "Voice of the Tar Heels," and head coach Butch Davis give fans an opportunity to phone in and talk with the Coach every week during the football season on the "Butch Davis Live" call in show.

Durham also will visit with Coach Davis on "Inside Carolina Football", a daily five-minute program featuring conversations with the Tar Heels' Head Coach. Both of these shows are heard on stations throughout North Carolina and beyond.

"Inside Carolina Football with Butch Davis," hosted by Durham, is a half-hour television program seen each week on Fox Sports South. The show features highlights of the previous game, interviews with current and former Tar Heel players, and a preview of upcoming action.

Woody Durham "The Voice of the Tar Heels" 39th year at North Carolina

A 2005 North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame inductee, Woody Durham enters his 39th year as the "Voice of the Tar Heels" this fall.

Since September 1971, Durham has broadcast more than 1,700 Carolina football and basketball games, and the Tar Heels have won more than 72 percent of those games.

A native of Mebane, N.C., Durham grew up in Albemarle, N.C., where he began his broadcasting career with WZKY Radio at age 16. He graduated from UNC in 1963 with an AB degree in Radio, Television and Motion Pictures, and spent 19 years as a TV sportscaster with stints in Greensboro and Raleigh-Durham-Chapel Hill.

In 1981, Durham joined Tar Heel Sports Properties, which produces the Tar Heel Sports Network, on a full-time basis, and in 1984, he permanently moved his family to Chapel Hill. He and his wife of 46 years, Jean, are the parents of two sons. Wes, 43, Georgia's Sportscaster of the Year, is in his 15th year handling play-by-play duties at Georgia Tech, and his sixth year handling the play-by-play duties for the NFL's Atlanta Falcons. Taylor, 36, is a network recruitment manager with International Sports Properties in Winston-Salem. Woody and Jean have 10-year-old twin grandchildren, Emily and Will.

Durham has been named North Carolina Sportscaster of the Year on 12 different occasions, most recently in 2005. In fact, Woody and Wes were both honored by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association in Salisbury on May 1, 2006. Wes has been chosen the Georgia Sportscaster of the Year five times, including most recently in April of 2008.

In 1993, Woody was inducted into the Stanly County Sports Hall of Fame. In 1994, he received the Priceless Gem Award from the UNC Department of Athletics. The following year, the General Alumni Association presented him with its Distinguished Service Medal. In November 2000, the UNC Board of Trustees honored him with the William R. Davie Award. During the 2002 ACC Basketball Tournament, he received the Marvin "Skeeter" Francis Award for special services to the ACC. In 2003, Durham was honored by the North Carolina High School Athletic Association, along with former Carolina football coach Bill Dooley, with the Russell Blunt Legends Award for being a true legend in athletics.

Durham was inducted into the North Carolina Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame in 2004, honoring individuals who have made significant contributions to the North Carolina broadcast industry. He also has received the Lindsey Nelson Outstanding Sportscaster Award from the All-American Football Association (June, 2005).

In addition to his play-by-play duties, Durham also visits with Coach Butch Davis on "Inside Carolina Football," a daily five-minute radio program. He is with Coach Davis every Wednesday evening during the football season for "Butch Davis Live," a radio call-in show which originates from Top Of The Hill restaurant in downtown Chapel Hill. He also hosts "Inside Carolina Football with Butch Davis," a weekly half-hour TV show on Fox Sports South.

WHY TAR HEELS?

University of North Carolina athletic teams are known as the Tar Heels because North Carolina is "The Tar Heel State."

One legend has the nicknome being opplied to the state's residents os long aga os the Revalutianary Wor. According ta this stary, the troaps af British General Cornwollis were fording what is naw known os the Tar River between Rocky Mount ond Bottlebara when they discavered that tar had been dumped inta the stream ta impede their crassing. When they finolly got ocross the river they faund their feet completely black with tor. Their abservatian thot anyone wha waded North Corolino rivers would ocquire tar heels led ta the nickname first being used.

Others say the nickname was ocquired during the Civil War. During one of thot war's fiercest bottles o column supporting Narth Caralina traaps was driven from the field. After the battle, the North Corolinians wha hod successfully fought it aut alane, happened ta meet the regiment which hod fled to sofety ond were greeted with the questian, "Any more tar down in the Old Narth Stote, boys?"

"No, not o bit," shot bock one af the Narth Caralina saldiers. "Old Jeff's bought it oll up," he went on, referring to Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy.

"Is that sa? What's he going to do with it?"

"He's gaing ta put it an yau'ns heels ta make yau stick better in the next fight."

Upon heoring of the incident, Robert E. Lee smiled ond soid to o fellow officer, "God bless the Tor Heel boys."

A letter found in 1991 by Stote Archivist Dovid Olson lends credence to onother more direct theory. A letter from Moj. Joseph Engelhard describes a fight invalving men fram Narth Caralina in which Lee was heard to have soid, "There they stond os if they hove tor on their heels."

The letter, dated August 24, 1864, tald the tale of a battle on the outskirts of Petersburg, Va. Engelhard was elected secretory of stote for North Corolino in 1876.

RAM MASCOT

Since Corolino's nicknome is Tor Heels, it might seem strange ta have a ram as a mascat. It is. But, there is a gaad explanatian. It's affered by Vic Huggins, Corolino's heod cheerleoder bock in 1924.

"In 1924 school spirit wos at a peok," Huggins ance explained. "But something seemed ta be missing. One day it hit me. Geargio hod o bulldag far a mascat and Stote o wolf. Whot Corolino needed wos o symbol."

Twa years earlier the Tar Heels had pasted a brilliant 9-1 record. The stor of thot 1922 teom wos o bruising fullbock nomed Jock Merritt. Merritt was nicknamed "the bottering rom" for the way he plunged into lines. It seemed natural to Huggins to link o mascat with Merritt's nickname.

"Chorlie Woollen, the othletic business monoger ot thot time, agreed with the ideo ond gave us $25 ta purchase a fitting mascat," said Huggins.

Rameses the First wos shipped in from Texos, orriving just in time ta be introduced at o pep rolly befare the VMI game. Camplete with o managram blanket on his bock, Romeses helped make the pep rolly one of the school's greotest.

Then the rom was taken ta Emersan Field where Corolina wos an underdog to o strong VMI team. But, for three quorters the Tar Heels battled the visitors to a scareless tie.

Late in the fourth periad Caralina's Bunn Hackney was called upan ta ottempt o field goal. Before taking the field he stopped to rub Romeses' head for goad luck.

Secands loter Hackney's 30-yord dropkick sailed between the goolposts, giving the Tor Heels a 3-0 victory and a legendary mascat.

OLD WELL WALK

On game doys, the Narth Corolino faatball teom trovels fram the team hatel ond is dropped aff in the center af campus at the Old Well, one of the University's mast recognized londmarks. From there, the Tor Heels wolk fram the Old Well through the main quad af compus and into the Kenan Faatball Center. The Old Well Wolk, which begon in 2001, is pocked eoch Saturday with thausands of cheering fans, haping ta catch a glimpse af their favarite player or cooch. The Old Well Walk begins opproximately twa and o half hours prior ta kickaff af each game.

SCHOOL COLORS

The odoption of light blue and white as UNC's colors dotes bock to the 19th Century. When the University reopened following the Civil War, most sacial activities were directed by two literory societies, the Dialectic and Philonthropic. The officiol color of the Di wos light blue and that af the Phi white.

On public occosions the student officers, marshals and ball managers were chosen equolly from the membership af the twa societies. It hod long been the custom of eoch saciety far its members to weor its color on such occosions. However, the chief marshal ond chief boll monoger, one fram the Di and the ather from the Phi, wore combinotion light blue and white regalios and rosettes signifying thot they represented the whole student body.

So it seemed only natural far the fans ta adarn themselves with the same cambinatian as that used by the chief morshals ond boll monogers, colors which represented nat membership in a saciety, but a University student body.

CAROLINA FIGHT SONGS

• HERE COMES CAROLINA

Here comes Corolino-lino
Here comes Coralina-lina
We hail fram NCU.
We've got the spirit in it
We've got the team to win it
We weor the colors White ond Blue –
So it's Fight! Fight! for Carolino
As Davie did in days of old.
As we gother 'round the 'Well
Cheer that Tar Heel team like hell –
For the glory of NCU.

• CAROLINA VICTORY MARCH

There'll be o Corolino victory,
When crass that field the foe hos fled.
Cheer thot team ta victary,
For we are Tar Heels born ond bred.
Rah! Roh! Roh!
Glary, glary, UNC.
Our heorts will live with thee
Fight! Fight! Fight!
For the Blue & White ore rolling to victory.

• ALMA MATER

Hark the sound of Tor Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolino's praises, Shauting "NCU."
(chorus)
Hail ta the brightest stor of all!
Clear its radiance shine
Caralina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.
(refrain)
Far I'm o Tar Heel barn
I'm a Tar Heel bred,
And when I die I'm a Tor Heel dead.
Sa it's – Rah, Roh, Carolina-lino
Roh, Rah, Caralina-lino
Rah, Rah, Corolina!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
